

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Wheat Stronger, Though Best Prices Are Not Maintained. Sellers Are Professional Traders.

Corn Mainly Strong Underdone—East Follows Advance in Oats and Is Now Paying Highest Price of Season.

Wheat was stronger, and though the best prices were not maintained, the close was above yesterday's. The market was helped by the strength in Liverpool, growing out of the prospects of France becoming a heavy importer.

Corn was strong early, but eased off later, closing unchanged for 12 months and higher for the July. Reports of some unusual unfavorable weather in Argentina were larger, and estimates for tomorrow were fair.

Oats scored an advance. The cash article followed the advance and is now paying the highest price of the season.

Wheat receipts were 207,000 bushels and shipments 177,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 470,000 bushels and shipments 470,000 bushels.

Local range of quotations: Wheat, Corn, Oats, etc. Prices current today: The growing winter wheat has been unimpaired by the recent cold weather.

Local range of quotations: Wheat, Corn, Oats, etc. Prices current today: The growing winter wheat has been unimpaired by the recent cold weather.

Local range of quotations: Wheat, Corn, Oats, etc. Prices current today: The growing winter wheat has been unimpaired by the recent cold weather.

Local range of quotations: Wheat, Corn, Oats, etc. Prices current today: The growing winter wheat has been unimpaired by the recent cold weather.

Local range of quotations: Wheat, Corn, Oats, etc. Prices current today: The growing winter wheat has been unimpaired by the recent cold weather.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Early Prices Are Lower on Further Outpouring of Stocks. Market Receives Prompt Support.

Bears Are Impressed with Character of Buying and Reduce Their Commitments—Daily Eases and Close Is Strong.

New York, Jan. 31.—There was a further outpouring of stocks into the market in the early operations today, during which a few of the industrial stocks were driven lower than their previous levels.

The buying and selling of the market was characterized by a more active and less speculative character than in the previous days.

The market received prompt support from the buying of the public and the financial institutions, which helped to stabilize the prices.

The closing prices of the leading stocks were: American Express, 100; General Electric, 100; Western Union, 100.

The closing prices of the leading bonds were: U.S. 4% coupon, 100; U.S. 5% coupon, 100; U.S. 6% coupon, 100.

The closing prices of the leading commodities were: Wheat, 1.00; Corn, .75; Oats, .50; Sugar, 1.00.

The closing prices of the leading metals were: Gold, 100; Silver, 100; Copper, 100; Iron, 100.

The closing prices of the leading foreign exchange rates were: London, 100; Paris, 100; Berlin, 100; Rome, 100.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK MARKET

Good Cattle Strong, Others Steady and Active. Hogs Soar Upward Like a Rocket.

Moderate Run of Sheep and Lambs, but Trade Lacks Snap and Prices Generally Barely Steady with Yesterday.

Four days this week, 20,110, 21,110, 22,110, 23,110. Same days 2 weeks ago, 14,000, 15,000, 16,000, 17,000.

The following table shows the receipts of cattle, hogs and sheep at South Omaha for the year to date, compared with last year.

Receipts: Cattle, 110,000; Hogs, 200,000; Sheep, 50,000. Total receipts, 360,000.

Market quotations: Cattle, 10.00; Hogs, 12.00; Sheep, 8.00.

Market quotations: Cattle, 10.00; Hogs, 12.00; Sheep, 8.00.

Market quotations: Cattle, 10.00; Hogs, 12.00; Sheep, 8.00.

Market quotations: Cattle, 10.00; Hogs, 12.00; Sheep, 8.00.

Market quotations: Cattle, 10.00; Hogs, 12.00; Sheep, 8.00.

ST. LOUIS STOCKS AND BONDS

Market Receives Prompt Support. Bears Are Impressed with Character of Buying and Reduce Their Commitments—Daily Eases and Close Is Strong.

New York, Jan. 31.—There was a further outpouring of stocks into the market in the early operations today, during which a few of the industrial stocks were driven lower than their previous levels.

The buying and selling of the market was characterized by a more active and less speculative character than in the previous days.

The market received prompt support from the buying of the public and the financial institutions, which helped to stabilize the prices.

The closing prices of the leading stocks were: American Express, 100; General Electric, 100; Western Union, 100.

The closing prices of the leading bonds were: U.S. 4% coupon, 100; U.S. 5% coupon, 100; U.S. 6% coupon, 100.

The closing prices of the leading commodities were: Wheat, 1.00; Corn, .75; Oats, .50; Sugar, 1.00.

