

IN THE ARENA OF POLITICS

John C. Barnard Is Engaged for Chief Clerk of the House. N. P. DODGE GIVES HIM A BOOST

Notice of Lancaster Senators in Preceded Revolt Understood in Omaha-Galloway Pass on Exhibition.

John C. Barnard of Table Rock has been in Omaha visiting among members of the coming legislature and making no secret of the fact he is a candidate for chief clerk of the house this time. It became known at the close of last session he would be the unanimous support of the fifty-one members of the house and...

Mr. Barnard has been a clerk in the house for several terms. For the last two sessions he has been first assistant to Chief Clerk John Wall. Prior to that he was second clerk. He has come out of each session with the reputation of an accommodating and efficient clerk.

I do not care to make much noise over my candidacy for Barnard. If fifty-one members of the 1907 legislature will vote for me I will appreciate it and will endeavor to render as faithful service as I know how. As to opposition I cannot say there is none. I know where there is some opposition to my candidacy, but of course any other man has the same right to run for the office as I have. I can say I have had some pretty warm encouragement from the members who served in the last session and know me."

Mr. Barnard's election rested with the 100 members of the house who would get the place without a dissenting vote. I think that ought to count for something with the new members, who may not know him as well as we who have served with him. He knows no bounds to his industry, patience and accommodation and is an capable man as ever undertook the job. He and John Wall, his old chief, made a team that could not be improved on.

Other re-elected members of the Douglas delegation speak in the same way of Mr. Barnard. "Yes, you may depend upon it, when two Lincoln men assume the role of helping Omaha there is a 'winner' in the woods," remarked a prominent Omaha republican and business man, referring to the anxiety of the two Lancaster county senators to have Omaha retain the United States senatorship. "Their presence at instigating a revolt against Norris is known and dragging Omaha and Douglas county in as supporters of the movement may be adroit, but it cannot deceive every one. It is simply a scheme to antagonize Omaha, politically. Realizing the shock to the political prestige of Omaha, which the loss of the United States senatorship in 1895, as the agents of a large number of crafty politicians, now propose to finish this city's power by leading it into a trap. I imagine the Lincoln crowd (whom they represent) will find itself sorely disappointed."

The Galloway Burlington pass issued during the campaign for the purpose of helping the university student, Galloway, to go home and vote the democratic ticket, and whose genuineness the World-Herald has vainly tried to deny, is now on exhibition in one of the show windows of a leading store at Lincoln, where it may be seen by anyone wishing to satisfy himself further as to its authenticity. It is understood the republican senate committee will ask that it be sent up to Omaha as soon as the exhibition at Lincoln is over and exhibited in a window here, where the readers of the World-Herald may compare it with the fabricated article they saw in that paper. Some will have suggested that the World-Herald be asked to allow its window for the purpose of the display.

Charles G. McDonald, treasurer of the republican congressional committee, filed his report of receipts and disbursements with the county clerk Tuesday. The report shows the committee handled $30, contributed as follows: John L. Kennedy, $30; George Clark, $5; George H. Thumwell, $5; G. R. Buskin, $5; P. W. Shotwell, $5. The entire sum was disbursed, a detailed statement being attached, showing each item of expense. The expenditures were for hall rent, printing, musto,

DISFIGURED WITH ECZEMA
Brushed Scales from Face Like Powder—Under Physicians Six Months But Grew Worse—Some Said Face Would Be Marked for Life—Now Without a Blemish.

CUTICURA REMEDIES WORK WONDERS.

"As I was a sufferer with eczema I write to tell you what a great friend I found in Cuticura Remedies. In six months I had tried three doctors, but did not get any better. It was on my body and on my face so thick that I could hardly put a pin on it without touching eczema. My face was covered, my eyebrows came out, and then it got in my eyes. I then went to another doctor. He asked me what I was taking for it, and I told him Cuticura. He said that was a very good thing, but that he thought that my face would be marked for life. But Cuticura did its work and my face is now just as clear as it ever was."

"My brother-in-law told me about the wonderful Cuticura remedies. I took his advice and got the Ointment, Soap and Resolvent. I washed with the Cuticura Soap and then applied the Ointment, and took Cuticura Resolvent as directed. In a short time my face began to get better, and when I had taken one bottle of Resolvent I could brush the scales off my face like a powder. When I had taken four bottles my face was as clear as ever."

"I have now my friends about my remarkable cure. I feel so thankful I want everybody far and wide to know what Cuticura can do. It is a sure cure for eczema. (signed) Mrs. Emma White, 841 Cherry Place, Camden, N. J., April 25, 1906."

