Starts Disastrous Fire.

UTICA, Neb., Feb. 6.-(Special.)-A: acetylene gas tank explosion at 1:15 this morning set fire to the implement house of the Babson-Dickman company, entirely destroying the contents of the building and burning other buildings to the ground. The force of the explosion blew the building in all directions and was felt all over the city. The firemen were on hand early and put two streams to work, but soon saw they could do nothing to check the flames in those quarters. Then they turned their at tention to saving nearby residences. The stock of the implement compan is a total loss. It was valued at about by the Fraternal Hall company and was used as a lodge room and for opera house purposes. The loss here is $3,500, with $2,000 stroyed, but this was fully covered by insurance. The records were in a safe and were found to be in good condition. The feed store of Oscar Craige, west of the implement house was totally destroyed with its contents. His loss is about $350, with no insurance. The building he was in was owned by W. P. Yoho of this city, with no insurance. The residences of Carl Bereuter and Dr. H. R. Houchen were also damaged and their losses will be about $150, fully covered by insurance. These buildings were all located south of the Burlington tracks.
