BULLETIN.

PARIS, Dec. 11.—Formal notice was served during the day on Cardinal Richard, archbishop of Paris, and bishops and parish priests of this department that they must evacuate their residence tomorrow. Similar notices were served on the clergy in the other departments notifying them to leave their residences on Tuesday or Friday.

PARIS, Dec. 11.—After a meeting of the cabinet ministers it was announced that on December 14 President Combes will ask Parliament to suppress the pensions of the clergy, to liquidate the public property of Catholics and to distribute the presbyteries, seminaries, etc.

War Minister Piquart has ordered the recruiting officers to require ecclesiastical students to present their certificates tomorrow. Those who fail to do so by December 20 will be ordered to join the colors January 7. The order affects 5,500 students.

Nuncio Is Expelled.

Monsieur Montaigne, secretary of the papal nunciature here since the recall of the nuncio, was arrested this afternoon upon an order expelling him from France and will be conducted to the frontier tonight. The residence of the nuncio, Montaigne, was searched by the police.

Immense quantities of documents found at the nunciature were seized and taken to police headquarters.

A courier from the papal secretary of state, Cardinal Merry del Val, bearing dispatches from Rome, was turned back at the frontier today.

Historic Day for France.

This is an historic day for France. The struggle which began in 1890 with the banishment of the Jesuits ended today with the legal rupture of the bond, which for practically a thousand uninterrupted years had united church and state. By refusing to make the required declaration tomorrow, public Catholic worship, except by schismatic organizations tomorrow becomes illegal.

The scene in some of the churches were extremely touching. Not a year had passed since the churches were closed. The number of women was especially large and was noteworthy as indicating the religious indifference of the male population. Although seven-eighths of the inhabitants of this city are nominally Catholics, in no parts of the city were the churches crowded. Even at Notre Dame cathedral, where a solemn high mass was celebrated, the edifice was only half filled.

The officials of the clergy read the regular offices for the week as usual without referring to their status tomorrow. Nevertheless the depression of the Catholics was manifest. Many women emerged from the cathedral, their eyes streaming with tears and lingered on the pavement to discuss what to do when the clergy are turned out of the churches. But on the eve of the struggle, it is becoming more apparent that both the government officials and higher ecclesiastics are resisting the advice of the intertempore. Minister of Public Worship Briand and his cabinet government, "cannot be driven into the trap of closing the churches" and Cardinal Richard, archbishop of Paris, has strongly censured the placarding of appeals to the clerics to make violent resistance to the officers.

"No Violence," say Ecclesiastics. "No violence," he says, "but passive resistance to the unjust law, after exhausting all protests at every step."

This is the disposition so far as the higher ecclesiastics are concerned; but their followers evidently have no intention to submit and are preparing to assume the role of martyrs, abandon the churches and organize private worship.

Cardinal Richard and many of the bishops have already begun the removal of their private effects from the episcopal palaces and the clergy are preparing to leave their residences and move into hired lodgings. It is announced that the parish priests have received many offers of places in which to hold religious services, but there is not the slightest indication that they intended to take advantage of the sole remaining chance to retain their churches, namely, by making the declarations called for by the law. The government realizes that additional legislative power is necessary and will accordingly ask Parliament for it. Recorders have been appointed everywhere to assume charge of the churches sequestered properly and three policemen will be stationed tomorrow at the doors of each of the churches to report violations of the law, but, as such violations can only be tried in the police courts, and as the penalty is only 15 francs fine and fifteen days imprisonment, with the right of appeal, stern measures will be necessary.

Tone of Republican Press.

The tone of the republican press of all shades indicates that of the pope's magazine that an uncompromising attitude will compel the French government to open negotiations with the Vatican, he has woefully mistaken the temper of the people, which favors a more hostile rather than a more conciliatory attitude. The République Française says:

"The time has passed when a pope could successfully threaten to release French subjects from their allegiance. Defiance of the law will only expose the priests to being regarded as the subjects of a foreign power, by which they would forfeit their rights as Frenchmen."

In the hope of effecting a compromise several deputies, headed by George Leygues, radical republican and ex-minister of the colonies, have telegraphed to the majority of the committee asking them to induce

Superintendent Grier of the Homestead company, this morning, granted the request of the Lead and Central City miners' union for an eight-hour day, the proposition for a settlement of the question coming from Superintendent Grier.

Harold Hamilton, a leading hotel man at Deadwood, was in the city last night and received a telegram from his clerk announcing the settlement of the difficulty at the Homestead mine by the granting of the eight-hour day. Mr. Hamilton naturally was greatly pleased at the news, as the shutting down of the Homestead, the biggest industry by far in that section, would have paralyzed business in the hills.

