

Men's Night Shirts.

Big Roomy Ones, Made Especially for this Store.

Domest Flannel, really cotton, but fleeced on both sides, very cozy and kind to tender skin, doesn't shrink either, comes from the wash like new. At $1.00 each, made of fine soft Domest Flannel, good weight, full length, extra width, made in the popular military style, pretty colors of blue, tan, pink, absolutely fast. This number also comes in the new pyjama effects. Simply a new name for a double breasted night shirt, very practical though. $1.00 to see it.

Our 50c and 75c qualities we prefer any better than these are this season on good weight, full length, choice pretty patterns, and a full line of sizes up to size 20. The picking has begun. Better buy now before the first real cold snap comes.

Special Sale of Imported Torchon Laces at per yard, 3/8c.

Large line of pretty designs, insertions to match. Widths from one to three inches; Wednesday only, at 3/8c per yard.

Howard, Corner Sixteenth Street.

closed early, the workers feeling the strain of the long campaign and wanting to get away from the scene of battle as soon as possible.

Where Local Interest Centered.

Local interest centered chiefly in the race for the Second district and the telephone franchise fight. The general discussion prevailed among all parties that the republicans would carry the state, and the interest in that ticket was not keen. The fight on county attorney came in for a large share of interest, the friends of English heralding his victory with the utmost delight. Mr. English himself was in the thick of the fray until he was assured of election. Mr. Slubaugh's friends were equally concerned.

Light for Governor in New York.

The subject of local interest—Everybody who was interested in election returns wanted to know the "latest from New York." Hearst had his supporters, but Hughes seemed to be far more popular than the Katzenbach candidate and it was generally expected that he would beat Hearst. There was a great amount of betting on the favored Hughes, but the betting all favored Hughes.

Independents Celebrate.

The independent telephone projectors and their friends were the most actively congratulatory after the polls closed and were popular places throughout the night until the hour of closing. As a general thing no great amount of disorder prevailed.

Some Incidents of the Day.

Attendant half amusing and half painful occurred Tuesday morning in the city clerk's office, where a man giving the name of G. Sutherland, decided at the eleventh hour to register for the election in the city and to vote. Although in the city since the 13th of the month, he failed to register, and failing to offer a satisfactory reason for his failure, was refused a certificate Tuesday morning. Sutherland advised out of the clerk's office, and on his return, he went to the city clerk's office and informed the clerk of his failure. "Well, if you can't do anything for me, can't you fix me out with a carriage for my father-in-law, who is 66 years of age and a cripple?" began Sutherland, whose voice began to choke up with emotion. "The old man only has a few more times to vote in this election and I will give him a carriage for him, I do not know what ticket he will vote, but I know he will vote and it will make him happy even in his declining years," continued the clerk.

The city clerk directed Sutherland to the county committee for a carriage.

Wrench for the Secret Ballot.

A cheer for the "secret ballot" went up in one of the voting places in the Eighth ward this morning when a man called out from his booth.

"Say, I want to vote against this telephone franchise; how do I do it?"

He was given instructions by one of the election officers.

"And say," he called again, "I want to write this man Williams for railroad commissioner. What about that?"

A round of applause went up from the entire crowd, and evidence that democrats and republicans alike were pleased. Then one of the judges instructed Will Williams to write his name.

Amusing Incident with Machines.

An amusing incident occurred in the first precinct of the First ward. The election board telephoned to the county clerk's office that the machine wouldn't work at

PRESIDENT HEARS NEWS

Returns Received at White House Office Over Direct Wires.

GREAT INTEREST IN VOTE OF NEW YORK

Owing to incomplete character of Figures the Chief Executive Declines to Make Formal Statement.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—President Roosevelt eagerly awaited the returns from the elections as they came in over the telegraph wires to the executive offices. After dining with his family on his return from Oyster Bay he hurried to his office, where, with Secretary Root, Postmaster General Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary Bacon, General Secretary Loeb and Assistant Attorney General Cookey he scanned the reports furnished him by the press agents for several days. Fight on county ticket close. Republican victory on state ticket. Complete returns necessary on some offices. Both republicans and democrats scratched county ticket. Large vote polled.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—President Roosevelt eagerly awaited the returns from the elections as they came in over the telegraph wires to the executive offices. After dining with his family on his return from Oyster Bay he hurried to his office, where, with Secretary Root, Postmaster General Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary Bacon, General Secretary Loeb and Assistant Attorney General Cookey he scanned the reports furnished him by the press agents for several days. Fight on county ticket close. Republican victory on state ticket. Complete returns necessary on some offices. Both republicans and democrats scratched county ticket. Large vote polled.

