THE New Spring Dress Goods and Silks are at Brandeis' ready to delight Omaha's devotees of fashion. Directly beneath the great daylight court in the center of Brandeis' magnificent store there are thousands of yards of the most exquisite weaves and patterns of 1907 fabrics attractively spread upon our counters.

At no previous time has a western house been so perfectly equipped to show the reigning favorites in goods for spring apparel and never have the designs and weaves been of such varied and harmonious beauty. Hundreds of patterns in dress goods and silks, imported direct from our own foreign office are confined exclusively to this house.

This spring will be emphatically a silk season and our display of the most exquisite silk novelties is unexcelled in America.

OMAHA GETS NO STOPOVERS

Requests for Extension of Privilege Reisoted by Western Association.

EXCUSE IS FEAR OF DISCRIMINATION

Argument that Omnha is Denied Be cause of Scalping is Controverted by High Passenger Officials.

Omaha's request for extension of stop ver privileges at Omaha to classes of tickets; on which stopovers are not now allowed has been turned down by the West ern Passenger association. Any doubt in taken by the association at its meeting at Lake Charles, La., January 15, has been dispelled by the following letter to Comner Guild of the Commercial club from Eben E. MacLeod, chairman of the

Referring to your favor of January M. which referred to your action of last November on behalf of the commercial interests and real estate men of Omaha for stopover privileges on the different classes of tickets reading through Omaha:

As advised you, this question was considered at regular meting of this association held at Lake Charles, La., January 15, 1997, together with similar applications from several other cities for the same concession.

No one, however strong, can tempt fate by undue exposure or afford to on the supposition that they may mean nothing, or possibly, cure themselves. The susceptible man should be the careful one, who should never run the risk of an open car, draughty theatre, a soaked shoe, or a thin coat.

With these precantions and a bottle of "Seventy-seven" in your pocket, you can brave the elements and keep well.

At druggists, 25 cents or mailed hreyw Homeo, Medicine Co., Cor. iam and John Streets, New York,

The matter was given very careful thought and fully discussed, it being the sense of the meeting that such stopover privileges could not be accorded without creating unjustifiable discrimination, and that therefore the application must be respectfully declined.

In transmitting this information we think it entirely proper to state that interested it entirely proper to state that interested lines are disposed to grant anything con-sistent with the law and established cus-toms, but in this particular matter it was not felt that the concession asked could be consistently granted. Respectfully, EBEN F. MACLEOD, Chairman.

Latest Bluff Offered. A local business man said he had been told by a railroad man the association was disposed to look with disfavor on Omaha because the practice of ticket scalping had not been entirely suppressed here. Gerrit Fort, assistant general passenger agent of the Union Pacific, says that, so far as the railroads can determine, the inju Omaha against ticket scalping is effective and the practice has been reduced to a minimum. General Passenger Agent Lomax confirms the statement. Mr. Fort had expected to attend the meet ing of Lake Charles and make a fight for Omaha, but was taken ill on the way and had to return home. What Omaha asked was to be put on the ame basis with Denver, which seems to have stopover privileges on tickets in both directions. It especially asked stopovers on tickets to Colorado and Utah points, the same as it has to California points. Mr. Fort says these tickets have stop over privileges in fact, though not in name, as two days beyond requirements are given to reach the destination. SMITH DENIES THE STORY Did Not Say Car Line Would Take Proposed Route to Deaf and Dumb School.

General Manager Smith of the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Ratiway company says he is misquoted in the statement made in Council Bluffs of the proposed route of the street railway to the Deaf and Dumb institute. He said the fact was a committee waited upon him and presented the proposed route but he did not say, as was claimed, that the road would be built by that route, for the reason, in the first place. that the route is not practical and in the second place he had no authority to announce a route, as that is a matter for the directors to decide.

Twenty Urchins Are Arrested in One Store for Petty Thieving.

> At the approach of the anniversary of St. Valentine, with thousands of alluring creations of colored and lace paper on sale, an epidemic of petty thieving on the part of the juvenile population has broken forth. Twenty-five boys of all sizes and complexions were arrested in one large departnent store Saturday morning and allowed to depart unmolested after disgorging their spolls, but the evil had grown to such an extent during the afternoon that several arrests were made and the culprits were aken to the city jail. Two white boys and a wee pickaninny were arrested Saturday afternoon at Bennett's and were given a ride in the patrol wagon. cases of the youthful culprits will be tried Monday morning in the juvenile court.

BURGLAR AT CITY LIBRARY

Breaks Glass to Byron Reed Collection and Steads Old Coips. BINDS NIGHT WATCHMAN FIRST THING

Latter Jumps Out Window, Frac turing His Foot and the Burglar Enully Makes

His Escape.

