

MAJOR FURAY LAID AT REST

Pioneer of Omaha Buried with Ceremony of Catholic Ritual.

CORTEGE FROM CHURCH TO GRAVE LONG

Funeral Services of Mrs. Catherine Farrell, Venerable Pioneer, and Edward Arnold Bernhard Are Also Held.

Saturday was a day of funerals. After imposing obsequies at St. John's Catholic church at 9:30 a. m., Major John B. Furay, one of Omaha's pioneer citizens who died Wednesday evening from two sudden strokes of paralysis, was laid at rest at the Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

The auditorium of the church edifice was crowded to the doors with friends and acquaintances of Major Furay anxious to pay their last respects. Relatives assembled early Saturday morning at the residence, 2227 Seward street, where brief services of a private nature were held and the body was then taken to St. John's church, followed by the widow, children and other relatives. High mass and the most solemn requiem ritual of the Catholic church were celebrated by a number of clergy, the ceremonies being made even more impressive by the special part taken by members of the Jesuit order, of which one of the sons of Major Furay, Rev. John B. Furay of Florissant, Mo., is a member. The services by the Jesuit fathers was held as a mark of respect to the father of one of their brothers and were most elaborate in character.

Cortege Is Long One.

At the conclusion of the services at the church the body was taken to the cemetery, followed by an extended cortege, where the impressive ritual of the church was pronounced.

Major Furay was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Loyal Legion and many members of both organizations were present at the ceremonies at the church and also at the cemetery.

The pallbearers, in addition to honorary, were chosen from among Major Furay's associates of the Loyal Legion and the Grand Army of the Republic or private friends. The active pallbearers were: T. J. Fitzmorris, Frank J. McArdie, J. L. Woodard, D. M. Vinsonhauser, B. J. Sennell, T. E. Parmelee, G. J. Sennell, H. H. Hussey; honorary: Captain H. K. Palmer, Captain Thomas Swobe, George E. Pritchett, Judge Leo S. Estelle, Joseph Doherty, Joseph T. Beatty, Andrew M. Murphy and William M. Bushman.

Major Furay is survived by a wife and eight children, many of whom live in other cities, but were present at the funeral. The children who came from out of the city were: Dr. Edward S. Furay of Rochester, Wyo.; Rev. John B. Furay of Florissant, Mo.; James H. Furay of Cleveland, O., who is on the editorial staff of the Cleveland Press, and Mrs. Lee L. Cleary of St. Louis.

Funeral of Mrs. Farrell.

The funeral services of Mrs. Catherine Farrell, who died Thursday night at her home, 1858 Paul street, was held at 9 a. m. Saturday at the Church of the Holy Family, where high mass was celebrated. The body was taken to the Holy Sepulcher for interment and was followed by an extensive cortege. Mrs. Farrell and her husband, who died about six years ago, were pioneer citizens of Omaha, having come here over forty years ago. For many years Mr. Farrell was employed at the Union Pacific shops. The couple were childless and Mrs. Farrell was survived by two cousins, who reside in Omaha. After the death of her husband, Mrs. Farrell lived alone at the family residence on Paul street and had a large circle of friends.

Edward Arnold Bernhard.

Funeral services over the body of Edward Arnold Bernhard, who died suddenly last Wednesday evening in a room at the Ivy lodging house, 1317 Douglas street, after having suffered an acute attack of pneumonia, were held at 2 p. m. Saturday at the residence of a brother, Julius P. Bernhard, 1817 South Sixth street. Rev. John E. Hummon, pastor of the Kountze Memorial Lutheran church, had charge of the services and delivered a brief address at the residence. The body was taken to Forest Lawn cemetery for interment. Mr. Bernhard had resided in Omaha for a number of years and had been employed as a driver by Healey & Healey and the Palace stables. He was 38 years of age and unmarried.

Big Interest on Savings.

No other investment is so safe or so profitable as land. In this day of wildcat speculation it stands alone as the only sure means of saving surplus money. In good time and in bad it yields a steady increase, and each decade shows a great gain in value. Within the last seven years land values in Nebraska have doubled, which means nearly 15 per cent each year on the original investment, in addition to a good dividend from the crops. This land will never go lower, but will advance steadily. Now is the time to get in. Look over the bargains offered in the want ad. pages of The Bee.

DIVORCED FROM PROFIT

Getting further away from the old price that they were wedded to. And every one of our $55.00, $50.00, $45.00, $40.00 and $35.00 Fall or Winter Suits is going to drop away from the old prices until there is not a single one of these Suits or Overcoats to be dropped from our stock. This don't make profit for us, but it does make work for our huge tailoring staff and thus enables us to keep our carefully selected staff intact. And our desire to sell all our Fall and Winter Suits so that we won't have to carry over a single Suiting is our reason for continuing to cut the price. You can come here and have made to measure any—

Buyer's Sale in Piano Dept.

A genuine surprise for you in my Piano section this week—prices that will make all other piano quotations in Omaha look like extravagance. Pianos of quality—their names have been household words for decades—Chickering & Sons, Everett, Ivers & Pond, Starr, Packard, Vose & Sons, Sterling, Kohler & Campbell, Bach, Huntington, Richmond.

You'll not find their equal in other stores of Omaha or elsewhere. They are the world's best, and I offer them this week at prices lower than is asked at other stores for inferior and unknown makes. This sale will include several of those specially selected Christmas gift pianos of rare fine figured San Domingo mahogany and rich French burl walnut, left over from our holiday sale.

These will all go at prices we refrain from publishing. Come and ask about them.

TERMS—No cash payment down—small monthly payments of $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, $7.00, $8.00 or $10.00. You'll miss something if you let this chance get away from you.
