FEW LAWS THAT ARE WANTED

Six Dollars a Day for Election Judges and Clerks in Omaha.

DEFINITE SALARY FOR THE SHERIFF

Proposition to Let Feeding of Prisoners by Contract or Have the Provisions Supplied on Requisition.

At the meeting of the county officials and the legislative delegation yesterday afternoon it was decided to ask for an amendment to the election law fixing the pay of clerks and judges of election in Douglas county at $6 for the election and in the city of Omaha to pro rate this equally among the city, school district and county when all three hold elections.

It was practically agreed to favor a law fixing a definite salary for the sheriff and permitting the county board either to let the feeding of prisoners at the county jail by contract or to furnish the provisions by requisition.

County Attorney Slabaugh was directed to draw up an amendment covering the change in the election law and a committee consisting of the county attorney, Commissioners Ure and Kennard, was appointed to confer with Sheriff McDonald and agree on the terms of the bill. Mr. Ure said the sheriff had told him he would be satisfied to have the salary fixed at $5,000 a year and allow the county to let the feeding by contract.

County Attorney Slabaugh read amendments already passed on by previous meetings and which he had drawn up in form to go to the legislature. They covered the following subjects:

Allowing the register of deeds in Douglas county to pay his deputies $1,500 a year and copyists $80 a month.

Providing for a coroner's physician in Douglas county to perform post mortem examinations and to receive $900 a year.

Making the fee for autopsies from $10 to $50.

Providing that commercial schools and schools run for private gain shall not be exempt from taxation.

Giving the state the same number of peremptory challenges in criminal cases as are allowed to the defendant.

Empowering the county attorney to call and swear witnesses and punish for contempt in refusing to appear and testify.

Allowing permanent roadways under the inheritance tax law to be made sixteen feet wide.

Fixing the marriage fee to be charged by the county judge at $3 and providing they shall be reported to the county.

HOUSEBREAKER NEATLY TAKEN

Surprised at Work by W. H. Crary and Marched Into the Arms of a Policeman.

Caught in the very act of attempting a housebreaking, John Turner, a negro, was surprised by W. H. Crary, 1622 Spencer street, and marched into the hands of the police at the point of a revolver, Thursday evening. The negro has been bound over for burglary awaiting trial in the city jail.

Crary was returning home shortly after 9 o'clock and went around to the rear of his house to enter by the back door. As he did so he came upon the negro at work at a window, and before the fellow could take alarm or was aware of his presence Crary had him covered with a revolver.

Turner readily obeyed his captor's order to go ahead, and Crary marched him to the Bishop pharmacy, 2816 Sherman avenue, where Patrolman L. A. Smith was encountered. The officer then took charge of the prisoner and sent him to jail. When questioned at the station Turner said he had been in Omaha but four days, having come here from Leavenworth, Kan. An Omaha pawn ticket dated December 24 was the only article of value found on his person and two pocketknives were his only weapons.

An examination of the window where the negro was found at work showed that he was working with a view to opening it during the night. A number of holes had been bored in it, but he evidently succeeded in throwing away the tool, as it could not be found. Crary is a real estate dealer and lives with his family at the number stated.

Friday morning Turner confessed to Chief of Detectives Savage that he had robbed a house at Hamburg, Ia., obtaining a gold watch and $20, and the watch was found in an Omaha pawn shop Friday morning by Detective Donahoe. He also confessed to having served three terms in the penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., aggregating nine years, for burglary.

A complain was filed in police court Friday morning by Mr. Crary, and after a preliminary examination Turner was bound over on the charge of burglary for trial in the district court under bond of $500.

The police are highly elated over the capture of Turner and were loud in their praise of Mr. Crary for his capture. It was a peculiar coincidence that Thursday night was the first night for several months that Mr. Crary had carried his revolver.

Samson is Here to Stay.

A jubilee and revival rolled into one was the annual meeting of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben held Thursday evening at the Burwood theater. Several hundred of the faithful subjects of King Samson gathered, filling the entire lower floor of the building. President Wattles presided and with him on the stage were members of the Board of Governors and others. Mr. Wattles sounded the note of revival in his annual address.

"A great religious revival was held recently in this city," he said, "and the keynote of the revival was, 'Get right with God.' If I might suggest such a motto to the assembled business men of Omaha, I would say, 'Square yourselves with your fellow citizens.' Subscriptions received from the business men for the celebration in 1907 aggregate to date $8,400. This is about enough to pay for one of the parades which we place on the street. But it is enough to cause the Board of Governors to decide that the Ak-Sar-Ben must continue, that we cannot afford to give up this institution which has built up the business of Omaha and made it the market place for the people of the state. Hitherto it has been necessary for the members of the Board of Governors to sign notes and become personally responsible for the great expense connected with this greatest of Omaha's institutions. This year the board will go just so far as the citizens and business men warrant their going."

After Mr. Wattles' address it was reported that a number of business houses had doubled their subscriptions and that all the banks of the city had taken this action.

Subscriptions Pour In.

"Are there other sinners ready to take such action?" asked Mr. Wattles, and all over the house men rose in rapid succession, doubling and trebling the subscriptions of themselves or their firms. The limited time made it necessary to cut this part of the meeting short, but the secretary will receive such increased subscriptions by mail at any time. The action of the meeting last night was an indication that the efforts of Mr. Wattles and the other members of the Board of Governors to awaken the people to the needs of the Ak-Sar-Ben have been most successful and that the parades for 1907 will be more magnificent than ever before in the history of King Samson's reign.

Secretary Penfold read his report, showing that $11.69 remains in the royal treasury after all bills are paid. He also made a short speech showing the prosperity that Omaha owes directly to the goodfellowship engendered by the meetings of the knights and to the advertising which the institution gives the city.