Breaking into the basement of the public library building through a window, a burglar overpowered and bound the night janitor, Gust Peterson, and then forced an entrance into the room containing the Byron Reed collection of coins, breaking the glass n a case of United States money, about 2 o'clock Saturday morning. After an inventory made Saturday morning by Miss Tobitt, librarian, it was found the burgiar had stolen about 100 United States coins, gold and silver, of various denominations to the value of $146.66. The coins were of the series from 1875 to The burglar not only tied Peterson's hands, but also blindfolded him with a blue silk muffler and then compelled him to go with him to the second floor. He enforce his commands with a revolver. When the Byron Reed room was reached the man took Peterson's keys and tried the door but being unable to open it, he climbed from the stairway to a door near the Harney by her parents. The girl is only 17 years street wall and got in through the transon Jumps from Window. Left outside the Byron Reed room, Peterson succeeded in releasing his hands, and going to a window at the back of the building jumped to the ground, fracturing his left foot in the fall. The opening of doors had set off the alarm, and the operator at the telephone office notified a lineman in the office by the name of Gardner, thinking that the alarm was probabty false and due to wire trouble. The operator also notified the police station and, a few minutes later, sent a hurry call. In the meantime Peterson had gone Burg. to the fire house across the street and a firemen sent a message to the city jail stating that Peterson had a broken leg and needed the services of a doctor. Nothing was said to the officers regarding the burgiary and it was some time before the police arrived on the scene with Police rgeon Arnaut While confusing measures were being sent to the city jall Gardner ran to the front door of the library and knocked. The burglar inside answered the su and said: "Walt. I'm the watchman and will let Gardner waited, while the thief made his escape from a back window, where he had entered.

Peterson told the police in the patrol wagon of the robbery and Sergeants Sigyou in as soon as I get my keys."

Largest Distinctively Religious En-

Will Be at Auditorium.

The largest distinctively religious enter-in the Omaha Auditorium February 25 and 26. The entertainment, "The Story of the Reformation," is a portrayal of that in world which tells of Luther's revolt and the birth of the reformation. It consists of a lecture illustrated by eighty-five large stereopticon views, and three scenes portrayed by living characters. The monk scene, is laid in a monastery at Erfurth, and represents the jealousy of the prior of the monastery against Brother Augustine, and the chairmen are introduced,

showing the costumes of the order of that period, and at the same time showing that

Luther was the first person to introduce church music in a language the common people could understand. The principal feature of the entertainment is the scene

the "Diet of Worms," where a beautiful

Springfield Rifles Make Different Report from Other Guns-Senators Interested. WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.-The Brownsville inquiry by the senate committee on military affairs may continue at intervals for several months. Many men for whom sub-

Negroes Say Krag-Jorgenson and poenas have been issued have not been found and others are in Texas attending the court-martial of the white officers of the discharged negro battalion. The investigation has proceeded far nough to convince the members of the ommittee that the only way to get at the bottom of the affair is by the examining of every man to see what he knows. Thus far only a few members of Companies B and D have been on the stand and no evidence has been secured indicating that these men were guilty of the offenses charged against them. It has been brought out that Company C men had a chance to secure guns through the fact that their gun racks were broken open. The feature of the testimony which most nterests the members of the committee is that all the men on the stand have said hat they would be able to distinguish the feport of the Springfield rifles or Krag-Jorgensen rifles from the reports of other firearms, and most of the witnesses have said that they did not hear any army rifles. The testimony of the white officers, now under court-martial, is being awaited on this point. Several senators, who have declared that they believe some members of the negro battalion were guilty of the shooting, now say their opinions would be shaken if the white officers should go on the stand and say they could not detect reports of Springfield or Krag guns. Senator Foraker has said that he will get at the bottom of the affair is it should take all summer, and it is likely, therefore, after the adjournment of congress, a subcommit tee will be named to take the testimony.

HOWELL LAWYERS ARE READY Attorneys Deny Intent to Delay Hearing on Motion in Petersen as director.

The third annual ball of the Omaha Musicians' association will be given at the Auditorium Monday night. The musicians have banded together about 200 of their number into one grand erchestra which will furnish music for the occasion while the dancers trip the light fantastic.

Conl Case.

"We will be ready to submit the motion for a new trial in the Howell case at any time the court and the other side are randy." declared W. J. Connell, attorney for S. E. Howell, president of the Coal exchange, Saturday morning. The motion for a new trial was filed in district court

December 15, three days after Mr. Howell was convicted. Owing to the Connell contempt case, which has been pending since then, the motion has not been argued or submitted to the court.

Mr. Connell denied that he or Mr. Stout were trying to delay consideration of the motion. The motion he said may be taken up next Saturday. It probably will be submitted without any extended argument and the defense will depend on an appeal to the supreme court for the hoped for reversal of the verdict.
