THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE: DECEMBER 23, 1906.

Your Last Chance Give a Diamond for Xmas It has what every present should have, sentiment and intrinsic value-never grows old-Diamonds Win Hearts-Are more valuable as the years pass. If bought at Mandelberg's Gift Shop you are sure of a fine stone, at the lowest price to be found anywhere, MY EASY PAYMENT PLAN Gives you immediate possession of any diamond, watch or piece of jewelry for a small sum down and your promise to pay the balance in, well, let's say-A DOLLAR OR TWO A WEEK WILL DO. YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD. GENTLEMEN'S LADIES' RING, GENTLEMEN'S LADIES' RING, RING, $100 $35.00 $50.00 RING, $75

NEWS OF OMAHA SUBURBS

$2.50 a Week

B

West Ambler.

George Carlson and wife were guests here f home folks the first of the week. Mrs. Pitman was entertained by her friegd, Mrs. F. Potter, on Wednesday. Miss Bessle Moran was the guest of Mrs. D. Shandy, on the heights, on Thursday. Word has been received of the illness of Mrs. Charles Syas at her home in Los An-geles, Cal.

Mirs. L. Boyer was the guest of her friends, Mrs. I. Byas and R. Getty, the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Houck of West Center street were the guests of friends in West Side on Thursday evening, Mr. Mayfleid has built an addition to his home recently purchased near the park and removed to his land here. The pupils of Beals school were made appy this week by each one remembering te other in a Christmas gift.

James Halpin and son, James, jr., re-turned from their three weeks' visit with relatives in northern Iowa Wednesday.

Mrs. Jessie Morton and little son, Milo, of Long Pine will spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Faverty, here, Mr. D. Shandy, who has been so long an employe of the Union Pracific shops, is en-joying his Sundays at home, the first in many years.

Van Epps, who has been here, will go to Omaha to work in the exchange there. Mrs. W. R. Wall and daughter, Ruth, spent Thursday in Florence, the guest of Mrs. M. J. Gleason. Mrs. M. J. Gleason. Mr. and Mrs. Lou Grebe spent Sunday evening visiting friends at Twenty-ninth and Fort streets, Omaha. Mrs. Ferdinand Abendorf and her brother, Henry Buller, spent Tuesday afternoon the gusets of Mrs. W. R. Wall.

Deputy Shoriff Hill of Omaha was a minings visitor here Wednesday afternoon,

$2.00 a Week $3.00 a Week

A. Mandelberg

OMAHA'S GIFT SHOP

1522 Farnam St.

opraising some real estate. Mrs. W. C. Lewis and children spent a few days here this week the guests of her guests of Mrs. W. R. Wall.

Miss Mae Muchlich left Saturday morning for Schuyler, Neb., where she will spend two weeks visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Thomas Gorman of South Omaha opent Thursday visiting with Mrs. M. J. Heason at her home on North Thirtieth

Charles A. Smith assisted the Irvington band at Florence Wednesday night, the occasion being the institution of an aeric of Earles. strept.

L. F. Imm of Lincoln, Neb., spent Satur-day and Sunday here visiting with the family of William Tucker, a brother-in-law, He returned home Sunday night. of Eagles.

From now on Miss Prudence Tracy, the postmaster, notifies the public that the mails will be open on holidays, the same as Sunday, which is from 9 to 10, a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw of Schenectady,

Mrs. Leochner. Prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Morton and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johnson. After the cards a Christ-mas tree program was carlied out, which meant presents to all the guests, of whom there were about twenty. The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. B. L. Childs were held at the late home last Wednesday aftermoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Ledy conducted the ser-vices, assisted by the Modern Woodmen of America quartet. Interment was at For-est Lawn cemetery. Mrs. Childs, who died Monday, had lived in Benson for some time and had many friends. The Benson schools closed last Friday time and had many friends. The Beneon schools closed last Friday for the Christmas holidays. Exercises were held by all rooms. The teachers will spend their vacation as follows: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graff will entertain at home, Miss Bell and Miss Campbell will be in Lincoln part of the time; Miss Hat-field goes to Pawnee City; Miss Williams to Pierre, S. D.; Miss Culbertson to Shelby-ville, Ind., and Prof. Speedic and family go to Papillion to spend their Christmas, naturally drawn from local history.

$1.50 a Week

A Young Men's Christian association building costing $500,000 is soon to be erected in Detroit, Mich.

