HERMAN KOUNTZE AT REST

All that is mortal of Distinguished Financier Lies at Forest Lawn.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD AT TRINITY

Bishop Williams, Rev. John Williams and Dean Beecher Conduct the Ceremony of the Episcopal Church.

The body of Herman Kountze was laid at rest Saturday afternoon at Forest Lawn cemetery after impressive services at Trinity cathedral, attended by a multitude of friends and business associates of the man who had been one of the main factors in the growth of Omaha.

for so many years, who met at the bank and attended the funeral in a body. While Mr. Kountze was a member of many fraternal organizations, including the Masons and Knights Templar, none of these was represented in an official capacity.

Form of Service.

These were the ushers at the cathedral: C. C. Chase, Milton Darling, W. M. Burgess, N. P. Dodge, Jr., F. S. Cowgill and A. C. Smith.

The organ, which was a handsome red cedar, copper-lined and covered with broadcloth, was borne from the cathedral to the house by the active pallbearers: S. D. Barklow, G. M. Hitchcock, E. P. Peck, Charles Metz, W. S. Poppleston, I. E. Condon, J. R. Lehmer and R. W. Patrick.

At the cemetery the burial services were in charge of Bishop Williams, who delivered the committal service of the church, assisted by Rev. John Williams.

RECOGNITION OF KIND DEEDS

A. W. Johnson Tells How Mr. Kountze Helped His Family.

A. W. Johnson of the firm of Johnson & Danforth, in speaking of the late Herman Kountze, says: "I have had many dealings with Mr. Kountze, and he certainly was the most liberal of any business man I ever came in contact with."

One of the most popular colors just now is brown. New York is going "daffy" over it. We have just received some exquisite patterns, varying from the lighter to the dark dignified brown shades.

COLOR LINE A WORLD ISSUE

Success of the Japanese in the Late War Arouses Many People.

The negro problem in America is but a local phase of a world problem. The problem of the twentieth century is the problem of the color line.

Tales of Thaddeus Stevens.

Many a joke is credited to Thaddeus Stevens, who led the republicans in congress during the Civil war and reconstruction periods, relates the Washington Star.

Australian Gold Mines.

Although most of the Australian gold is now obtained from depths of hundreds and thousands of feet, it is still possible to acquire a few dollars' worth of gold.

WHIMS OF HUMAN NATURE

Reflections on Man's Habit of Taking a Drink After He Has Bought a New Hat.

"So you don't like it," said a man who was wearing for the first time a newly purchased hat. "No more do I, but in time I shall love it, and when I have to part with it it will be with the same sorrow with which I would part with an old friend."

"That is not a peculiarity of mine. It is a phase of human nature. Man admires his new creations, with their vertical creases, as accurate as if made with the aid of a plumb line.

WHIMS OF HUMAN NATURE

"You don't say so!" he replied, putting a five dollar bill in her hand. "And how wonderful it is that I should have found what you lost!"

"That is a small matter," the man went on, with a gesture of dismissal. "What interests me now, and has interested me ever since I have been buying hats for myself, is a sociological question."

"In these northern states the disappearance of men's summer hats is regulated by the dicta of certain authorities other than the almanac. Well street custom governs New York—all but Coney Island, where the Mardi Gras puts the finishing touches to any lingering straw hat on the wind-swept avenue."
