Omaha's best liked Linen Store

Truly a happy occasion when all housewives everywhere try to make their dinner table as attractive as possible for the many social affairs and happy family reunions.

We have not been idle in preparing for this glad occasion. Our linen chief, Mr. W. W. P. Horne, spent three months searching the great linen centers of the world (previous to the great price advance). As a result Ireland, Scotland, Germany, France, China and Japan were called upon to contribute their richest linens, which we cannot describe in full, as space will not permit; but awaiting the pleasure of showing you the most beautiful assortment of table damask, napkins, table sets, tray cloths, scarfs, etc., that have ever been imported into this city.

No famous makes have escaped the attention of our linen chief, and many choice pieces find exclusive showing in our great stock. This Thanksgiving exposition of linens is looked to by thousands of patrons who have learned by experience to expect the best bargains in the best linens possible to offer. In this great and varied showing you will find an abundance of linens whose quality fulfills every requirement by the use of the words "SPECIAL VALUES" featured here today as never before.

Beautiful Embroidered Linen for Thanksgiving

Never before such a handsome collection of real hand embroidered linens bought direct from the importer. This means lower prices than if they were bought through the jobber, like some stores have to do. Come Monday and see the pretty linen exhibition, even if you haven't the slightest idea of buying.