Compare Cuticura and other remedies on the face. Cuticura is the only remedy that will cure eczema, whether on the face or elsewhere. Cuticura is the only remedy that will cure eczema, whether on the face or elsewhere.

REAL WORK OF IMPROVEMENT

Raising Moral Tone of Community Object of Druid Hill Club. WILL INCORPORATE FOR THAT PURPOSE

Days Building for Home and Invites Religious Forces to Establish Church and Sunday School There.

The Druid Hill Improvement club is going down in history as a body that does things. It has organized a company whose prime object shall be the building up of that community with home owners or renters of good moral character, thrifty and progressive; the establishment of a Sunday school and church and the maintenance of the high moral tone on which the community has begun existence.

The club held a meeting at Thirtieth and Spaulding streets Monday night, which was largely attended and at which steps were taken to incorporate a company to deal in real estate. Toward this end $300 was subscribed on a proposed capital of $1,500. While this company will be empowered to do a general real estate business, its first function will be to secure home owners or good renters and keep out of the vicinity the undesirable class. It believes by thus maintaining a high standard of citizenship it can do more good for the city as a whole than by going out after political favors. It is not that sort of improvement club.

Club Buys Official Home. The club has bought a building in which its meetings will be held. It also has opened negotiations with religious organizations for the establishment of a church there and has made the proposition that until a church is organized it will open its building to a Sunday school, if religious workers will lend a hand in planting one in that community. Services of all kinds might be held in this building until a permanent church home was established. The club pledges its moral and financial support to these religious bodies.

Officers and Committees. The officers and committees of the club are: President, W. A. Chapman; vice president, George J. Bird; secretary-treasurer, E. L. Platz.

Executive Committee—W. A. Chapman, George J. Bird, E. L. Platz, Andrew Peterson, C. Smith, J. B. Nickerson, John T. Dillon. Sidewalk and Crossing Committee—Andrew Peterson, W. E. Sikes, J. M. Baldwin, Albert Ehler.

Publication Committee—E. L. Platz, J. C. Smith. Legal Committee—J. B. Nickerson, W. E. Sikes. Entertainment Committee—John T. Dillon, W. P. Pierson, George J. Bird, Fred J. Unkel, J. C. Smith.

DIVORCE WILL STILL GRINDS

Several Persons Not Content with What Cupid Did for Them In Court.

Maude K. Coghlan, whose marriage to W. W. Coghlan at Ottawa, Ill., Sept. 10, 1906, is said to have been the result of a dare, had filed divorce proceedings in district court. Three days after the wedding, she declares, her husband demanded the keys to her trunk and when she refused to give them to him he assaulted her, shaking and striking her and cutting the hand with which she held the keys. She says she has not lived with him since October 12, she asserts, he forced her, under threats of assault, to return the wedding ring. She also declares he has not supported her since the wedding. He asks for the restoration of her maiden name, Maude Kirke.

Coghlan was attached to a street fair amusement company that visited Omaha this summer and it was here they became acquainted. Maude Wilson has begun suit for a divorce from Charles E. Wilson. The petition was withdrawn from the files by her attorney.

Lars J. Peterson says his wife, Mary, has abandoned him and has not lived with him for over two years. He asks the district court to grant him a divorce.

GEORGE L. HART DEAD IN BED

Laborer is Found Lifeless in His Room at the Metropolitan Hotel.

George L. Hart, a laborer who formerly resided in South Omaha, was found dead in his room at the Metropolitan hotel, Twelfth and Douglas streets, about 12:15 p. m. Tuesday. Hart went to the hotel last Friday and had been on a protracted spree for over two weeks. After an examination of the body Police Surgeon Harris, who was summoned, said the cause of his death was undoubtedly due to alcoholic excesses.

The body was found by the landlady of the hotel who had become alarmed over the prolonged absence of the lodger and Hart had evidently been dead for twelve or fifteen hours. He complained Monday evening of feeling sick and went to his room and when he failed to appear for breakfast or lunch the search was instituted.

Among his effects were found letters addressed in care of Harry's barber shop from a friend named Swanson at Fargo, N. D. Coroner Bailey has charge of the body and will hold an inquest Wednesday morning.

MORE FOWLS THAN ALLOWED

Hunters Are Said to Have Shot Too Many Prairie Chickens and Ducks.

