Suspicion of Him as Rummelhart Murderer Becomes More General.

POLICE THINK HE MAY BE THE FIEND

Have Conclusive Evidence, Chief Says, that He is Guilty of Other Crimes Revolting In Character.

"He is a bad character and we shall exhaust every resource at our command to determine his connection, if any, with the murder of Josephine Rummelhart." Chief Donahue's comment on Frank Smith, the negro arrested on the south side Wednesday for insulting women and girls. We have the most conclusive evidence against him for revolting conduct, and a man who would do that would do most anything in that line. Everything about his case indicates that he is a low, depraved individual. We shall keep him at the city jall and have every person see him who thinks he or she might be able e throw any light on the case. I want those people in the vicinity of Riverview park who saw the culprit that annoyed women and girls down there last fall to view him."

Asked if he personally thought the fellow onnected with the Rummelhart case, the chief said:

"Of course, I could not say as to that But I can say he is capable of the most revolting crime. He may be the flend we have so long looked for."

Big Point Against Him. The chief takes as a strong fact against the fellow his utter inability to account for himself for two or three months, or since the Rummelhart murder, October $. He has made nothing but the most in coherent statement and has tried to make it appear he was not in Omaha during the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities, at the close of which the community was shocked by the news of the Rummelhart atrocity. The officers have not as yet mentioned to him anything about this crime.

Not only Chief Donahue, but Captain

Not only Chief Donahue, but Captain Mostyn and other police officers are inlined to the theory that Smith took the ife of Miss Rummelhart and also committed the depredations at Riverview park Women who claim to be able to identify the latter criminal will see him at the jail, and if they determine he is the fiend they are looking for the police say a big point will be made toward getting the creature who committed the Dodge street crime. If Smith has dwelt upon the Rummelhart nurder since his arrest no one around solice headquarters knows it, nor dees Smith know that the authorities are fitting spon him the garment of gullt of this lastardly crime. Smith was arraigned in police Chursday morning and sentenced to thirty lays in fail. He will be confined for the erm of his sentence in the city jail, as he will be needed many times for the purpose of establishing his identity and his posible connection with the various crimes with which he is suspected.

HOW TO CASH IN THE CHIPS Street Railway Laborers Often Exchange Fare for Beer or Other Drinks.

What sort of a chip was that he gave you?" asked a passenger of an Omahi street car conductor, after the latter had eccived a circular blue article from a portly man on the back platform. "Oh, those are the chips the company gives its laborers to ride to and from work on." was the answer. "But that well dressed man doesn't handie a pick and shovel, does he?" "No. I suppose he is a saloon keeper. was You see, each laborer is given two chips each evening, one to pay his way home and one to pay his way back to work in the morning. Some of the men buy beer with the chips and walk home. Once in a while you find a saloon man who has enough chips in his pockets to pay his fare for a week."