NEWS FROM ARMY POSTS

Fori Crook

performed at the post hospital a couple of weeks ago. Lieutenants Sturges, Barnard, Hutler and McCabe, student officers, have occupied the dwelling across the avenue from the old Post Exchange building, where they have also established a mess. Second Lieutenant Henry A. Finch, En-gineer corps, leaves this week on leave for ten days.

erformed at the post hospital a couple of Fort Creek. FORT CROOK, Neb., Dec. Z.-(Special.) -Liceutenant Sheldon W. Anding and Mrz. Anding arrived at the post on the 1816 inst., and have taken quarters No. 3, of-licers' row, recently vacated by Captain F. A. Wilcox, Thirtieth infantry. Liceutenant Harold L. Snoddy, First regi-ment, Kansas National guard, reported for instruction at the officers' school on the 19th inst., and has been assigned rooms in the bachelors' quarters in the club building.

Fort Creuch.
FORT CROOK, Neh, Dee, Z., (Special, L. Louismant, Sheldon, W. Anding and Mirk Anding arrived as the quarters No. 3, of the second Lieutemant Henry A. Finch, Barten and Mirk Anding arrived as the quarters No. 3, of the second Lieutemann Henry A. Finch, Barten and Mirk Anding arrived as the quarters No. 3, of the second Lieutemann Henry A. State, Barten and Mirk Anding arrived as the quarters No. 3, of the second Lieutemann Henry A. State, Barten and Mirk Andrew Anders, Andera

Cottrel, to be corporal, vice Alexander, promoted. The Thirtleth Infantry Enlisted Men's Social club held a masquerade ball in the post theater on Thursday evening from 8 until midnight, which proved a success financially. Prizes were given for the vari-ous styles of costumes and the following were the winners: Mrs. Hellen Kelly of Fort Reno, Okl., representing "Summer." received a writing desk as first prize: Ser-geant Oliver Farrand, representing an In-dan chief, received a gold mounted foun-tain pen. W. H. Bunch, represented a circus clown and received a box of per-fectos for the most comical costume. Mrs. Lottle Littreal and Miss Dessle Gray, for the best group costume, received a large box of Lowney's chocolate candy each. The Thirlieth infantry orchestra furnished the latest composition dance music. Private Arthur Caplinger, a deserter from the Fourteenth Field battery, surrendered himself to Sergeant of Polics George E. Pierce of Stoux City, Ia., at that place and was delivered here during the week. Norris Doyle of Troop B, Fifth cavalry, who was apprehended at Council Blut's by Police Officer Richardson, was deliv-ered here on the ISIn inst., to await trial for desertion. The police officer will re-ceive the usual reward of $50 allowed for deserters. Marry J. Drew, who deserted from Troop the command will be about 200 short. The shortage is now 32 men. The record that Fort Riley made in bas-ket ball has year seems to have traveled far. Lieutenant Glassford is receiving let-ters asking for games from managers of college teams 500 and 600 miles away. Mrs. Hoyle gave a delightful musicale on Tweeday evening. Vocal solos were ren-dered by the Misses Green and Hoyle and by the hostess. Mrs. Connor gave several viell noise and she, with Miss Banister, played several mandolin duets. Miss Ban-ister accompanied the vocal soloists and also rendered a plane solo. Corporal Henry Fry. Troop D, Ninth cav-alry, recently detailed on extra duty as rehood teacher, is now instructing a class of about forty of the post school in Span-ish. Corporal Fry was detailed for this purpose after he had passed a several officers.

IS

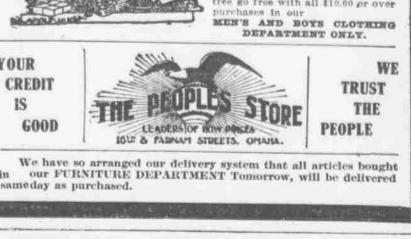

in

OMAHA HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

ceive the usual reward of $60 allowed for deserters. Harry J. Drew, who deserted from Troop B. Sixth cavalry, stationed at Fort Meade, S. D., and who surrendered himself to the recruiting officer at Omaha on the 18th inst., was brought to this post on the 19th inst., to await trial for desertion. First Sergeant Ben Holfer, Company D, was discharged on the 19th Inst., on sur-geon's certificate of disability. Instead of having the regular drill Thursday, the cadets assembled in one of the large study rooms. Several selections were given by the high school band. The band this year consists of twenty-five pieces. The school board has given several new instruments to the band this year, and this, in connection with an excellent leader. pieces. The school board has given several new instruments to the band this year, and this, in connection with an excellent leader, has enabled the band to make itself far superior to those of preceding years. Cap-tain Stogsdail commented on the improve-ment of the band and the buttalion and stated that his only regret was that he upight not be able to be with the boys next year. Most of the literary societies gave Christ-mas programs. The program in the Elaine America quartet. Interment was at For-set Lawn cemetery. Mrs. Childs, who died Monday, had lived in Benson for some Ime and had many friends. The Benson schools closed last Friday for the Christmas holidays. Exercises were held by all rooms. The teachers will spent hear value and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home: Misses Hoffman, McNamara and De Graft will entertain at home in Lincohn part of the times, Misse Hoffman, maturally drawn from local history. RELIGIOUS NOTES. 1 There are 73,000 Eaptists in Massachi-setts. A Young Men's Christian association building costing $200,000 is soon to be erected builting costing $200,000 is soon to b

