Luck mually loses Add a P to it-make it pluck and you will win out. Do you suppose that Paderewski plays the plane as he does simply because he is lucky? Do you think that you are a more able plane player than Paderewski and that it "just happens" that he is famous and you are not? Is it astonishing that John Wanamaker successes in the dry goods business or that the Pennsylvania R. R. is successful while others are not? Is it luck that gives the Pennsylvania R. R. is successful while others are not? Is it luck that gives the Pennsylvania, R. R. a good readbed, the best engines and a perfect train service? Don't you ever think for a moment that it is luck in these cases or in any other case of success. It is good earnest, hard work—work in the right direction—work with brains—but everlastingly, persistingly and continuously work.
