Jerusalem over again. The danger of our social, religious and political life today is compromise. It is easy for us to go with Jerusalem. The boy is in danger of staying in Jerusalem with Herod, when he begins o compromise.

"How different we find it at Bethlehem It is rugged, it is simple, it is plain; but the air is good and pure. There was the answer to Jerusalem. There was the place of peace. There was the power of God. Today we need to get away from our Jerusalem long enough to learn the message of Bethlehem. People donot cut their coats according to their cloth, but too often according to their neighbor's cloth. But the people who have lived the Bethlehem life have blessed the world more than the men who have lived the Jerusalem life.

One thing more is necessary in our lives than living the simple life. It is the surrendered life. The men who will surrender their lives to Christ will lead the blessed life of Bethlehem." DRONES ARE ALIEN TO SOCIETY
