PLEA TO THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION

Secretary Branch of Western Fruit Jobbers Will Have Interesting Report to Make at Kanana City.

Formal request on the Interstate Commerce commission to prevent the express companies buying and seiling fruit and vegetables and soliciting and receiving coneignments of fruit and vegetables, probably will be made by the Western Fruit Jobbers' association, which will hold its annual ineeting in Kaneas City January 2, 3 and 4 Secretary E. B. Branch of Omaha has spent large part of the fall collecting information concerning the operations of the express companies in the fruit business and has a voluminous and decidedly interesting report to read at the meeting. The association covers twenty states west of the Mississippi river.

The fruit jobbers hold that the exprescompanies were organized for transportation purposes and have no right to engage in a mercantile business. That they are daily receiving consignments and even buying fruit outright, the association will at (empt to show to the satisfaction of the

Mr. Branch has the statements of fruit prowers and fruit growers' associations in many parts of the country to the effect that they have consigned to express com pany agents, who have sold the fruit and returned the money for it. He also has conclusive evidence in cases where express company agents have paid cash for the fruit on receiving it. One instance is that of an Arkansas fruit growers' association which sold berries for cash to two Weils-Furgo company agents, who consigned to a Kansas City commission house.

Other Points at Issue. Another commission firm which had a
