NEW WARD MOVE CHECKED

Conncilman Younkerman Has Ordinance Referred to Committee of the Whole.

Special Committee Wants More Time to Consider Document Before Presenting it to Council With Recommendations.

But for Councilman Younkerman voicing protest, Councilman Smith probably ould have succeeded in rushing through the ordinance providing for the creation of seventh ward at the meeting of the city ouncil last night. The ordinance had assed to its second reading under a susension of rules when Mr. Smith moved its passage. This brought Councilman Younkerman to his feet with the declaration that the whole thing was a bunco scheme and that there was no more need for an other ward than a horse had for a second tail. He wanted Mr. Smith to explain where the need for another ward existed, out the councilman from the Fifth ward eclined to commit himself. "I have no uestions to answer," was the only reply councilman Younkerman could get from his olleague from the Fifth bailiwick. Failing o get an explanation, Younkerman clinched natters for the time being by having the rdinance referred to the committee of the Councilman Wallace, chairman of the pecial committee on water works, did not ubmit Expert Kiersted's report and did ot vouchsafe any further information conerning it, although Councilman Fleming nade inquiries concerning it. Mr. Fleming suggested that he, for one, would like o know something about the report, as he guessed many of the people of the city vould. Councilman Wallace said that the report had only been received Saturday and that his committee had had time only to go over it once, as it comprised lib pages, but he had arranged for a meeting Wednesday night between the committee, the mayor, city attorney, special counsel engaged by the city and Mr. Kiersted. At this meeting Mr. Wallace said some line of action probably would be determined on and the committee would be ready to make some recommendation at the next meeting of the city council. Until then the other report had only been received Saturday of the city council. Until then the other members of the city council, the taxpayers and other interested persons would have to exercise a little patience. The report is safe under lock and key in a vault, the whereabouts of which is known only to Councilman Wallace and the other three nembers of the special committee. It did develop, however, during the meeting that Mr. Kiersted had recommended the purchase by the city of a fire steamer. although he is said to have stated that the steamer would not be of much service until the mains in the business section of the who was elected last November, donned the semine in his place.

The resolution contained a lengthy preamble about the crowded condition of the cars and inadequate service between Councli Bluffs and Omaha during these hours. A. Metzger & Co. petitioned that the taxes on their new bakery plant be remitted for five years, under the ordinance permitting the remission of taxes for this length of time to induce the establishment of new industries in the city. The request was referred to the judiciary committee. The special committee consisting of Councilmen Maloney, Smith and Olson, which had charge of the work on Indian creek, submitted its report, showing that $19,500 had been subscribed by the different railroads and that $19.530.85 had been expended. As the city had appropriated $3,000 for the work and $2,500 had been realized by filling lots with dirt taken from the creek, the report shows that there will be close upon $5,500 with which to continue the work this year. After the report had been read a vote of thanks was tendered the committee, especially Mr. Maloney, who had been mainly instrumental in securing the subscriptions from the railroads. Councilman Maloney made a neat little speech in reply. The contributions from the railroads were as follows: Northwestern, $5,000; Rock Island, $3,000; fiffinals Central, $3,000; Union Pacific, $2,000; Milwaukee, $3,000; Great Western, $1,000; Wabash, $1,000; Burlington, $1,000;

There was a large delegation present from the southern part of the city prepared to reinforce Councilman Smith's demand for the creation of a seventh ward, but all chances of oratory were summarily cut off by Councilman Younkerman's move which sent the ordinance to the committee of the MONEY COMES IN FOR CHARITY Association Better Off Than it Was a Year Ago.

The following officers were elected at the annual meeting yesterday of the Associated charities: President, Mrs. Jacob Sims; vice president, Mrs. George Allingham; recording secretary, Mrs. Frank True; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mark Williams; treasurer, Mrs. Vogeler; auditor, Mrs. J. P. Greenshields; assistant auditor. Mrs. G. Phelps. The election of a board of trustees was postponed to the regular meeting in February.

The report of Mrs. H. A. Quinn, the retiring treasurer, showed that the association had fared well from a financial standpoint during the last year. On January I, 1906, the cash on hand amounted to only over $400. On January 1, this year, there was $99.69 in the treasury with only the December bills, amounting to about $300, outstanding. County Officials Stricken. SIDNEY, la., Jan. 7 .- (Special.) -- Strange adverse of fate seems to pursue the county officials and people of the court house. Last March A. T. Chambers, clerk of the courts, was stricken with a malignant malady, from which he died October 1, two days after his renomination by the republican county convention. Sheriff Charles T. Kent was brought home sick from Mr. Chambers' funeral, and his illness terminated fatally after a three months' heroic battle for life. Mr. Kent died Sunday, the last day of his term of office. Had he lived he would have been sworn in for a second term on the following day. On December 14 the only son of the court house janitor, Lee Spittler, aged 19 years, a recent graduate of the high school, died of typhoid fever. Last February George W. Moore, county recorder, was brought to death's door by severe hemorrhages of the lungs, but he recovered and is now able to work in his office. These officials were all young men, Mr. Chambers being 35, Mr. Kent about the same age and Mr. Moore ten years young or.