SUMMARY OF THE RESULTS

No Decided Change in the Alignment of Eastern and Western States.

Elections were held yesterday in forty-two states, and while the results in a number of instances were of unusual interest, there were no great surprises. Throughout the south the democratic state and congressional tickets have been elected by the usual majorities. In the west and east, the states that were aligned two years ago in the democratic or republican columns, show no material change, the democrats making gains in some instances and the republicans in others. The republicans retain control of congress by a good majority. Perhaps the widest general interest in the elections centered in the remarkable fight for governor, which has been waged in New York state between Charles E. Hughes, the republican candidate who throughout the campaign has had the support of President Roosevelt, and William Randolph Hearst, who has been running as the regular democratic and independence league nominee. The latest returns available show that Mr. Hughes, while losing nearly all of the principal cities of the state, was successful by about two to one in the rural districts brought about the republican victory.

In New York city the famous Tammany-Independence league judiciary ticket was successful, with possibly one exception, over the candidates for the nonpartisan judiciary nominators.

Massachusetts has re-elected Curtis Guild (rep.) as governor over District Attorney John B. Moran of Boston, who was the candidate of the democratic party, Independence league, and prohibitionist.

In Chicago it is estimated that the independence league ticket polled 49,000, but there was a heavy republican plurality for the state officers.

Pennsylvania elected Stuart (rep.) governor over a fusion ticket, the usual republican plurality.

Michigan, Iowa, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Connecticut, Indiana and Wisconsin have rolled up republican pluralities, although there was some falling off in the usual vote in Iowa. In Minnesota Governor Johnson (dem.) was re-elected by the largest majority ever given a democrat in the state.

Nebraska shows big republican gains. Ohio also shows republican gains over the Wilson vote of last year. The republicans expect a plurality of 75,000 in that state. The constitution of the new state of Oklahoma will be written by democrats. The Indians voted the democratic ticket almost solidly. Oklahoma also went strongly democratic in choosing delegates to the constitutional convention. Governor Hoch is re-elected in Kansas by a slightly reduced majority.

The result in Missouri is in doubt at a late hour, the democrats expecting to gain some of the congressional districts, but lost two years ago. Congressman Nicholas Longworth was re-elected in Cincinnati.

MARYLAND

BALTIMORE, Nov. 6.—Returns from the large vote cast in this city are coming in very slow and definitely late. The name is true in even greater degree of the counties. Talbot, democrat, ran heavily behind his last vote in the city precincts of his district and early indications were that his opponent, Garrett, had carried Harford county by a small margin. In the city precincts of the fifth district, the labor unionist to Mud, republican, showed its effect in a considerable falling off as compared with the vote he polled at last election.

KANSAS

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 6.—Returns from Kansas show heavy losses for Hoch (rep.), candidate for governor, who is running behind his ticket. Hoch's vote in Topeka is 2,000 less than in 1904.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 6.—Meager returns from the state show that Governor Hoch (rep.) is re-elected, will win by a plurality of less than 20,000.

PENNSYLVANIA

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—At the headquarters of the republican state committee it was said that encouraging reports had been received from the state, and confidence was expressed that Stuart had been elected. There were no figures to substantiate this claim, however.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 6.—At the closing of the polls tonight leaders of all parties stated that an unexpectedly large vote had been polled in Allegheny county. It was estimated that from 55 to 65 per cent of the registered vote in Pittsburgh

Allegheny and McKeesport had been got out. First returns indicate Emery, fusion democrat, slightly ahead of Stuart, republican, for governor.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—Scattering returns from the city indicate large republican gains, but the contest with last year, when Berry (dem.), for state treasurer, had 3,146 plurality in Philadelphia and 8,134 in the state.

