My friend, have you heard of the town of Nogood. On the banks of the River Slow.

Where blooms the Walkaway flower fair, Where the wind blows the flowers all.

It lies in the valley of What'ethee, And it grows with the flight of years.

Down the slope of Weakwill's toboggan hill, To be landed quickly there.

It is wrapped in the fog of life's dreams, Its streets are paved with discarded wishes.

And sprinkled with useless tears, If you want anything up-to-date in the town of Nogood, go to Lett's.

My friend, from the dead-alive town of Nogood, I would keep far away.

Just follow your way through good and ill, Take this for your motto: "Can I will."

And live up to it each day, If you want satisfactory goods— Goods that will come up to your expectations.

Guaranteed to be just as represented, Make this your buying headquarters for holiday jewelry. Lett's.
