CHAIRMAN SHONTS IN CHICAGO

No Need to Fear Yellow Fever on Isthmus in His Opinion.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Theodore P. Shonta, whose resignation as chairman of the Isthmian Canal commission was announced Wednesday last, arrived yesterday from Kansas City and spent the night with relatives at Beverly Hills.

From a sanitary standpoint Panama is just as good as any place in the United States that I can think of, said Mr. Shonta.

Mr. Shonta delivered an address before the Chicago Chamber of Commerce tonight.

It has been suggested to me by one of your members who is a valued friend of mine that I cannot do better in speaking to you this evening about the Panama canal than to tell you:

Second—The amount of work done by the Americans since the French abandoned the task, and Third—What the actual conditions on the Isthmus are today.

With your permission I will follow this outline in my earlier remarks.