rg. Grace Rohrbough, Elizabeth Charlton

absolutely free of cost to you, a beautifully Trimmed Christman Tree with each and every Cash or Credit sale of ten dollars ($10) or ever in our Men's and Boys' Glothing Departmont.

By purchasing these trees in such large quantities we are enabled to give you a trimmed Christmas tree that would ordinarily cost you $2.00. An exact duplicate of the trimmed trees we give away is on display in our 16th St. clothing window. Here is an itemized list of the trimmings that go with each tree. We deliver all trees to your home. Don't worry about carrying them:

pounds of candy. pound of mixed nuts. dozen oranges. package of figs. work box. horn, drum, Japanese toy, Japanese top. toy watch.

candy ornament, other ornaments, box of candles, andle holders. Holly. And one box of fireproof snow.

All of the above articles and the tree go froe with all $19.00 or over many years.

Mrs. Connie Bell of Clifton Hill was the guest of her friend, Miss Ada Gantz, from Thursday until Friday, and took in the Christmas bazar at the hall, The Ladles' Ald society of Southwest the Ladies' Aid society of Southwest church held a most successful Christmus bagar at Woodman hall on Thursday even-ing, which was largely attended, and many useful articles of wearing apparel, besides two hundisome quilis, were sold. The Misses Pickard and Blake added to the pleasure of the occasion with several plano solos, and Mrs. J. Emory sanv. Refresh-ments were served. The process amounted to about $29.

Bellevne.

William Raff of Omaha visited friends in Bellevue last Sunday. Sunday night, the last of the Torrey meetings, a great number of Bellevue peo-ple attended

Miss Jean McMaster of Omaha has been visiting Mrs. B. R. Stouffer, Jr., several days this week. nle attended.

Miss Lydia Langheine, a nurse at the main General hospital, spent Sunday with her parents here.

her parents here. Most of the college students left Friday and Saturday to spend the Christmas v2-cation at their homes. Charles L. Cleiand, business manager of Bellevue college, will not return after the holidays. He is contemplating going into business on the Pacific coast. A Royal Neighbor lodge was openized

A Royal Neighbor lodge was organized in Bellevno last Friday. The lodge has started out with a good membership and everything points toward a strong lodge. Bell C. Clarke, who was taken sick at Kearney, has been brought to Bellevue, to the home of her parents, W. V. Chapman and wife. At present she is recovering rapidly. Hart Monroe and Ed Steff of Bellevu have received a patent on an automatic wagon brake that is said to be one of the simplest contrivances along that line on the market.

the market. The lecture by Mr. Townsend under the auspices of the local camp of Modern Woodmen, last Tuesday evening, was well attended and highly entertaining. The Woodmen lodge here is enterprising and always on the alert for good things. This was one of the best it has found this vers.

Year, T. C. Milner, a student at the Creighton Medical college, suffered a collapse last Monday, while in the class room. His con-dition at first was scrious, and he was removed to the General hospital. Later he was taken to his home in this city and is rapidly recovering.

Florence.

Mogy Bernstein was a business caller here

Wednesday.

Miss Loues Finney has accepted a posi-tion in McClura's store as eashier. Robert Deck returned Saturday from a few days' visit with his parents at Ithaca, Neb

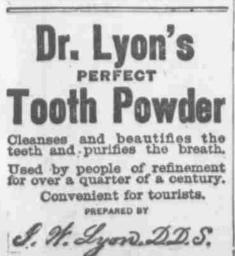

There will be a Christmas tree at the Presbyterian church Monday evening. De

Miss Margaret Slert of Blair, Neb., i ater of George Slert, is spending a few days here.

Ole Oleson and son of Silver Creek, Neb., were business visitors here Tuesday and Were busine Wednemlay.

