IF YOU ARE THINGING OF ADOPTING A PROFES-SION READ THIS

De not think that business is not worthy of the highest possible talents.

Don't get the idea that business only gives a monetary reward for great ability. Realize once and for all time that brains in business, plus energy and a proper training, brings power to a mana power beside which the greatest possible power that a professional man could achieve is but infantile.

Many a young man who thought he had within him the proper talents for a career as a doctor or a lawyer has found out tional edition. Sunday, 10 cents a too late that his greatest talents were those which could have been most profitably devoted to the upbuilding of a business career.

Maybe this is the case with you. It is well for you to give this matter serious consideration before you adopt any one of the professions as a life career. Should you see that your talents are those which are more suited for a business career you should not fail to obtain a business training before you enter business. You should get a business education just the same as you should get a professional ed-
