FEAST FOR THE NEWSBOYS

Big Spread with Big Men and Good Women is Engaged.

TRINITY PARISH HOUSE THE SCENE

Army of Little Street Merchants Bombs the Brewsterworks and Other Parts of Turkey with Fixins'.

If customers seeking newspapers around the noon hour Saturday had difficulty in finding newsboys they are hereby informed that the young merchants had an engagement to take dinner at 1 o'clock with a number of judges, professors, business men and club women of the city at the parish house of Trinity cathedral. They were sorry to disappoint their customers, but, of course, business men must have some relaxation from the cares connected with the busy world and for conversation over a savory dinner with great minds.

CROWD GIVES NO ASSISTANCE

One Hundred People Watch Detective Tussle with Thug Without Turning a Hand.

Chief of Detectives Savage had a hard tussle with a desperate criminal about 6:45 Friday evening at the corner of Thirtieth and Douglas streets, in front of the Stars and Stripes saloon, which was witnessed by least 100 spectators, none of whom offered the least assistance to the officer, even when it was apparent that the trouble was likely to turn out badly for the doughty detective.

Chief Savage saw Dan Malone of Chicago, a hobo built like a pugilist who is believed to be a notorious crook and thug, in a fight with a man who ran away. The chief told Malone he was an officer and tried to place him under arrest, when Malone grabbed for the chief's revolver, but Chief Savage got the weapon first and hit Malone over the head, felling him to the ground.

Malone was on his feet like a flash and made a rush at Chief Savage, who was not a physical match for Malone, and grabbed the muzzle of the revolver. The chief frightened the belligerent by firing off the revolver toward the pavement and Malone

CITY HALL TO BE RENOVATED

Big Building Will Be Decorated Anew Throughout the Interior by Contract.

The city hall is to be redecorated throughout its interior. The woodwork will be oiled, walls painted and a general touch-up given to the inside of the municipal building. Saturday morning contractors measured the rooms with a view to bidding on the work. Bids will be opened at a meeting of the council general committee next Monday afternoon. The contract will be let before the end of the year, so that the expense may be held out of the general fund and not paid in the sinking fund.

The city hall has for some time badly needed a general cleaning up.