Three new members will be elected to the Board of Governors at the annual meeting of that body early in January. Nominations for these places were made Thursday night as given above.

The business meeting adjourned at 9 o'clock and the knights witnessed the play, "Madame Sans Gene," by the Burwood theater cast.

LINE ON BAD BOGUS MONEY

Captain Webb is Warning Merchants Against Skillful Counterfeit Certificates.

Captain John Webb of the government secret service department was showing a new raised $10 silver certificate to the banks and department stores Thursday and Friday, to put them on their guard against the bill, which is regarded as an extremely dangerous counterfeit. The bill is raised from a $2 silver certificate and is the work of an expert. It can be readily detected, however, from the fact that it has the Indian head frontispiece instead of the well known "buffalo note" front common to all genuine $10 certificates. On the counterfeit all of the figures and words "two" have been carefully erased and the figures "10" substituted both on the front and back of the note.

The filagree work about the "Indian head" as appearing on the original $2 note has been erased by chemicals and the space about the head is left blank, except that the bank number adopted in all national bank notes is printed in red ink to take up part of the space to the right of the head left blank by erasure. The counterfeit at first glance looks to be genuine and very little evidences of alteration are evident, so carefully has the work of altering the note been done.

YOUNG EAGLES LEARN TO FLY

Fifteen in the Last Brood of the Year Initiated Last Evening.

An initiation party was held by Omaha aerie No. 33, Fraternal Order of Eagles, Thursday night, wings being sprouted on the members of a class of fifteen deserving birds. Among the victims were County Treasurer R. O. Fink and Police Judge Crawford. After the close of the secret work a program of music and speaking, interspersed with refreshments, occupied the time. Visitors were present from the newborn aerie of Eagles at Florence, and they were called upon for the good word.

FARM LABORER IS KILLED

Wagon Overturns and Unfortunate Man Falls Under the Load.

Jacob Weber, aged 55 years, fell under a load of dirt and was killed late Monday afternoon on Adolph Kuehle's farm, about half a mile north of the Benson orphanage. Weber was employed by Kuehle, who is a gardener, and at the time of the accident was engaged in distributing fertilizer over a field from a wagon. The wagon went into a ditch and Weber was thrown out and under the wheels.

Weber was a brother of Mrs. Michael Liebemann of Beatrice, Neb. The body was taken in charge of by Coroner Bailey.

POLICEMAN IS SUSPENDED

Richard Collins, Who Looks Upon Wine When it is Red, Loses Star.

Patrolman Richard Collins was suspended from the police force Friday morning by order of Chief Donahue after receiving the report of Sergeant Sigwart, who found Collins at home in bed and asleep Thursday night when he should have been on his beat. It is also charged that the officer was intoxicated and he will be tried Monday evening before the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners if he does not resign from the force in the meantime.

Patrolman Collins failed to "turn in" to the police operator after 6 p. m. Thursday, which fact was made known to Captain Dunn. Sergeant Sigwart was sent to investigate and said in his report that he found Collins at home in bed and intoxicated.

The officer has anything but an enviable record while on the force, having been up on charges before the commissioners about six months ago on the charge of arresting two men because they refused to give him a drink from a can of beer. He was also badly worsted in a fight Christmas night near Fourteenth street and the Boulevard and has been generally traveling a thorny path.

DEMAND FOR LAND GROWS

Homeseekers Continue to Come West in Search of Farm Property to Buy.

The demand for land in the west continues unabated. The most available land today is that which is being relinquished by the cattlemen in the northwest because the government has ordered down their fences. Intensive farming also is making room for an increased number of agriculturists in the grain belt and the demand for this land also is on the increase. D. Clem Deaver of the Burlington took out a large party of seekers for homes last week, and these are, as a rule, well supplied with money and able to buy in on some good farm land. Other roads also have had the most prosperous year of their existence in taking homeseekers west. But railroad men are fearing that the action of the new pass legislation may have a deleterious effect on this work of colonization.

If You Care at all for Beauty—

if you want your skin soft, clear and velvety—if you want it to look as fresh as a baby's and feel as fresh as it looks—let me prove to you, free, what Kosmeo will do.

Simply ask your dealer for a free sample box, but ask him at once if you please—before you forget.

Don't miss the opportunity I am offering you. Let me give you absolutely free this sample of my Kosmeo and my Kosmeo booklet. I want to impress on you that Kosmeo is different from any preparation you have ever used.

Kosmeo Requires no Massage

Put on your face, neck, shoulders and hands some of the Kosmeo that I give you—let it stay a few moments—wipe it off—that's all.

Kosmeo needs no exhausting massage. It contains no mineral oils or animal fats to make the hair grow on the face. It does not fill or enlarge the pores. Kosmeo is unlike any other preparation that is made.

Kosmeo Feeds the Skin Tissue and makes the skin firm, plump, soft and velvety. Its use is not a task, but a delight. Its reward is not a distant promise, but is felt at once.

You feel the circulation pushing gently into the tiny diseased blood vessels that make "complexion"—you feel the pores cast out the oil and dirt.

A Clear, Delicious Freshness comes to the skin that was hard and dry, freckled, sallow and chapped. If you apply Kosmeo before going out of doors the sun will not tan your skin—burn or blister it, or bring out freckles; Kosmeo makes the skin sun- and wind-proof.

Kosmeo is sold by all high-grade druggists (in only one size of jar) 50c.

If your druggist does not sell Kosmeo, send me his name and 50 cts., and I will send you a jar of Kosmeo, and the Kosmeo book which tells how to use it, postpaid. Be sure to send your druggist's name.

Gervalse Graham, 1301 Michigan Ave., Chicago.