Mrs. Henry Petersen returned last week from a six months' visit with relatives in the old country. Miss Stella Ryan, who has been in the Omaha telephone office for the past month, has returned to Florence and will re-gume her place here as day operator. Miss nome for the hondays. The Ladies' Aid society met Friday aft-ernoon at the Dundee Presbyterian church. Mr. James W. Hamilton left on Thursday for a visit to his mother and sister in Ken-tucky OUT OF THE ORDINARY.

All the Bellevue boys and girls are at home for the holidays.

tucky. Miss Margaret Barr left on Thursday with a party of school friends for a trip to Cuba. A gale of wind is usually one of the worst

OUT OF THE ORDINARY.
 Mess Margaret Bart left on Thurshy with sharty of action friends for a link friends of a link of the start of the forwarded by that gentleman. Don't wait!

achta. The Lutheran church will have a Christ-nas program at 7:30 Tuesday evening at Sagles' hall. The Methodist church will dye theirs at 7:30 Christmas evening at the hurch. The Baptist church at 5 o clock i the church, Monday. The Medern Wordman lots o batted in The book has an object-to educate and inform the public about the northwest, the region that Lewis and Clark, the Astorian at the church, Monday. The Modern Woodmen lodge elected its officers for the year last Tuesday, as fol-lows: O. E. Snowden, vice counselor: A. M. Wiggins, worthy adviser: J. B. Huber, banker; J. M. Leidy, clerk; C. D. Totman, escort; E. H. Lindell, watchman; C. W. Childs, sentry; C. C. Williams and G. A. Wulff, managers.

and the second second

Mr. and Windy is from 9 to 10, a. m.
 Mr. and Wra. Brachakes of Schenotty.
 Mr. and Wra. Grimm and Jamos Pilattion.
 Mr. and Mr. Grimm and Jamos Pilattion.
 Mr. and Mr. Grimman J. L. B.
 Mr. and Mr. Grimman J. Jamos Pilattion.
 Mr. and Mr. Brandina J. Jamos Pilattion.
 Mr. and Mr. Jamos Pilattion.
 Mr. and Mr. and

Fort Riley.

story of the same struggie which was going on in many other countries beside England and many other colonies beside the New England settlements, though the figures are and Lieutenant Kiehl, Thirteenth cavairy, is taking the course of instruction airy, is taking the course of instruction for bakers. Sorgeant Beall, troop A, Thirteenth cav-airy, now on furlough, has been ordered discharged by purchase. Captain Reno, assistant surgeon, returned the last of the week from a leave of ab-sance

Captain Kochersperger, Second cavalry, as returned from a thirty days' leave of beence. Private Hagerdon of the Twenty-second attery has nucle application for his dis-harge by purchase. Private Begart of the Seventh battery lows: O. E. Snowden, vice counselor, A. M. Wizgins, worthy adviser, J. B. Huber, banker, J. M. Leidy, clerk; C. D. Touman, escort; E. H. Lindell, watchman; C. W. Childs, sentry, C. C. Williams and G. A. Wuiff, managers. Mis. H. O. Wulff and Mrs. Dr. Leochner, Christmas tree card party at the home of Mull apply to 1,500 employes.

In the Frances Willard society the fol-lowing program was given; Song, by the octatte; dialogue, Helen Ostrom, Ethel Sawyer and Lillian Carlson; story, Mary Wolf; recitation, Miss Nickum; reading, Laura Ulrich; recitation, Blanche Bersel; reading, Elizabeth Hancock; "Old Christ, mas Customs," Lillian Carlson; "Crescent," Mayony Beckett; "Old Burying Grounds," Evelyn Martinson; recitation, Beulah Bes-sirl.

siri. In the Priscilla Alden society a dialogue, "Mike Gets a Job." was given by Sadie Kirschbraun and Dorothy Phillips. A violin solo was rendered by Grace Mo-Bride in her usual style. Alice Woodworth read a very interesting story, entitled "How the Bakers Spent Shristmas." An originat Christmas noem was given by Florence An originat the Bakers Spent Shristmas." An originat Christmas poem was given by Florence Fehr. A short story was told by Ruby Frasier. Jennie Underland played a violin solo. "Ye Puritan Chronicle" was read by Josephine Ruble. Irene McNight gave a recitation entitled "A Small Boy's Solil-oquy Aft-r Christmas." The orogram was followed iv a fudge party. Each member of the society was presented with a car-nation. nation. In the German society a Christmas gram a little out of the ordinary given. Several outsiders helped to the program an enjoyable one. The lowing numbers were given. Addree make lowing numbers were given: Address of welcome, Emma Sollner: recitation, Mary Pierron: "Christmas Bullad." Miss Jesaie McCune: "Ciristmas Dream," Dora Sase, Mabei Sherwood, Hentietta Schnetz and Julia Anhauser; violin guartet, Jennie Un-derland, Sadie Kirschbraun, Helen Som, "Helen Sadelik: "Christmas Eyre," Hertha Hrown, Clara Shupbach, Theckla Egen, Edni Levi, Whifred Cox, Donald East-man, Elmer Christensen, Leon Haglind, Leonard Hoffman, Fritz Meyer and Clar-ence Allyn. Address

