Tangle Over Printing The feature of today's session of the sen ate was the fight over the contract for printing the daily journal. The senate au thorized the printing committee to ente into a contract with A. L. Stonecyphe of Omaha to print the daily journal and 2,000 copies of the bound journal at a price ranging from $2 to $2.15 a page, depending on the number of pages. Chairman Wilson reported that the cor mittee had discovered it had no right undethe law to let the contract for the printing of the bound volumes, as that could be done only by the State Printing Board. The re port continued that Mr. Stonecypher agreed to enter into a contract for the printing or the daily journal for $1,250 for the session and further agreed to furnish a bond of $5,000 that he would bid when the proper time came to furnish the bound volumes at such a price as to make the total not more than the price originally agreed upon. King of Polk opposed the report and moved to lay it on the table. This was lost by a vote of 8 to 13. Burns, Randall. Gibson, Wilson and Thomas spoke in favoof the motion and McKesson and King led the fight against it. McKesson finally moved as a substitute that two stenographere be employed at a salary of $3 a day each to prepare mimeograph copies of the Thomas called attention to the Senator Aldrich's bill providing for commission to propose amendments to the constitution will be recommended for in definite postponement Monday. Senator King, chairman of the judiciary committee, asked permission today to make the report rich was not present. He was given unanimous consent to wait until the return of Senator Aldrich before making the report. There is an indication there will be a fight on the floor of the senate when the report is made. Senator King of Polk county has introduced a bill which he thinks will get around all of the legal obstacles which have prevented the enforcement of the soentied free high school laws. Several of these measures have been passed before, but legal flaws have been found in them which prevented their enforcement. Senator King's bill was drawn by the superintendent of public instruction on the lines suggested by Senator King. It provides that every pupil who has finished the eightis grade in his own district shall be entitled go on with the high school grades at the expense of his district. In case instruction in all four of the high school grades is not provided by his own district, he may take the work in the high school of some other district and his own district shall levy a special tax to pay his tuition. The bill fixes the tuition which may be charged nonresidents at 75 cents a week. In case high school cannot accommodate applicants without renting more room or granted jointly liable with the saloon licenses are granted jointly liable with the saloon keeper and his bondsmen for damages from the County to Vote on Commissioners. Senator Thomas introduced a bill today making a change in the method of nomleating county commissioners in Douglas It provides they shalf be nombrated at large instead of by the different commissioner districts, but there shall be one commissioner from each district.

By request Senator Aldrich has introduced a joint resolution memorializing congress to submit to the several states for their ratification the following amendments to the United States constitution:

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied, or abridged by the United States or any state on account of sex. The resolution has the backing of the women suffragists of the state and it is said it will be the only measure before the legislature relating to woman suffrage. The judiciary committee of the senate decided today to take up for consideration at a special meeting Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Lindell hotel, Senator King's bill relating to the descent of property or descendants. It has been endorsed by a number of women's organizations who contend it is more goultable to the surviving wife than the present law. A number of Omaha people have asked permission to year from the date of the injury. Members of the committee explained that they thought the bill providing for the bureau of inspection of county, city and village officers was unconstitutional, because it crested a state office not provided for in the constitution. The bill has passed the house, and it was agreed to consider in again when the bill came over from there. At the afternoon session the following oills were placed on the general file in accordance with reports of the committee on municipal affairs:
