rect, and you replied that you would nominate him as a director if he would promise in advance to refuse the nomination, which was itself an attempt to commit a breach of the agreement. He naturally declined to become a party to such an attempt. You appear finally to have reconsidered your intention as to the outgoing directors.

We are quite aware that you have reasons at the meeting for your refusal to fill the vacancy as agreed and you are reported as going so far as to claim that you had some understanding to the effect that the person to be elected should be satisfactory to you, thus substituting yourself as the sole judge, whereas the enfire intention of the agreement, in respect to the vacancy, was to eliminate you as the person to select and substitute the judgment and action of a majority of the directors.

The simple fast appears to be that

The simple fact appears to be that, re-The simple fact appears to be that, regardless of your written promise, on the faith of which you were entrusted with the proxies, you found no difficulty in satisfying yourself that your personal interest and the interest of the company are identical and that any action was justifiable to assist you to secure your own control.

This incident is the climax of a series of events during the last few years showing an insplifty on your part to distinguish between the powers and duties of the president and those of the directors of a corporation.

tween the powers and duties of the president and those of the directors of a corporation.

We will not for a moment admit that you are more loyal to the interests of the public in the performance of the public duties of the company than your fellow directors, nor will we, while directors of the company, permit you to assume to act as the entire board, to make agreements and violate them, or to asperse the motives of your fellow members in the expectation of securing personal advantage at their expense.

The situation is solely of your own creating, but in view of what has taken place, your deliberate violation of an agreement intended to produce peace in the board, and your attitude toward your fellow members we are convinced that you have rendered impossible that harmony which must exist between the president of the company and ndividual members of the board, and that you have so seriously impaired from use-ulness as an officer of the company as to ompel us to refuse to vote in favor of your e-election. Yours truly.

A majority of the di-rectors of any rallpoad corporation, now incorporated or hereafter to be incorporated by the laws of this state, shall be citizens and residents of this state.

Governor Dencen declined to vote on the questions raised until the attorney general of Illinois had given an opinion. No action was taken on the points raised by Mr. Fish.

The election then took place.

Statement by Mr. Harriman. After the meeting E. H. Harriman said:

This ian't my fight. It is a fight of the board of directors and Mr. Fish. I acceded to the July agreement regarding the election of directors at the annual meeting only in deference to the wishes of the board. The July agreement was made primarily to quiet the public clamor which was being talsed in the press and to silence the varieties recriminations which were being made in the public prints as an outcome of the contention which had arisen in the board of directors. Personally, I had not a word to say at today's meeting of the board. The board took no action whatever in regard to the appointment of any committee to take charge of the management of the road. After the meeting E. H. Harriman said:

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—At the annual meeting of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad held here today, all of the retiring directors were re-elected with the exception of Robert Bacon, who resigned. John F. Talmadge of New York was chosen in place of Mr. Bacon.
