Louise Mackebeen Wants Five Thousand Dollars of the Street Railway & Bridge Company's Cash to Pay for Injuries.

In the district court yesterday the $10,000 personal injury damage suit of Mrs. Mary Lorenzen against the Omaha & Council Bluffs Railway and Bridge company, the trial of which was begun Monday, was disdesed on motion of the plaintiff. It is inderstood that Mrs. Lorengen will bring new suit in Omaha, naming the Omaha Council Bluffs Street Railway company s defendant. The accident in which Mrs. Lorenzen is alleged to have been injured occurred in Omaha, although she was a samenger on a Council Bluffs car.

Louise Mackebeen filed original notice of suit against the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Rallway company yesterday, in which she asks $5,000 for injuries alleged to have been received as a result of the car on which she was a passenger suddenly starting as she was in the act of alighting, The notice does not set forth the nature of the injuries nor the date on which the crident is alleged to have happened.

And crops are sure because you I will give the names and ad-dresses of men who are making have plenty of pure artesian water on your own property for the cheapest irrigation.

There's a rainfall of 24 inches, but irrigation makes the best crop insurance. This land is always safe be-and see for yourself I will make you a round-trip rate of $25 from Chicago, $20 from St. Louis, or cause it is from 10 to 15 miles inland and from 60 to 100 feet above tidewater. You can buy this land so cheap Island Lines via Kansas City, or C. & E. I. via St. Louis. now because it has just been opened up to agriculture by the discovery f of pure artesian water abundance and the building of a railroad.
