the channel from the mouth of the Missourl to Kansas City, while only $100,000 is set aside in the river and harbors appropriation bill, which will probably be reported tomorrow, for similar purposes from Kansas City to Sloux City. Today Congressman Kennedy had a heart-to-heart talk with Chairman Burton, and sought by argument and even percuasion to have the amount raised from $100,000 to $150,000, at least, for use on the Missouri river from Kansas City north. The committee, and that means Chairman Burton, said in reply that there was some shipping on the Mis-
