Gov. Mickey Expresses Opinion University Should Change Its Methods.

CHANCE TO SAVE ON PRINTING BILLS

Lincoln People Start to Draft a Primary Law and Discover They Have a Knotty Problem.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Dec. 19.—(Special.)—Every cent of the state money should be accounted for accurately, and the public should know where every cent is spent. Any deception practiced in this matter by the head of any institution will bring down destruction on that institution.

The above declaration was made by Governor Mickey in discussing the new auditing practice in the report of the State Board of Regents of money needed to maintain the State university and in estimating the resources. "Every dollar spent of the taxpayers' money should be checked up and should be paid out on vouchers filed with the auditor," said the governor. "The money expended for the maintenance of the State university should be paid out exactly as money is paid out for other institutions."

The governor expressed the opinion that the next legislature would certainly change the manner of conducting the university and he also expressed the opinion that the legislature would conduct a thorough investigation of the management of the institution.

The matter of printing for the university will also be called to the attention of the legislature. The printing for the university is not let through the State Printing board. During the last few years the Printing board, so the records show, has saved the state many thousands of dollars in printing, and it is likely an effort will be made to have the university printing done through this channel.

Efforts have been made in the past to get the university conducted on a business basis, but these efforts have failed because of the presence of a powerful university lobby, which has had the assistance of the Lincoln reformers. These fake reformers claim, of course, when anything is said about the university it is a knock on Lincoln, and it is doubtful if anyone ever had any suspicion that the large sums of money paid for the university printing each year had anything to do with this loyalty to "higher education."

Drafting a Primary Law.

A number of Lincoln citizens met last night to discuss the provisions of a state primary law in conformity with the pledge in the republican state platform. Primary laws of other states have been secured from these bills will be prepared. Considerable difference of opinion was developed though no one present doubted the proper bill would be prepared satisfactory to all. A section which stumped the committee was one to compel voters to vote for candidates of the party to which they belong, or in other words to keep one party from making nominations in another. Some of those at the meeting suggested that the party names be left off of the ballots and the men selected without regard to party politics.

Supreme Court Still in Session.

Supreme court is still in session and will not adjourn probably before tomorrow night. The court has given no intimation in what cases a decision will be handed down. Legislators Are Independent. Lincoln politicians have about come to the conclusion the legislature is going to be organized by the reformers, with very great assistance from outside influences. Those who are candidates for places admit they have received few pledges, but in every instance almost the legislator addressed has written back that he is for a man who can carry out the platform pledges. Inasmuch as there are few legislators pledged it is taken to mean the matter is up in the air and nothing will be settled before the caucus. So far, it is said, the race for speaker and president pro tem of the senate is perfectly friendly and no matter who is chosen for the places there will be few sore spots.

Some of the members of the Lancaster delegation visited the asylum for the insane at Lincoln this morning and looked it over thoroughly to see what is needed there in the way of improvements. Reports received here as to the effect many of the legislators-elect have been spending some time looking over state institutions and will come to Lincoln pretty well posted on their needs. Representative Harrison from Otoe and Cass counties visited the Institute for the Blind at Nebraska City before coming to Lincoln and familiarized himself with its needs. Mr. Harrison has decided to be a candidate for speaker.

Date of Senatorial Election.

Contrary to the general impression the United States senator will be elected Tuesday, January 15, instead of January 22. That is, the senate and houses will vote separately on that day and on the day following in joint session the journals of the two houses will be read and the result formally declared. The date of the election is fixed by the national statute, which reads as follows: Section 14. The legislature of each state which is chosen next preceding the expiration of the term of any senator shall be called to meet on the second Tuesday after the meeting and organization thereof provided to elect a senator in congress.

The section following then provides for the vote to be taken in each house on that date and the day following the journals to be read in joint session.

This legislature will meet on Tuesday, January 15, consequently the second Tuesday after the meeting and organization will be January 15.

However, Attorney General Brown will not be present when the legislature votes, providing the supreme court of the United States agrees to the stipulation of the attorneys in the railroad tax suit. The stipulation, which was sent to the clerk of the court today by the attorney general, sets January 14 as the time for arguing the case. Should this be agreeable to the court Mr. Brown will not be here to address the legislature, though this case is due later.

Hastings Asylum Report.

W. B. Kern, superintendent of the Hospital for the Incurable Insane at Hastings, says in his biennial report to the governor that the institution is much in need of another building for the care of female patients and in addition to this a modern isolation cottage of the capacity of seventy to 80 beds for the care of tubercular and other contagious and infectious diseases. Additional coal bins are greatly needed and for the purpose of erecting such buildings appropriation of $200,000 is asked. The offices in the administration building are inadequate and it is recommended that a suitable cottage be erected to be used as a residence by the superintendent and his family and the rooms at present used for the purpose of a coal bin. A detached building of suitable size to be used as a night-watch cottage is also recommended.

At the beginning of this biennial period, December 1, 1904, there were 92 patients in the institution of whom 52 were men and 23 were women. During the biennium 19 were admitted, of whom 143 were men and thirty-five were women. Of these six were discharged as recovered, seventeen improved, 20 unimproved, thirty-three passed away. During this period 200 male patients have been transferred to the Lincoln asylum.

The per capita cost for the biennial period was $27.50, or an average daily per capita of 26¢.

Capital Briefs.

Henry Seymour of the auditor's office is sending out blanks to be used by the county treasurers to make their annual reports to the auditor. These reports will be sent back to Lincoln by February 1, the year closing January 1.

Attorney General Brown is wrestling with a severe cold, which this morning became strong enough to compel him to give up and go home. This afternoon, however, he is getting along all right and expects to stay away from his office only a short time. George D. Bennett, secretary to the State Board of Equalization, has returned from Kearney, where he attended the laying of the cornerstone of the Kearney Military academy, under the auspices of the grand lodge of Masons.

J. J. Thomas, who ran against Congressman Hinshaw this fall, was married this afternoon to Miss Gertrude Kerrihand of Seward. The wedding occurred at the residence of Thomas L. Sexton, formerly of Seward, near that of Lincoln.

J. J. Thomas and Judge Holland of Seward called upon Governor Mickey this afternoon to protest against a pardon to William Campion, who was some time ago pardoned by the governor and later sent back to jail by Judge Good. Campion was assessed $1,000 on a patently charge, which he denied. He has spent almost three years in jail rather than admit a crime of which he claims to be innocent. After being let out of jail by the governor, Campion was arrested on a charge of desertion from the army. He was pardoned by Mickey that he has not yet passed upon the executive's right to pardon in such cases. It is also said the lawyers for the woman have a claim of $500 against the $1,000 judgment. The woman in the case married after Campion was convicted.

City Attorney Strode has declared the Melick livery barn a nuisance, and steps will be taken to have it removed from its present location on N street. The owner of the barn, Frank Rawlins, was arrested because the odor from the barn operated to the detriment of numerous stores on O street, but when it was discovered that Rawlins did not occupy the building the case went over.

Charcoal Kills Bad Breath

Disagreeable Odor Arising From Indigestion or From Any Habit or Indulgence, Can Be Instantly Stopped.

Sample Package Mailed Free.

Other people notice your bad breath where you would not notice it at all. It is nauseating to other people to stand before them and while you are talking, give them a whiff or two of your bad breath. It usually comes from food fermenting on your stomach. Sometimes you have it in the morning—that awful sour, bilious, bad breath. You can stop that at once by swallowing one of two Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges, the most powerful gas and odor absorbers ever prepared.

Sometimes your meals will reveal themselves in your breath to those who talk with you. "You've had onions," or "You've been eating cabbage," and all of a sudden you are belch in the face of your friend. Charcoal is a wonderful absorber of odors, as every one knows. That is why Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are so quick to stop all gases and odors or odorous foods, or gas from indigestion.

Don't use breath perfumes. They never conceal the odor, and never absorb the gas that causes the odor. Besides, the very fact of using them reveals the reason for their use. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges in the first place stop for good all sour breath and belching of gas, and makes your breath pure, fresh and sweet, just after you've eaten. Then no one will turn his face away from you when you breathe or talk; your breath will be pure and fresh, and besides your food will taste so much better to you at your next meal. Just try it.

Charcoal does other wonderful things, too. It carries away from your stomach and intestines, all the impurities there massed together and which causes the bad breath. Charcoal is a purifier as well as an absorbent.

Charcoal is now far the best, most easy and mild laxative known. A whole boxful will do no harm; in fact, the more you take the better. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made of pure willow charcoal and mixed with just a faint flavor of licorice to make them palatable for you, but not too sweet. You just chew them like candy. They are absolutely harmless. Get a new, pure, sweet breath, freshen your stomach for your next meal, and keep the intestines in good working order. These two things are the secret of good health and long life. You can get all the charcoal necessary to do these wonderful but simple things by getting Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. We want you to test these little wonder-workers yourself before you buy them. So send us your full name and address for a free sample of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. Then after you have tried the sample, and been convinced, go to your druggist and get a box of them. You'll feel better all over, more comfortable, and "cleaner" inside.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 26 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

FRENCH OFFICER DEGRADED

Captain Suffers for Refusing to Help Take Church Inventory.

RIOTING AT EPISCOPAL PALACE AT NANTES

Further Prosecution of Parish Priests Will be Suspended Pending Passage of Amendment to Present Law.

LILLE, France, Dec. 19.—A court-martial here today tried and degraded Captain Mag-nies for refusing to obey orders in connection with taking the inventory of the chapel of St. John. Magnies before the court said: "I am a Christian and I prefer to be shot rather than commit a sacrilege. No one has the right to make me renounce the vows I took at my first communion."

NANTES, France, Dec. 19.—Considerable rioting attended the evacuation of the Episcopal palace and seminary here today. Crowds of Catholics overcame the police, who were compelled to draw their rifles and under threats of opening fire kept back the mob until rescued by troops. Several women were arrested for striking or hitting soldiers.

Prosecutions Suspended.

PARIS, Dec. 19.—The reports received by the minister of the interior show that thirty-four ecclesiastical residences occupied by archbishops or bishops and forty large and thirteen small seminaries have thus far been evacuated under the provisions of the church and state separation law.

Having established the attitude of the parish priests the government has ordered the discontinuance of any further prosecutions for illegal services in the churches, pending the passage of the new law amending the law of 1905, providing for the separation of church and state.

Cardinal Richard has issued instructions suppressing the usual Christmas masses.

Attitude of Vatican.

ROME, Dec. 19.—No steps have been taken by the Vatican to entrust any power with the protection of the archives of the papal nunciature of Paris. The reports to the effect that some of the European countries were approached on the subject are groundless.

The attitude of the Vatican toward the new French government bill covering the conduct of public worship is defined by the papal authorities as being "distrustful," the latter being convinced of the necessity of continuing in the way they have already taken in order to obtain at least tolerable conditions for the church in France.
