House Canens Monday. Several new members joined the advance guard of legislators here tonight, among them being Senator Wilson of Pawnee, who wants to be president pro tem. of the senate. Dr. Wilson will open headquarters at the Lindell hotel tomorrow. The house members who came were S. W. Green of Holt, W. Neff of Franklin, T. Cone of Seward, populist. The latter intimated he intended to see that the legislature accomplished something this winter or stand for a big fight.

It has about been settled that the caucus of the house members will be held Monday night. There was some talk that the caucus would be pulled off Saturday night, but as some of the members are going home to mend Sunday and others won't get here until Monday, the candidates for speaker have about agreed to get together and request the caucus for the later date. Attorney Burnett of Omaha, who represented the fraternal insurance companies before the last legislature, was here this Estimated deficiency claims afternoon, but he said he was not here For miscellaneous claims (est.). to open headquarters, but on private business. George Lewis of North Platte was mixing with the legislators this afterndon.

Receipts and Expenditures

Of especial interest to the legislators at this time is a statement to be published in the forthcoming biennial report of the state auditor, showing the estimated recelpts for the biennium and the estimated expenditures. Extra copies of the statement will be printed and furnished the members of the legislature. The estimates are as follows:

Wife of Physician from the Sidewalk,

EL RENO, Okl., Dec. 27-Race feeling is at white heat and threats of lynching are heard on every hand as a result of an assault committed on Mrs. T. S. Clifford, wife of a prominent physician, this afternoon by a negro of the Twenty-fifth infantry. Mrs. Clifford and her sister, Mrs. S. H. Clarke, were attempting to pass the soldier when he viciously grabbed Mrs. Clifford around the waist and threw her into the street, exclaiming that the sidewalk belonged to him. Mrs. Clarke & reamed for assistance and the assailant fied, escaping before help arrived. News of the attack spread rapidly, and
