League Draft Up in the Air.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.-The National Association of Base Ball Clubs adjourned today without taking any action on the draft by the Western league of the city of Topeka from the Western association. This leaves the question of an eight-club circuit for the Western league up in the air unless a special meeting of the association can be called or another plan devised for placing some other city in the Brady Western league.

Western league. The cities of Wilmington and Trenton, claimed by the new Atlantic league, were chaimed by the new Atlantic league, were awarded to the Tri-State league and tonight the representatives of the six remaining clubs in the Atlantic league met and agreed to form an independent league. When the board of arbitration met today it voted to admit the Tri-State league to territorial rights in Wilmington, Del., and Trenton, N. J., thereby quashing the application of the newly organized Atlantic league. Inasmuch as the application of the Newly organized Atlantic league for membership inthe Atlantic league for membership in- 1:035 cludes these cities, the board decided that it would not consider the application until Grace St. Clair second, Sainrida third. Time: 1:16%. it had been changed, eliminating Wilmington and Trenton from the Atlantic league.

Secretary J. H. Farrell stated that the grounds under which the Tri-State application for the territorial rights was granted were that the Tri-State, though recently admitted, had a prior claim upon the field, on account of its older organization. A league standing adjacent to any territory may be consulted before that adjacent territory is allotted to another league.

Beside settling the Atlantic-Tri-State affects in the ground panel of the bill, the stated that the paragraph would be new legislation and a point of order would therefore lie against it. With a view to regulating salaries and limit for each club of the several league below Class A, the classification governs by population requirements, and to be fixe by the respective leagues. A statement be fixed wi the secretary of the board of arbitratio immediately after the opening of the championship season in each of the league affected and it shall be the duty of th national board to enforce it.

Enforcing Salary Limit Rule. Upon complaint of any league club the certain leagues or clubs are violating th prescribed limit it shall be the duty of th board of arbitration to call a meeting the league of which the offender is a men ber and the books be opened for the in spection of the secretary of the board Ten days in which to readjust players' salaries so as to comply with the rule. Patture to comply shall be subject to a fine of $25 to the offending club for every day until such readjustment, the fines to go to the treasury of the association.

This amendment wipes out the present section 13. It was deemed best to authorize each league to establish its own salary limit, inasmuch as conditions differ in various parts of the country.

Post-Season Games.

The association took a stand the same as that of the major leagues with reference to post season games, and amends its constitution to the extent that no club shall be permitted to participate in such games, except under the rules and regula-
