PUEBLO, Colo., Jan. 17.-Disclosures of ablic land frauds are expected in an inrestigation opened here today by Assistant Inited States Attorney M. S. Burch. Several months have been spent in collecting evidence of false entry to coal lands and illegal cutting of timber, and the investigators have half a dozen trunks filled with data, by which they expect to show that title to several thousand acres of coal and timber land in southern Colorado is imperfect.

It is announced that the investigation will not be completed for two months. Many witnesses have been summoned. When their testimony is finished a report will be made to the attorney general at Washington.
