LOYD FORGRAVES IS SHOT

Well Known Council Bluffs Police Character Victim of Faramour.

REFUSES TO MAKE A SWORN STATEMENT

Insists He Is Going to Get Well. Though Officials Are of the Opinion His Injuries Are Fatal.

County Attorney R. E. Backus of Honesdale, S. D., was in the city last night on route to Mason City. Mr. Backus said that just before leaving Honesdale he was called to take an ante-mortem statement of Lloyd Forgraves, who had been shot and thought to have been fatally wounded by Irene Townsend, his paramour. Forgraves, however, refused to make any statement, declaring that he was going to get well. Mr. Backus said. Both Forgraves and the woman are well known in Council Bluffs, where they lived prior to moving to Honesdale. Forgraves, who was a member of a respectable family, was born and raised in Council Bluffs. His associations with the vicious element repeatedly got him into trouble and he had to leave the city after being indicted for slaying a negro with a big butcher knife. The woman conducted a resort on Broadway until driven out by the police.

Joseph Michener has brought suit against the Union Pacific railroad to recover $1,055 damages for the alleged neglect and failure to feed in transit a shipment of horses and colts from Opat, Wyo., to Sioux City. The alleged failure of the railroad company to properly care for the stock en route, it is claimed by the plaintiff, materially decreased their value in the Sioux City market.

Mar. Marcus of this city has filed his petition in his suit against the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company for $5,000 damages for personal injuries alleged to have been received April 27, 1906. The plaintiff alleges that the car on which he was a passenger was derailed at the turn from Broadway onto Avenue A, at Thirteenth street, owing to the great speed at which the car was being run. He states he was thrown from his seat and received permanent injuries to his head and neck.

H. S. Jackson for himself and as assignee of the claim of L. S. Howe has begun suit against the Great Western railroad, in which he asks $125 damages for the burning of two and one-quarter acres of fruit alleged to have been set aside through negligence of the defendant company. The fire complained of is said to have started along the defendant company's right-of-way and spread to the orchards of the plaintiff and Howe.

Arrested for Stealing Horses. Harry Gilbert, a stranger to the police, but who when arrested claimed to be employed by the Independent Telephone company, is being held on a charge of grand larceny against his name. Early yesterday afternoon Gilbert hired a horse and buggy at the Weatherbee livery barn on Broadway. He was arrested a few hours later, after he had made arrangements to sell the rig to Frank Davis, a well known living at Twenty-third street and Avenue I. Davis, not having the money at hand with which to buy the rig, accompanied Gilbert up town to the office of the Clark Mortgage company with the purpose of securing the needed funds by giving a chattel mortgage on the horse and buggy. It happened that a member of the Clark Mortgage company recognized the rig as belonging to Weatherbee and he notified the latter. Weatherbee at once put himself in communication with the police and Gilbert's arrest followed.

LARGELY STEPPING-STONE TO MATRIMONY

Railroad Commission Puts in Day Hearing Arguments Pro and Con on Petition for Reduction in Rates.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DEN MOINES, Dec. 27.—(Special.)—Before the State Teachers' association today Judge H. E. Deemer of the supreme court said that at present there is no profession of teaching in Iowa and that women teachers ought not be paid as much wages as men in teaching; that teaching now is but a temporary employment or avocation leading to "law or love, medicine or matrimony." He declared that there should be, and will be some day, a profession of teaching, but he hoped that love and matrimony would not be interfered with.

YOUNG BOY IS ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Companion Was Careless in Handling a Gun.

Wendell Killins, the 12-year-old son of J. A. Killins, 275 Washington avenue, was shot and seriously wounded Wednesday afternoon by the accidental discharge of a shotgun in the hands of Bart Maxfield, a young companion. Roscoe Maxfield, a brother of Bart Maxfield, received some of the shot in the calf and ankle of the right leg, but his injuries are not serious. There is fear that if complications set in young Killins' injuries may terminate fatally. Young Killins and the Maxfield boys, who live on Morningdale avenue, had gone into the woods nearby with a small air rifle to hunt. While there they met Will Miller, a 14-year-old lad who lives on Cooper avenue. Boy-like, they wanted to look at the shotgun and young Miller handed it to Bart Maxfield. While the boys were crowded around looking at the gun young Maxfield accidentally pulled the trigger. The greater part of the charge of shot struck young Killins on the side at the top of the thigh and passed through the groin, tearing away the flesh and muscles and leaving the thighbone exposed. Young Killins was carried to his home by the father of the Maxfield boys. Yesterday the wounded boy was reported to be recovering from the shock of the injury, and unless blood poisoning or other complications set in he has a chance for recovering.

Jackson in Trouble Again.

William Jackson, the negro whose domestic and other troubles have made him a familiar character in the police and other courts for the last year or more, was before Judge Scott in police court yesterday morning charged with the theft of 90 pounds of old furnace castings belonging to the International Harvester company. The junk had been hauled out of the basement of the International company's building and had been stacked on the platform. Jackson, it is said, entered into negotiations for the purchase of the junk, but his offer was not accepted. Failing to secure the junk by purchase, Jackson, it is charged, went at night and hauled it away and disposed of it to J. Steip, the Broadway junk dealer.

His Cigar Doesn't Taste Right

And Yet It Is the Same He Was Smoking With So Much Belish. After Dinner, Last Night, Out of the Very Same Box, Too.

IT ISN'T THE BEGAR—IT'S THE STOMACH.

Every smoker has experienced this peculiar condition of the stomach and liver, the result usually of imperfect digestion of food. And the blame is usually put on the cigar and not where it belongs.

Such men are usually high livers, hard workers mentally, living under high pressure and high draft, and it doesn't take a great deal to disorder the stomach or render the liver torpid.

They should make it a practice to use some tried and reliable remedy like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, that will aid Nature and not force it and will take care of the sudden attacks of acute indigestion.

The use of these tablets is not to be confounded with the patent medicine habit. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a patent medicine, but are composed of the very elements which nature provides the healthy stomach to do the work of digesting protein, diastase, golden seal, etc. There is no secret in their preparation; they are absolutely pure and therefore all the world uses them.

No matter how disordered the stomach may be, it will right itself if given the chance. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest food where the stomach can't, give the abused stomach and intestine a rest, and offer renewed strength to the worn out glands and muscles.

Brain workers can rely on Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, no matter how tense the strain. All druggists carry them in the 50-cent packages, or if you prefer a free trial package can be had by sending your name and address today. F. A. Stuart Company, 11 Stuart Building, Marshall, Mich.

Try This for Your Cough. Mix half ounce of concentrated Oil of Pine with two ounces of glycerine and half pint of good whiskey; shake well and use in tablespoon doses every four hours. This is the formula prescribed by Dr. A. M. Wallace the renowned throat and lung specialist who established the camp for consumptives in the pine woods of Maine and whose remarkable cures attracted widespread attention among the medical fraternity. Dr. Wallace declares that it will heal the lungs and cure any cough that is curable and will break up an acute cold in twenty-four hours. The ingredients can be secured from any prescription druggist at a small cost and is easily mixed; the only care necessary is that it be thoroughly shaken. Be sure not to buy the ordinary bulk Oil of Pine; this will produce nausea on account of the impurity necessary and the impurities that it contains, consequently cannot be effective. The concentrated Oil of Pine is put up for medicinal use and contains no other oils or ingredients. It is also sold in small, round screw-top cases, which protect from heat and light. For this purpose it is taken raw; a few drops on sugar night and morning.
