> Demand Relief from Overflow. FREMONT, Neb., Jan, 11,-(Special.)-There was a good representation of residents of the south side at a meeting called by Mayor Wolz, at the city hall last night, the Platte river west of town. There was a considerable display of oratory and very emphatic demand by property owners whose houses are full of water and their lots covered with ice. A committee was appointed to confer with the county board, which is now in session, and try to obtain an appropriation for putting in a levee or some piling. Those familiar with the peculiarities of the Platte say that there the last three years and that the main current, which once followed between Murphy and Hawthorne islands, now comes against the north bank, directly west of South street. The Burlington grade from the brewery south has made the situation much worse by damming up the water, which would otherwise flow southeast and cover a large acreage. The board has been directed by the city council to put in additional culverts.

Seward County Finances. SEWARD, Neb., Jan. 11 .- (Special.)-The new Board of County Supervisors met Tuesday afternoon and organized by electing John Grots of Germantown chairman. These are so numerous in some quarters that most any one not in a hurry can afford The fact that the members of the senate thought the Wilsey resolution to jail lobbyists who came within the jurisdiction of the upper house and to investigate visitors was too radical, has encouraged some of the lobbyists and they pretend to believe the good start made by the legislature will terminate as they have in the legislatures of the past. This is supposed to account for the action of the Northwestern today and the contemplated action of the other

WILLIAMS ACQUITTED OF MURDER

Jury Holds Killing of Father Was Justifiable. AUBURN, Neb., Jan. 11 .- (Special.)-The jury in the case of the State against Clarence Williams for the killing of his father Isaac Williams, which has been deliberating since Tuesday evening, reached a verdict of not gullty today at 1 o'clock. This case was one of the hardest fought that has been tried in this county for many years. The killing rose out of a family quarrel, which was commenced in the house at noon and continued to the barn yard, where one of the boys asked his father for money to attend school at Peru, and his father refused. This seemed to throw the father into a fit of passion and he grabbed a pitchfork and started for the boy, saying, "I'll money you." The older brother, standing near, seeing that his younger brother was in danger of being killed by the enraged father, ran to a shed ing back to where the quarrel was going on and shot his father in the back as he on the mother's side, of the late Dr. McCabe, president of Delaware college, and a cousin of the late Bishop McCabe, whose recent death is now running through the daily papers. His only sister, the wife of Dr. C. F. Gillian, a physician of note of Columbus, O., died on New Year's eve, one week to the day from his own death.