MONTANA

BUTTE, Nov. 6.—Incomplete returns from the state indicate the election to congress of Charles N. Fry, and Henry C. Smith, candidate for the state supreme court. Republicans appear to be making gains throughout the state.

SOUTH DAKOTA

SIOUX FALLS, Nov. 6.—Reports from the state are very meagre, owing to the slowness of the count, due to the great scattering of county tickets. Incomplete returns indicate the election of the republican congressman and republican state ticket by no less than 35,000.

STURGIS, Nov. 6.—(Special Telegram.)—Crawford will carry Sturgis by seventy-five majority; Mead county by about 250. Complete returns not available for several days. Fight on county ticket close. Republican victory on state ticket. Complete returns necessary on some offices. Both republicans and democrats scratched county ticket. Large vote polled.

SOUTH CAROLINA

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 6.—The election held in South Carolina today was without incident and a very small vote was polled. Governor F. M. Ansell (dem) and the entire state ticket was elected, the only opposition being J. L. Chandler, who received half a hundred socialist votes. Seven democratic congressmen were elected, five without opposition.

TENNESSEE

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 6.—Reports from over the state indicate a large falling off in the republican vote and that the majority of Patterson (dem.) for governor will approximate 50,000.

UTAH

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 6.—The republicans in Utah have elected their state ticket by the usual plurality, returning Joseph Howell to congress and electing Joseph E. Frick justice of the supreme court. In Salt Lake county, where the American, or anti-Mormon party, voted its efforts, the result is in doubt. The Americans have a plurality of the vote in Salt Lake City, but this may be overcome by the republicans in the county outside of the city. The democratic vote in Salt Lake City shows a falling off of probably 30 per cent. It is estimated that 75 per cent of the special Mormon democrats in this county voted the republican ticket.

WEST VIRGINIA

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Partial returns from scattered counties in West Virginia at 9 p. m. show the probable success of all five of the republican congressional nominees by the following pluralities: Hubbard (rep.) First district, 3,000 or more; Burgis (rep.) Second district, 1,500 or under; Gies, (rep.) 2,500 or more; Woodyard (rep.) 2,000 or under; Hughes, (rep.), Fifth district, 2,000 or more.

The legislature will be republican with the present joint ballot majority of fifty-seven, insuring the reelection of Senator S. B. Binkins.

WISCONSIN

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 6.—The republican state ticket headed by Governor James D. Davidson swept the state in today's election by an estimated plurality of at least 40,000 over John A. Ryan, democratic candidate and his colleagues.

At 10:30 tonight returns showed the election of nine republican and one democratic congressman and one district, the Third, still in doubt. Congressman Babcock (rep.) has been given a hard race in the Third district and incomplete returns gave him about 500 votes lead over his opponent, James W. Morphy.

The real contest of general interest in Milwaukee county is over the election of district attorney. Incomplete returns show the long contest between Frank X. Bidger (rep.) and Francis E. McGovern, the present district attorney, who is seeking reelection on an independent ticket. The rest of the republican ticket in Milwaukee county is elected.

WASHINGTON

SEATTLE, Nov. 6.—All indications point to an overwhelming republican victory in the state of Washington. W. E. Humphrey, Wesley L. Jones and Francis W. Cushman, congressmen at large, all republicans, will be re-elected. The house of representatives and state senate will be strongly republican.

WYOMING

CHEYENNE, Nov. 6.—The entire republican ticket, headed by Governor Brooks, has been elected by majorities of not less than 2,000, and possibly considerably more. The republicans also elect the member of congress and the legislature, which will elect a United States senator.

FEW FIGURES ON CONGRESSMEN

Democracy Show Heavy Gains Over Vote Two Years Ago.

The present contest depended table represent about one-fourth of the vote of the Third district and show a net loss for Boyd of 55. McCarthy's plurality two years ago was 3,991.

LINCOLN

LINCOLN, Nov. 6.—(Special Telegram.)—Vice Chairman Stride of the First district congressional committee, and Polard will be elected by 5,000. He claims Lancaster by 2,000.

NEVADA

RENO, Nov. 6.—Vote counting, which is proceeding slowly, indicates the silver party victory. Sparks, for governor, is running ahead of Mitchell in all quarters. Returns show Sparks, Barnett for congress and Sweeney for justice of the supreme court, in the lead.
