Frank F. Everest was yesterday appointed by Judge Smith McPherson of the United States court receiver for the Union. Transfer company, against which creditors brought bankruptcy proceedings, following the fire, which destroyed the company's warehouse and stock on South Main street. Mr. Everest's appointment, it is said, was made at the request of a number of the creditors. It was announced yesterday that the Habilitles of the firm were found to be greater than 'at first reported and will exceed the assets, which consist of book accounts and the insurance of $60,000 by about #25,000.

W. A. Bouthard, manager and principal stockholder of the Union Transfer company, could not be seen last evening, following the announcement of the appointment of F. F. Everest as receiver, but it. is understood that the company, despite the bankruptcy proceedings, hopes to procure a satisfactory settlement of its present roubles and resume business in a short time. In fact, so sure is the company of being able to resume business within a short while, that negotiations are pending to lease the upper floors of the large freight office and warehouse of the Great

Matters in District Court.

The petition in the divorce suft of Arthur Deuel against Ora Anna Deuel was filed in the district court yesterday. Following a recital of the alleged ill-treatment he had received for several years at the hands of his wife, who, he says, on more than one occasion threatened to "cut his heart out" with "the carving knife, the plaintiff charges his wife with deserting him and turning to her former home in Michigan. At the time his wife left him Deusl alleges she took with her the proceeds of the sais of their home.

Milton Campbell is another husband who fulled to find, married life a paradise, according to his petition for divorce filed yeiderday. He alleges that his wife, O. R. Campbell, to whom he was married in Pottawattamle county in September, 1968, put him in such fear of his life by repeatedly chreatening to kill him that his health gave way and he became almost a physical wreck. On June 1 Campbell asserts his wife threatened to shoot and kill him with a abotgun, but compromised matters by leaving him and since refusing to live with him. Mrs. Marie E. Judon, wife of John E.

Goldstein is in Mexico.

The report that Adolph Goldstein, former agent in Council Bluffs for the Miller Brewing company of Milwaukee, had gone to Mexico, proves to have been correct. Friends of the young man are in receipt the record by issuing thirteen marriage of latters from him dated in Mexico in which he says that he intends to return here as soon as he can make arrangements to square up his accounts with the company and his other creditors.

It has been learned that on leaving here Goldstein first went to Kansas City with the hops of being able to secure money from relatives with which to settle his about 17,000 bushels of corn and oats.
