

Mother and Daughter Restored By Pe-ru-na.

Both Suffered From Catarrh of the Head and Throat. Their Recovery Was Prompt and Lasting.

Peruna is probably kept as a family medicine in more homes than any other medicine invented.

It is estimated that in at least one or two million homes Peruna is a popular household remedy.

MRS. P. S. GEISLER.

Mrs. P. S. Geissler, 80 Milton street, Cleveland, Ohio, writes: "I wrote to you for advice in regard to the health of my daughter. I have been giving her the Peruna regularly, as stated, and she is entirely cured of her catarrh of the throat and head. I thank you very much for your advice."

THE changeable weather, during the winter months is one of the greatest foes with which every family has to contend.

Catarrh of the head and throat abound with all their disagreeable symptoms of hacking and coughing, sneezing and sniffing.

A remedy that will both relieve and prevent these ailments is of priceless value to any family.

Such a remedy is Peruna.

Many a mother has discovered its merits, not only when she herself is attacked by some phase of catarrh, but for her children also.

No sooner has one member of the family been relieved—the mother has its effects been discovered in one case, than it is tried in another case.

From the discovery is made that Peruna is a reliable family remedy, good for mother and daughter, father and son.

No wonder so many mothers insist on keeping it at hand.

In many a family it is an entire impediment, taking the place of the family doctor for the numerous climatic ailments of winter.

Peruna protects the Entire Household.

We have in our files many testimonials similar to that of Mrs. Geissler. However, we do not hear from the large majority of mothers who have been benefited by Peruna.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Members of the insurance commission who have been in session for the last week, drafting proposed laws for the control of life insurance throughout the country, completed their work today and adjourned.

No complete report of the contemplated recommendations was made prior to the adjournment, and it will not be prepared for some time.

Sixteen new proposed laws have been drawn up, and it is believed by the commissioners that they will, if adopted by the various states, correct the greater part of the abuses in the management of life insurance companies. The bills will be introduced during next winter into the legislatures of thirty-seven states.

T. E. D. Drake, the insurance commissioner of the District of Columbia, will submit the measures to President Roosevelt, in order that they may be mentioned in the forthcoming message of the president to congress.

Proposed New Acts.

The proposed new acts are summarized as follows:

A standard policy act which provides for uniform policies for use by all life insurance companies.

Annual proportionment act which requires life insurance companies to pay annual dividends or credit the amount earned to the different policy holders. This act limits the amount of surplus which life companies are permitted to retain in their treasury.

An act prohibiting discrimination and rebating between agents and policy holders.

An act prohibiting corporations from ac-

Little Wife Whom Family Had Abused is Now Declared to Be the Heir to Their Fortune by Death of Woman.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Nov. 17.—(Special.)—Members of the republican state committee met today and closed up all the affairs of the campaign. An auditing committee, of which Commissioner Epps of the Sixth district is chairman, audited the books of the chairman, F. P. Woods, and made a report to the committee that everything had been kept in order and that the funds coming into the hands of the chairman had all been properly expended.

In closing this report your committee feels it is due our worthy chairman, Mr. Frank P. Woods, that we express our commendation to him for the competent and thorough business methods which he has employed in the conduct of the campaign through which we have just passed.

Members of the legislative insurance commission today returned to their homes and will expect to be back to Des Moines and at work again next Tuesday.

Dead Jockey from Iowa.

SIDNEY, Ia., Nov. 17.—(Special.)—Lee Sewell, the famous jockey who was killed at the Aqueduct track in New York last Friday by the falling of his horse, was well known in Sidney, where he has many relatives. He was a son of Tom Sewell, who was a resident of Sidney at the time of his marriage to Leona Mullen, the boy's mother, who was born and raised here.

More than 50 of Omaha's leading musicians and teachers are owners or users of these matchless instruments and are willing to endorse their remarkable superiority of tone, responsiveness of action and exquisite case design.

THOMAS J. KELLY

My Dear Mr. Schmolzer: You know how very important I consider the tone quality of a piano for accompaniment of songs, and it gives me great pleasure to tell you that the Steger piano, which I am using, is highly satisfactory.

THE ROBERT CUSCADEN

Steger & Sons—Gentlemen: I have used the Steger Piano exclusively for the last three years, as I find it holds up better under the wear and tear of Studio and school use than other uprights I have used.

Come in and see and hear the results of Mr. Steger's labors, and you will be convinced that his pianos are worth more than they are sold for and that they cost less than others that are not nearly so good.

We sell on easy monthly payments and accept instruments of other makes as part payment.