Remarkable statements were credited to Mrs. Bellamy Storer in an interview which was published here today, among them a statement that she and her husband had "created President Roosevelt."

Mrs. Storer today said that, while she had seen a newspaper woman last night and had said some of the things credited to her, the report as published gave an entirely different complexion to everything said and undue prominence had been given to certain incidents related during the interview. While unable to deny that such an interview had been given, she said that no incorrect and garbled report had been published that it did not give her views or statements, and she did not want it to be considered as coming from her. Beyond this she refused to discuss the matter.

Recorder of Kansas City Temple, Mystic Shrine, Is Accused of Embezzlement.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 11.—Harry H. Allen

was arrested here today on information sworn out by three members of the Grand Jury of the United States of the Order of the Mystic Shrine of this city, charging him with the embezzlement of $7,614 as recorder. Mr. Allen, who is a prominent business man, has held the office of recorder for three years and is known to shirkers throughout the country. He was arraigned before a justice of the peace, pleaded not guilty, and was released on bond of $1,000 furnished by friends.

Mr. Allen's preliminary hearing was set for December 15.

Mr. Allen was born in Sparta, Tenn., in 1859. He was in the lumber business in Michigan in 1871 and came to Missouri in 1877, engaging in business both at Sedalia and Kansas City.

Mr. Allen declined to talk of the charge and referred to his attorney, Albert S. Murley, who said:

"We do not admit there are any discrepancies in the books, as kept by Mr. Allen. We will fight the case to the last and it will be proved that he is entirely innocent of the charge. Mr. Allen's enemies have been after his scalp for years."

SCHMITZ AND RUEF IN COURT

Attorney for Indicted Men Attack Competence of Grand Jury that Returned Bills.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—When the cases of Mayor Schmitz and Abraham Ruef were called today the mayor showed less fatigue and anxiety than he has at any time since his return from abroad.

A brief conference between the counsel was followed by an announcement by Assistant District Attorney Henry that there would be no need of the fifty or more witnesses who had been subpoenaed to remain as jurors would be no chance to call them into the courtroom.

In order that they might have a clear understanding of the case Henry stated that he would object to the presentation of any motion to set aside the indictment on any other ground than that provided for by the law.

Attorney Hugh began a long argument for the defense. He began by expounding in general terms the qualifications of Judge and Jurors, finally disclosing in a roundabout way that what he wanted to show was that Wallace E. Wise, a member of the grand jury, had been discharged as a petit juror in Judge Lawler's court within a year and that he was not competent to serve on the grand jury that found the indictments.

MUSKOGEE, I. The Cherokee land office and the land division of the Dawes commission are practically paralyzed on account of the orders.

The land withdrawn in the Cherokee nation included the Ozark and Wauhatchie clubs and extends from the Arkansas line west to within six miles of Tahlequah, and is not good farming land, but is well stocked with game and fish.

The Choctaw land withdrawals are of timber land or land that may readily be timbered.

NOMINATIONS ARE HELD UP

Before Senate Committee Will Report Members Must Know When Cabinet Officers Retire.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Before the senate confirms the nominations of George B. Cortelyou to be secretary of the treasury and James R. Garfield to be secretary of the interior, the senate committee on finance will insist upon learning from President Roosevelt when Secretaries Shaw and Hitchcock intend to retire.

The committee today declined to make favorable reports on these nominations until word has been received from the president.

Refusal to act on the nominations does not indicate hostility to Cortelyou and Garfield. Political questions, it was declared, did not enter into the case. In fact, a republican member of the committee raised the question of the desirability of calling upon the president by suggesting that the members of the senate should be informed that the president was taking options on available men for the cabinet and committing the senate to them in advance of any information as to the beginning of their period of service.

During the consideration of the nomination of the committee was called to the nomination made yesterday of Thomas Ives Chaffield of New York to be United States judge for the eastern district of New York in the place of Edward B. Thomas, "who is to resign soon."

The omnibus appropriation bill for public buildings passed at the last session of congress appropriated $750 to be expended for the purchase of sites in each of these Nebraska cities. These sites have not yet been selected, in fact, a special agent of the architect's department, it was said today, would be sent to Nebraska to look over several sites in the two cities within the next thirty days.

Senator Millard called upon Secretary of War Taft this morning in regard to the appropriation which is to be made out of the general appropriation for army purposes for the further improvement of Fort Robinson, Neb. Secretary Taft informed Senator Millard that an appropriation of $25,000 had been made for Fort Robinson and that the War department would take immediate steps to commence the work of improving this post.