The closing prices of the leading metals were: Gold, 100; Silver, 100; Copper, 100; Iron, 100.

The closing prices of the leading foreign exchange rates were: London, 100; Paris, 100; Berlin, 100; Rome, 100.

The closing prices of the leading foreign exchange rates were: London, 100; Paris, 100; Berlin, 100; Rome, 100.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK MARKET

Good Cattle Strong, Others Steady and Active. Hogs Soar Upward Like a Rocket.

Moderate Run of Sheep and Lambs, but Trade Lacks Snap and Prices Generally Barely Steady with Yesterday.

Four days this week, 20,110, 21,110, 22,110, 23,110. Same days 2 weeks ago, 14,000, 15,000, 16,000, 17,000.

The following table shows the receipts of cattle, hogs and sheep at Chicago for the year to date, compared with last year.

Receipts: Cattle, 110,000; Hogs, 200,000; Sheep, 50,000. Total receipts, 360,000.

Market quotations: Cattle, 10.00; Hogs, 12.00; Sheep, 8.00.

Market quotations: Cattle, 10.00; Hogs, 12.00; Sheep, 8.00.

Market quotations: Cattle, 10.00; Hogs, 12.00; Sheep, 8.00.

Market quotations: Cattle, 10.00; Hogs, 12.00; Sheep, 8.00.

Market quotations: Cattle, 10.00; Hogs, 12.00; Sheep, 8.00.

ST. JOSEPH STOCKS AND BONDS

Market Receives Prompt Support. Bears Are Impressed with Character of Buying and Reduce Their Commitments—Daily Eases and Close Is Strong.

New York, Jan. 31.—There was a further outpouring of stocks into the market in the early operations today, during which a few of the industrial stocks were driven lower than their previous levels.

The buying and selling of the market was characterized by a more active and less speculative character than in the previous days.

The market received prompt support from the buying of the public and the financial institutions, which helped to stabilize the prices.

The closing prices of the leading stocks were: American Express, 100; General Electric, 100; Western Union, 100.

The closing prices of the leading bonds were: U.S. 4% coupon, 100; U.S. 5% coupon, 100; U.S. 6% coupon, 100.

The closing prices of the leading commodities were: Wheat, 1.00; Corn, .75; Oats, .50; Sugar, 1.00.

The closing prices of the leading metals were: Gold, 100; Silver, 100; Copper, 100; Iron, 100.

The closing prices of the leading foreign exchange rates were: London, 100; Paris, 100; Berlin, 100; Rome, 100.

The closing prices of the leading foreign exchange rates were: London, 100; Paris, 100; Berlin, 100; Rome, 100.

WHEAT MARKET

Wheat Stronger, Though Best Prices Are Not Maintained. Sellers Are Professional Traders.

Corn Mainly Strong Underdone—East Follows Advance in Oats and Is Now Paying Highest Price of Season.

Wheat was stronger, and though the best prices were not maintained, the close was above yesterday's. The market was helped by the strength in Liverpool, growing out of the prospects of France becoming a heavy importer.

Corn was strong early, but eased off later, closing unchanged for 12 months and higher for the July. Reports of some unusual unfavorable weather in Argentina were larger, and estimates for tomorrow were fair.

Oats scored an advance. The cash article followed the advance and is now paying the highest price of the season.

Wheat receipts were 207,000 bushels and shipments 177,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 470,000 bushels and shipments 470,000 bushels.

Local range of quotations: Wheat, Corn, Oats, etc. Prices current today: The growing winter wheat has been unimpaired by the recent cold weather.

Local range of quotations: Wheat, Corn, Oats, etc. Prices current today: The growing winter wheat has been unimpaired by the recent cold weather.

Local range of quotations: Wheat, Corn, Oats, etc. Prices current today: The growing winter wheat has been unimpaired by the recent cold weather.

Local range of quotations: Wheat, Corn, Oats, etc. Prices current today: The growing winter wheat has been unimpaired by the recent cold weather.

ON THE CURB

Is a copper stock which will soon be earning, with 18 cent copper, 20 to 25% on the stock and initial dividends are anticipated at the rate of 10% shortly. It would pay you to sell copper stocks which have been bought at 10% below the market price. Invest in this stock, which has not yet participated in any advance, because your attention has not been called to the fact. Write or call for special market letter regarding it.

FREDERICK R. TIBBITTS

INVESTMENT SECURITIES 85 Congress Street, Boston, Mass.