On complaint of C. A. Nott, a farmer from Wheeler county, the police are looking for C. H. Barnes, who told Mr. Nott he was a switchman for the Union Pacific, and from the story told by Mr. Nott both he and Barnes are likely to find themselves in trouble with the game warden on a charge of having in their possession more prairie chickens than the law allows.

According to Nott's story Barnes was out in Wheeler county on a shooting trip and the two went into partnership. Monday they brought 100 chickens and twelve ducks to Omaha and sold them at the Central meat market for $72. They drew $30 and divided it between them, intending to get the rest later. Tuesday Nott went back for the rest of the coin, but he found Barnes had been there before him, drawn the $30 and skipped out. He reported it to the police.

As the limit under the state law is fifty chickens the case may be turned over to the state authorities.

ELECTION RETURNS BLANK

Balls Came from First of Tenth Without a Scratch Upon Them.

The board that is canvassing the county election returns struck a snag Tuesday when it opened the poll book from the first precinct of the Tenth ward. The book was entirely blank, except for the poll list and the signatures of the board on the back page. The portion of the book in which the names for each candidate should have been recorded was left entirely blank and there was nothing in the book to show the vote in the precinct.

County Clerk Haverly at once dispatched a letter to the members of the board telling them to bring in their duplicate book at once. If they failed to keep a duplicate it will be necessary to unlock the voting machine and get the results from it. The boards in several of the precincts sent the city poll books to the county and the county books to the city, but this is the first precinct in which no record of the election was returned.

NO DEBT FOR IMPLEMENT MEN

All Obligations Paid in Ominous Announcement at Opening of Meeting. NEW MEMBERS RAPIDLY COMING IN President Stearns of Retailers Employees Association to Work Against Evil Encroachment of Organized Capital.

When the Nebraska and Western Iowa Retail Implement and Vehicle Dealers' association began its sixtieth annual convention in the rooms of the Commercial club Tuesday morning, the members received the cheering news, through the reports of secretary and treasurer, that the association had paid all its debt and was ready to begin another year with a balance in the treasury. This condition contrasts strongly with that disclosed by the reports of the same office a year ago. At that time the association had lost heavily in money and reputation through bad work of hired organizers and the financial outlook was black indeed.

Another good bit of news offered by Assistant Secretary J. D. Ringer was that new members were fast being added to the roll and the association could hope for a membership of 1,000 at no far distant day. As one means of adding to the membership and increasing the strength in every way of the organization now in session it is hoped to merge with it the South Platte Implement Dealers' association. This question will be taken up later in the session and President Jerome Stearns of the South Platte association will be present to take part in the deliberations. His association has been holding its conventions at Lincoln, but the feeling has been growing in the last few years that all the dealers of the state ought to get together in convention at Omaha.

Address of President Stearns. Speaking on the welfare of the association, President J. F. Stearns of Logan, Ia., said in his annual address: "I have had some knowledge of associations in other lines of trade and have found the strongest bodies to be those whose members pay as much as $5 per year dues, with as many as 1,500 or 1,600 members, and in addition they collect $5 from each one as membership fees. My opinion is that every dealer should raise enough to pay a good, competent man as secretary a sufficient salary so that he could afford to devote his entire time to the interests of the members, and that the president should also receive such compensation as would enable him to place a considerable amount of his time at the service of the association."

I am strongly in favor of local clubs, organized in counties or districts, making them of course subject to and in harmony with the general rules of this association. These committees were appointed: Nominating—Charles Wagner, J. M. Etwell, L. P. Byers. Resolutions—J. G. North, J. D. Ringer, M. C. Daly. Grievances—J. E. Ringer, L. P. Byers, J. M. Etwell.

Arbitration—Charles A. Wagner, A. Spooner, J. T. Thomas. Auditing—J. W. Newell, J. M. Etwell, E. F. Morris. Constitution and By-Laws—C. Van Zyl, T. M. Reed, A. P. Karbach. J. E. Jones of the Implement Trade Journal, Kansas City; R. L. Kriegerbaum of Farm Machinery, St. Louis, and Fred Loomis of the Implement Dealer, Council Bluffs, are present to report the doings of the convention.

No sessions are held in the afternoons. Wednesday morning, in addition to the transaction of business, there will be an address on "Insurance Matters" by J. W. Garvey of the Omaha City, secretary of the Reciprocal Underwriters.

FIRST REAL SNOW OF SEASON

Few Flakes Come Down Sunday, but Not Enough to Make a Snowing.

While meteorologically speaking the snow which began falling in Omaha Tuesday morning is not the first of the season, it is the first that has made itself manifest in any visible extent. Sunday last takes rank as being the day of the first snow of the season, a few scattering flakes being sufficient to give it the record.

