Several Inches of the Beautiful Accompanied by Heavy Gales. FIERCE BLIZZARD IN LIVERPOOL DISTRICT

Several Smaller Vessels Driven on the Rocks and There is Much Suffering Among the Crews.

LONDON, Dec. 26 .- Christmas of 1906 vill be memorable for the heaviest snow torms the United Kingdom has experienced in many years. In the northern counties of England and in Scotland the anow was accompanied by great gales There was an average fall of from four to six inches, which under heavy gales drifted badly and worked serious hindrance to ocomotion of all kinds and inconvenience o holiday makers. It snowed again tonight, but not so hard, excepting in the Liverpool district, where a fierce bliggard is raging, and the indications are that the severe weather will continue.

There were many small wrecks along the coast, but no serious loss of life is reported. The crews of nearly all the wrecked vessels were rescued by life boats. Almost all the shipwrecked men had terrible experiences and were completely ex hausted before being brought to land. The steamer Hazeldene struck a rock and sank off Cloughey. Life boat men succeeded in rescuing the crew after an exciting experience. Another life boat made a similar rescue of the crew of the schooner Ringeader, wrecked off Bungeness.

The minor inconveniences of the day include the abandoning of hundreds of boxing, foot ball and golf matches. The discomfort and the difficulty of getting about, however, did not greatly dampen the ardor of London's pleasure seekers. The popularity of the pantomime seems to be on the increase. Not less than a dozen theaters in London and its suburbs, headed by a splendid production of "Sinbad the Sallor" at Drury Lane, gave pantomime, and all report full houses.

Address by Prof. Jenks. Prof. J. W. Jenks of Cornell university, president of the American Economic asso ciation, delivered the annual address, his subject being "The Modern Standard of Business Honor."

Prof. Jenks said:

Prof. Jenks said: The frequency of great fortunes, gathered perhaps legally, but in ways felt to be unjust, through the power of monopoly, have tended strongly to obscure the moral vision of many well-meaning men, who have been thereby led to confound morality with social righteousness, and their acts have formed the excuse for many others to threak laws which seem to them unjust. The profit from an unjust though legal stock watering may well prove more de-moralizing in business circles than the li-legal freight rebate which saves from ruin a grain shipper caught at a disadyantage. Insame Spokane Boy Who Killed Pather Locked Up for Protection of Community

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 26.-Sidney Bloane, who slew his own father, is not to go free. Though the jury on Saturday pronounced Sloane "not guilty by reason of insanity," Judge W. A. Hunek today ordered that he should be taken to the Walla Walla penitentiary, there to remain until the further order of the court. The judge stated that this action was taken for the sufety of the community, it having been shown that the prisoner's insanity was of a pormanent character and that he might again become violent at any time. The epurt also held that he had no power to dictate to the warden of the prison as to his method of treating the prisoner. Young Bloane, who was happy, jubilant and singing yesterday, appeared depressed and discouraged when this sontence was pronounced.
