To be rightly corseted every woman should have her figure corsetically treated by a corect fitter. Then she may know that every fine of her figure has been easily met by the corset. There is an exact spot on the form at which each pivot of the clasp should touch, also at which the lines begin to curve, resulting in perfect and comfortable fitting.

Redfern Corset models contain all the necessary features for developing a figure. In attendance are our corset fitters, carefully trained, who will see that you are properly corseted in the new fashion. Second Floor.

Important Announcement Word From Abroad

We were advised last week of the arrival of our millinery buyer, Miss Alice Fenner, in Paris, who is now devoting her time to selecting models for our Spring Opening. Individuality means much to the success of a millinery department and only by sending our buyer abroad are these individual styles obtained. When Thompson, Belden & Co. announce that one of their buyers has gone abroad, it means they have gone abroad.

OHIO RIVER STILL RISING

Fearthat the Great Flood Fecord of 1884 Will Be Fquilled.

FORTY THOUSAND PERSONS ARE IDLE

Fifteen Thousand Driven from Homes and Many Are Depending Upon Charlty-Portsmouth Embankment Brenks.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 19.-With the crest of the flood not yet in sight and a prospect of near approach to the loss of February 1884, attempts were today made to estimate the losses from the present flood in this city. The commission houses, which are principally located in the lowlands, have already suffered damage estimated at $100,000. Many thousands will be lost by factories through enforced idleness and unproductiveness, and more than 40,000 persons will lose wages. Not less than 15,000 persons have been driven from their homes, most of them being forced to depend on charity for their food and lodging. Reports from river cities, both above and below Cincinnati, continue to come in with pleas for help and food. From some of the nearer flooded towns refugees came to this city and are lodged wherever quarters can be found. Portsmouth saw the breaking of the flood embankments and the people fied in terror to the highands. The high water from the Scioto is being added to the flood in the Ohio at that point, that and the flood from the other tributaries holding back the regular high water from higher up the river, so that the second rise seems sure to overtake the main flood and increase its damage.

At 8 o'clock this morning the stage at this point was sixty-two feet, the water having passed the highest records since that of February, 1884, during the night. For a distance of four squares from the normal water front the lower portions of the city are flooded. The bridges are cut off from the land except for parrow foot passages, leaving the railroad bridges the only means of communication for foot passengers between the Kentucky side and this city. This affects seriously several thousand people who work in Cincinnati and whose homes are in Newport, Covington and other Kentucky suburbs.

The town of California, just above the city, is reported completely under water. In Newport it is estimated that fully 5,000 people are homeless and almost destitute. There are nearly 100 blocks under water.

All schools have been closed and are being used to house the homeless. Free soup houses were opened there today.

It is extimated that at least 15,000 people are homeless today on account of the floodhave been driven from their homes in Cinclimati, nearly 5,000 residents of Newport have been compelled to vacate their homes and all the other cities within ten miles of this city report thousands more suffering. A special meeting of the city council to day voted bonds to the amount of $10,000 for the relief of flood sufferers, and the mayor was authorized also to draw $13,000 additional for relief. Louisville Dike Wenkening

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 19.-The flood situation shows no signs of improvement today, the most serious development being the discovery that the dike which protects the upper east end of the city is weakening slightly. Repairs are being made and men are patroling the banks. Ne fear of a break is expected. The crest of the flood is not expected before Monday.

District Porecast Official Walse says: The Ohio has continued rising during the last-twenty-four hours throughout its length, but is falling in upper tributaries. The rate of rise has also decreased. The river will rise steadily at Madison, Ind., and Louisville for the next several days and will reach a stage of thirty-eight feet at Louisville and fifty-four feet at Madison Sunday, with a still further rise Monday.

Portsmouth Embankment Breaks. PORTSMOUTH, O., Jan. 19.-Back water from the Ohio caused the Sciota river to cut through the flood embankment at the north end today. Threatened families had received warning of the impending danger and fied in advance, although the removing of the sick was accomplished under shortly afterward followed by the water rushing over the west end dam, and the Ohio also invaded the same quarter from the south. The whole downtown district is rapidly filling up and hundreds of houses and stores are under water. The river has passed the fifty-nine-foot mark and is still rising an inch an hour.

Shawnee Levee Holds. ST. LOUIS, Jan. 19 .- Long distance telephone communication with Shawncetown, Iit., regarding flood conditions there today brought the information that the Ohio river continues to rise, but the levee i

The worst o fthe tornado destruction occurred in Heath Creek township, twentyfive miles from Sedalia, and remote from telegraph communication. The big barn of John Birkley was torn to pieces and sixty head of fine horses and cattle killed or so badly crippled that they had to be slaughtered.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 18.-The weather in the southwest turned clear and cold tonight, averting the threatened floods. Another day of rain would have caused enormous destruction.

A downpour of ram during the night washed away much of the snow and ce that had covered the southwest for the last forty-eight hours. As a result wire and train service in all directions from Kansas City was improved today, though still more or less interrupted. Over two inches of rain fell in the western half of Missouri and in the eastern half of Kansas.

According to the local weather bureau he rainstorm extended from southeastern lows to the Texas line. At Davenport. Ia., a rainfall of one Inch was reported; at Kansas City and vicinity 2.06 luches; at Wichita, Kan., 1.64 Inches, and at Oklahoma City, 32 of an inch. The weather
