Father Bonacum to hold in trust for the use and benefit of the orphanage, now in course of erection at Lincoln. Subsequent to making the first will it seems he made another, will leaving his property to a niece and nephew in Michigan. The latter will was filed in the county court and asked to be probated, and as a result both parties will fight for the estate left by the deceased.

HERMAN, Neb., Dec. 15.—(Special.)—This has been the banner corn day of the season. Strings of wagons commenced coming early and kept coming until night. The Henry Robber elevator took in 150 loads of corn. Crowell got forty-eight and Peavey got eighteen or twenty. This is the largest amount of grain that ever came to this town. Roberts is paying about 4 cent more than the other elevators and that gets the grain. The weather has been ideal.
