Company Are Filed at Lander.

That the Burlington intends to build in he spring in Wyoming, as outlined in The Hee last week, is demonstrated by the filing of the maps and plats designating the right-of-way for the Big Horn Railroad company, as the Burlington's southern extension from Worland to Denver is known

These have been filed in the land office at Lander together with an official statement of the company as to the projected railroads in the state. This shows not only a north and south line, but a western ex-ninal at Worland to Thermopolis, following up the Big Horn river, from which point it enters the reservation on unsurveyed land, runs southward through section 5, of township 4 north, range 96 west, leaving the reservation at lot 3, of section 19, about ne mile north of the mouth of Muskrat until just before it leaves the reservation and crosses the line of the Northwestern railroad near the station of Wahaba, some six or seven miles from Shoshoni and about Over South Pass to Salt Lake.

From the point where it crosses the Northwestern line it runs in a southwesterly direction to the Sweetwater river, near Graham's ranch, east of Myersville, where it intersects the Burlington line running westward from Guernsey up the Sweetwater and over South Pass to Salt

The announcement of the Burlington's route west from Guernsey comes as a surprise, as it was believed the company would go direct from Casper on the Platte river to Thermopolis. Instead the line follows up the Platte to the mouth of the Sweetwater and then up the valley of the Sweetwater, over South Pass, down across the Red desert in Sweetwater county and will probably cross the Union Pacific somewhere ear Evanston in Uinta county. The route chosen will give the Burlington a water grade all the way from eastern Nebraska o western Wyoming and it is expected to form for Hill one of the finest transcon tinental lines in the Rocky mountain region Contract for Athol Hill Spur. The contract for the Athol Hill cut-off will be let by the Union Pacific Saturday and active construction work will be begun before January 15, according to present plans of Union Pacific officials who are exceedingly anxious to get the work completed. Some of the contractors have been in Cheyenne and went over the ground in spite of the four inches of snow which covered the land. Among these was D. D.

Streeter of Kalamazoo, Mich., who was one of the contractors on the Union Pacific

It was Streeter who established the cele brated Pilgrim stage line between Cheyenne and Deadwood in the Black Hills, which existed in 1875 and 1876. At that time the Union Pacific brought trainloads of people to Cheyenne from the east to outfit here for the Black Hills, where the great mining excitement existed. The stage service was entirely inadequate to handle the thousands

Black Hills would be induced to deposit their baggage therein, each passenger being entitled to thirty pounds. They would ask what stage they could take, but would be put off in an evasive manner until the wagon was loaded, when they would be told to climb on. After hesitating a few minutes the tenderfeet usually piled on

The Great Sale Grows

THE DAYLIGHT STORE" claims a victory—the trade triumph in the history of Omaha. The crowds increase. Volume of business grows apace and interest is at fever heat. There is a reason for the splendid success attending this mighty sale, namely: The public's confidence in the principles and policies pursued by this firm, and the most modern, monumental methods of merchandising applied to the most seasonable and dependable merchandise produced by the best looms of both continents. The people have gleaned a new idea of such expressions as "enormous cuts," "stupendous reductions" and "matchless offerings" by attending this great sale, which absolutely embodies them all. It is a sale that is a sale.—a real, genuine bargain sale that has shaken Omaha from center to circumberence, presenting good goods by the yard and ready-made garments at prices without a parallel in Omaha.

A vast array of bargains has been arranged for Saturday's selling. Price quotations will be lower than has yet been quoted this season. Follow the crowds to this great sale

MRS. BAER DENIES REPORT

A question has been brought up as to the legality of the amendment to the constitution which provided for a new railroad commission, and several points have been made-one that the notice was not legally published in the pewspapers and another that a straight party vote cannot be counted as a vote for the amendment. When Robert Cowell, who was elected from this county as one of the commiswife of John Willis Baer, president of the sioners, was asked as to his position he Occidental college, Los Angeles, whom dissald he had no knowledge of his election patches from Boston said was re-elected except by what he saw in the newspapers.
