LOCAL MEN INVEST IN CUBA

Gardner Haines and Others Going Into the Business of Truck Gardening.

Gardner Haines and other Omaha men are buying up a large tract of Cuban land 100,000 acres. It is said, which they propose to devote to truck gardening. Luther Drake, president of the Merchants National bank, who with Dr. W. O. Bridges, left for Cuba Wednesday, is said to be in the deal, as also is H. K. Burkett. This is not confirmed however. The late Herman Kountze, it is understood, was to have taken an interest in it.

The plan reported is to raise four or five crops of vegetables a year and haul them off to market in New York by the most rapid transportation possible. It is determined to establish one of the most extensive truck gardening enterprises in the world.

Mr. Haines is in Cuba and has been there for some time, engaged in formulating the plans of his project. Mr. Drake and Dr. Bridges went Wednesday. Mr. Burkett, accompanied by Mrs. Burkett and Mr. and Mrs. John L. Webster, left last night. All will go over from New Orleans on the new Illinois Central vessel, Momus.

The Webster and Burkett party will sail next Saturday for Havana, where Mr. and Mrs. Webster expect to remain for about three weeks, but Mr. and Mrs. Burkett will be in Havana only a few days, after which they will sail to Bahia Honda, Cuba. Mr. Burkett is interested in a citrus fruit plantation of 2,000 acres at Bahia Honda, which is under the management of W. P. Page, a former resident of Omaha. Mr. Burkett will remain upon the plantation for about three weeks and will then return by slow stages to Omaha.

Seasonable Suggestions

Canned fruits and vegetables for those who want the true flavor of freshly gathered fruits and vegetables. Now that winter is here, it is impossible to get these right out of the garden and orchard, so we offer the "Ferdell" brand of these goods as the finest in the world. They are picked in orchards where grown and have that full, fresh flavor, gathered with the dew on them. There are none better. The line comprises everything in fruits and vegetables.

GROCERY TALK NO 2

OUR ENORMOUS BUSINESS—modestly alluded to in Talk No. 1—sprang from the humblest beginnings. Old settlers will readily remember that in the Fall of '78, the late Samuel F. Bennett, founder of this house, opened a little 2x4 grocery at 15th street, between Capitol avenue and Dodge street. He didn't have a wagon, nor had he even a wheelbarrow.

He visited the jobbers every morning, bought sugar, flour and other things sufficient for the day's business. Old settlers will also recall that he had a habit of wheeling goods on a truck from the store to the sidewalk and from the sidewalk to the store and back again, just "to stir things up a bit."

Indeed, he always kept things moving; he was ever on the move himself; he never permitted a fly speck if he could get it moved; he believed in order and cleanliness; his heart was in his business. He was determined to make the name Bennett a something to conjure with in western merchandising. He built wiser than he knew. Today we sell a ton of sugar, a car of flour, for every pound of sugar, for every dinky little sack of flour he sold. Yet, we are every whit as careful with the buying, with the weighing, with the wrapping and with the delivery of the same as he was.

Better buy your groceries at Bennett's. It was Bennett who made Omaha grocerydom!