Tuesday morning snow began falling about 10 o'clock. About the only industry annoyed in the street car company. The snow has the effect of handicapping the tire running of cars, particularly along the Dodge, Farnam and Leavenworth street hills.

A temperature of 26 above zero was reported at Omaha Tuesday morning, with 33 at Cheyenne and 54 at Denver. The cloudy condition prevails all over the central valleys west to the mountains. Light rains, sleet or light snow are reported up the valley, but no stormy conditions exist in the west, where a much higher temperature prevails than about Omaha.

The local outlook is for rising temperature Tuesday night, with rain or snow or sleet, to be followed by fair weather, with colder Wednesday. There is no promise of any severe weather following the prevailing calm.

NORFOLK, Neb., Nov. 13.—A sleet storm envelops north Nebraska. Sidewalks, fields, wires and trees are covered with a thin coating of ice.

MORGAN AND HERLIHY GAIN

Attorney Much Better and Injured Fireman Expected to Recover Soon.

Tuesday morning the condition of Charles E. Morgan, who is seriously ill at his home, 319 Cass street, was reported to be somewhat improved. Members of the family said that Morgan was doing as well as could be expected, but his general condition is very weak.

M. G. Herlihy, the Union Pacific fireman who fell from his engine near Grand Island several days ago and sustained injuries which necessitated his removal to the Omaha General hospital last Saturday night, is very much improved and his speedy recovery is expected. Herlihy had his left hip badly bruised and had other injuries, which temporarily affected his mind. Tuesday morning it was reported that Herlihy was nearly rational and had not suffered internal injuries, which was at first supposed.

OFFERS FOR NEW BUILDING

Propositions on Home for the Commercial Club Will Be Asked For.

The Commercial club's executive committee has decided to have offers submitted in writing before next meeting on new quarters for the club, which has outgrown its present home in the Board of Trade building.

Among the subjects of discussion at Tuesday's meeting was the recent increase of insurance rates in Omaha. Jay D. Foster and John M. Guild were appointed a committee to learn the details and report.

David Baum was appointed a delegate to the deep water convention in St. Louis November 15 and 16. The membership of H. H. Churchill was transferred to J. A. Ellis, Mr. Churchill's successor as general agent of the Great Western.

FIELD CLUB POLITICS KEEN

Three Tickets in the Arena for Election of Officers Next Month.

Politicians are now busy in the Omaha Field club, for the directors for the coming year are to be elected the first Wednesday in December. The club has 500 members and all are active not only on the golf links, but also in the management of the affairs of the club, and want to have their own men elected to fill the offices for the coming year. This interest, of course, bids well for the club. Some think a board of directors which would consist of a lot of money in fixing up the club grounds and some would like to elect a conservative board, which would let things rest as they are for a year or two, until the club could get out of debt. Three tickets are already in the field and some more may be expected before next month.

CHORUS OF NAMES IN COURT

Detectives Mitchell and Sullivan Arrest Suspects Mitchell and Sullivan, Who Get Free.

Charles Mitchell and Ed Sullivan, two colored citizens of uncertain occupation, were before the people's bar Tuesday morning on charges of vagrancy preferred by Detectives Mitchell and Sullivan. The testimony offered by Mitchell and Sullivan against Mitchell and Sullivan was to the effect that Mitchell and Sullivan had no vocation to work of any kind, sort or description, but Mitchell and Sullivan proved to the satisfaction of the court that Mitchell and Sullivan were misinformed, and the cases were dismissed.

SPINNEY LIKELY TO ESCAPE

Bankers Union President Proclaimed Will Not Be Sued on Criminal Charge.

It is now said to be almost certain that no criminal charge against Dr. E. C. Spinney of the Bankers Union of the World will be filed in Douglas county. Certain creditors of the order assert the list of assets sworn to by Mr. Spinney, filed with the insurance department at Lincoln, was incorrect and did not show the true condition of the order. Some of them threatened a prosecution for alleged perjury.

County Attorney Sabaugh has made an investigation and finds the first affidavit against which objection is made was sworn to so long ago the statute of limitation has run on it last August, hence no prosecution could be had under it. The second affidavit has Mr. Spinney's name attached to it, but the name was signed by Miss Margaret E. Burdook, supreme secretary. This signature would be valid and its being signed by another would not affect a prosecution if Mr. Spinney gave his consent to it. It appears, however, that this consent was given and the affidavit