Leonard Hoffman, Fritz Meyer and Clar-ence Allyn. In the Lininger Travel club a series of charades were given by Huida Anderson. Anna Carruthers, Maybel Nelson, Pearl Janey, Edith Anderson, Helen Cook, Anna Bethge and Katherine Dunnigan. The dif-ferent ways of observing Christmas in other lands were told by Helen Lindquist. An ortginal story was told by Katherine Dun-nigan. A recitation was given by Mayme Swanson. After the Chronicle had been read the members of the society took part in a musical game. The Pleindes society held a Christmas program in room 105. Each number re-

The Pleiades society held a Christmas program in room 108. Each number re-lated to the loys and pleasures of Christ-mas. The program consisted of a recita-tion, by Alvera Huston; "An Old-Time Christmas," by Joves Barnes; "The Star," by Olna Yelton; violin solo, Radie Huitton; "A Christmas Story," Louise Copeland recitation, Gertrude Phelfer, A musical duct concluded the program. In the Webster society the current events were given by Will Kavan In a debate resolved "That the Income Tax Shouff Re Adopted in the United States," the af-firmative, represented by Albert Brogran and James Van Avery, won over John Herring and Evan Rogers on the negative Harold Graham entertained the society with a funny story. Robert Finlay ex-plained the difforent processes of making diaminating mas. A recitation was given by Guy Wood. A short address was made by Hubert Owen, an old member of the society.

of Blood Poison, Skin Diseases, Rupture, Neurasthenia, Piles, Chronic Constipation, Ulters or other Rectal Dis-eases, Kidney and Bindder Troubles, Nervous Decline, and all associate Diseases of Men whose cases are not already incurable through neglect or mistreatment.

ALL MEN who are suffering from any of the above diseases, you who have been the rounds of all other doctors and whom other doctors cannot cure, you who have cases of long standing and who believe that health and strength are lost to you forever. WE WILL CURE YOU, or before accepting your case we will tell you frankly why we cannet.

WE WANT EVERY ONE TO KNOW OF THE WONDERFUL SUCCESS

THE WONDERFUL SUCCESS
OF OUR METHODE. We success because our Methods are scientific and embrace all the best features of this country and Europe. Long ago we abandoned the use of the best features of this country and Europe. Long ago we abandoned the use of the best features of this country and Europe. Long ago we abandoned the use of the best features of this country and Europe. Long ago we abandoned the use of the best features of this country and Europe. Long ago we abandoned the use of the best features of this country and Europe. Long ago we abandoned the use of the best features of this country and Europe. Long ago we abandoned the use of the kinde and of all barbarous surgery.
To OLE ALL METHOD OF DIAGNOSIE WE SEE AND KNOW WHAT OTHERE GUESS AT. We recognize disease, the presence of which is not even subpected by others, therefore we treat with accuracy, knowledge and precision.
If I SURPRISING THAT WE CURE TO STAY CURED OIN FIVE DAYS.
TOU CANNOT OBTAIN ELSEWHERE OUR DISSOLVENT ELIMINATING CURE for CESTITIS PROSTATITIS, SCROPPULA, and all diseases and obstructions of the Kidneys and Bladder.
The Kidneys and Bladder.
The Call at our office and we will give you the names of patients whom we have cured of Rupture in two months by our impressed methods, who have been inside by other so-called specialists for ever two yoars without results.
The CHARGE LESS FOR PRECISE ACCURATE CURE-PRODUCING TREATWE CHARGE LESS FOR PRECISE ACCURATE CURE-PRODUCING TREATMETHEME TO MEET THE CONVENIENCE OF OUR PATIENTS.
The name to the substance of our patients.
THEND MEET THE CONVENIENCE OF OUR PATIENTS.
Then hours, $150 a. m. to $ p. m. every week day.

Office hours, 8:50 a. m. to 8 p. m. every week day. Eundays, 9 a. m to 12 m. only.

