MERCER PROTEST IS HEARD
Tax Case Pending for Twelve Years Thrashed Over Before the City Council.
Sitting as a Board of Equalization, the city council Thursday afternoon and Friday morning heard testimony in support of a protest filed by Dr. S. D. Mercer regarding payment of $1.60 special taxes assessed in sewer district No. 23, being located in Mercer and Park View parks. This case has been hanging fire for twelve years. The last protest was overruled. Attorneys W. H. Herdman and W. A. Saunders, for the Mercer company, will take the case to the district court. The protest was made on the ground that the property assessed was not benefited by the improvement.
MERCHANTS MEETING GOOD ONE
Second Trading Excursion Into Omaha is Proving to Be a Record Breaker.
The second spring merchants' meeting held this year by the Omaha Manufacturers' and Jobbers' association is proving a record breaker. Thursday 23 persons who took advantage of the reduced rates for the meeting, presented their certificates for validation. In all 23 certificates have been validated during the present meeting, the sale of tickets for which will continue until Sunday. The sale of tickets for the third meeting will begin February 14.

In addition to the committees named Thursday in The Bee to make arrangements for the trade excursion of the Commercial club to Portland this summer this committee on entertainment has been announced. Daniel Fuller, chairman; W. E. Reed and G. H. Pratt. It will be the duty of the committee to arrange for dining car service enroute and speakers to make addresses at towns along the way.
