

NEW JAIL AND WORK HOUSE

Chief Donahue Begins Now to Advocate Bonds at Fall Election.

NEEDS FOR BOTH BUILDINGS URGENT

Present Facilities at the Police Headquarters Are Entirely Inadequate and Improvements Must Be Made.

Chief of Police Donahue believes the time now soon for the city council to begin to think of putting before the voters next November the question of voting bonds for a new city jail and a work house. Although the subject has been discussed before, the chief believes the needs are urgent and that the matter should not go by default this fall.

The present city jail, the chief says, is growing more inadequate every day. Out of 10,000 arrests last year two-thirds of that number were sentenced and served in city or county jails, both places having been crowded for sometime.

Since the old Dodge street school was converted into a jail the place has had to have repairs and changes. The roof is now in bad shape and before another winter sets in will need improving to the cost of $500. The boiler room in the patrol barn is directly under the horse's feet. There are no proper accommodations for the separation of men and women prisoners. The Omaha Woman's club and Women's Christian Temperance union have continually been after the authorities to furnish proper quarters for female prisoners at the city jail.

The chief again expresses his opinion that a workhouse of some permanency is what the city needs. A shed has been constructed at Twelfth and Nicolais streets, but has not been put into operation, and will be only a make-shift at best.

FAREWELL TO DR. HERRING

Reception Tendered by Social Service Club to Minister Leaving the City.

The first annual meeting of the Social Service club at the Commercial club rooms was Saturday noon made the occasion for a farewell dinner to Rev. H. C. Herring, D. D., who recently resigned his pastorate at the First Congregational church to accept the position of secretary of the Congregational Home Missionary society.

Dr. Herring has been vice president of the Social Service club during the year. His leave taking at this time was marked with short talks by citizens interested in such sociological subjects as juvenile court work and child labor laws and regulations. Resolutions on the departure of Dr. Herring were adopted.

Among those at the dinner were: Judge A. L. Sutton, Judge Howard Kennedy, Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Somers, Mrs. E. B. Towle, S. P. Morris, Rev. J. Randolph Smith, Mrs. Draper Smith, Rev. C. C. Cissell, Rev. H. L. Mills, H. W. Pennock, M. Bernstein, Rev. S. D. Dutcher, R. F. Dennison, W. J. Kennard, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hartzel, Mrs. Emma Byers, Rev. R. L. Purdy, Mrs. H. Heller, Mary Girard Andrews, F. M. Sisson, Mrs. E. G. McGilton, Mrs. Harriet McMurphy, Rev. Joseph Lampe, Emily Louise Hagar, H. H. Baldrige, T. F. Sturgis and B. P. Wade.

The following officers were elected for the year: Judge Howard Kennedy, president; Dean George A. Beecher and Mrs. E. B. Towle, vice presidents; E. F. Denison, secretary; Mrs. Clara Burbank, treasurer. All except the vice presidents were re-elected.

Rev. H. C. Herring, D. D., the guest of honor, spoke of the work of the club during the year. He said the club had done much to unify the interests of those engaged in public and private work of a sociological nature.

Resolutions over the deaths of Frank E. Heller and Miss Helen Leavitt were adopted. H. W. Pennock spoke of the work of his committee in drafting the child labor and compulsory education bills now on their way to passage in Lincoln.

The announcement was made that on next Monday a reception will be tendered Dr. Herring at First Congregational church.

CREIGH STOCK IS GOING UP

Omaha Man Gains New Support in Race for Grand Army Commander.

The candidacy of Captain Thomas F. Creigh of Omaha for department commander of the Nebraska Grand Army of the Republic is being vigorously urged by his friends throughout the state as well as in Omaha. The only formidable candidate thus far appearing against him is Colonel Barnes of Grand Island, who was one of the leading candidates before the last annual encampment at Lincoln. It now begins to look as if Captain Creigh will go to the Fremont encampment in May backed by the solid Douglas county delegation, and with a strong following from eastern Nebraska and the Republican valley region.

Captain C. E. Adams of Superior, who was recently in Omaha, is authority for the statement that Captain Creigh is popular among the Grand Army men in his section of the state.

Former Adjutant General James D. Gage, Mark Howe, and Brad P. Cook of Lincoln are said to be ambitious to head the Grand Army of the state and from the present outlook the Lancaster county delegation will be divided among these three. At all events the state encampment to be held at Fremont in May promises to be a very lively convention of veterans and several matters of interest to the old soldiers will come before that body.

One of the most interesting matters to come before the encampment will be the question of half fare transportation for inmates of the soldiers' homes, which has been cut out in the rate bill now pending in the legislature.

SWIFT PACE FOR NEW MAN

C. C. Cornell Strikes Strenuous Job in Taking Union Pacific Yards.

C. C. Cornell, formerly yardmaster of the Northwestern at Council Bluffs, has been appointed yardmaster of the Union Pacific at Omaha to succeed D. T. Crawford, who has resigned and returned to his former position as conductor on the Kansas division of the Union Pacific.

Mr. Cornell takes up his work in most strenuous times, for not in years has the Union Pacific been so congested at Omaha as at present. The water and lee of the Flatts put the main stem of the Union Pacific out of condition for four days at a time when the road was already taxed to the limit to handle the enormous business which was being carried by that road.

During those four days the yards and terminals of the Union Pacific have become most congested and all roads which are feeders to the Union Pacific have an enormous amount of freight on hand waiting for a clearing up of the main line that the Union Pacific might handle the cars.

CARRIERS AFTER GOOD ROADS

Rural Postmen Will Have Bill Introduced to Perfect the Movement.

The rural letter carriers of Nebraska are endeavoring to secure good roads legislation at Lincoln. Officials of the state association held an executive meeting at Lincoln Friday and met members of the legislature with the view of getting a bill through that would give to the state what they wanted.

"We have a bill drawn up that we believe will meet the issue," said S. P. Howland of Juniata, president of the association, who was in Omaha Saturday. "Our plan in brief is to make the county assessor responsible for the county roads, instead of the township assessors. And we propose as a means of recompense to him that a general tax of one-half mill be levied in each county. We would suggest that the poll tax be paid in cash, but we shall not urge this point, as it may conflict with the constitutional laws. We would create a 'good roads fund' and make the county assessor custodian of it."

"We have talked with various members of the legislature and have secured from everyone favorable consideration and from some faithful promises of support. Senator Clark of Adams county told me personally he would give our bill the most hearty support. We have secured the co-operation of Representatives Lahmers of Thayer and Howard of Adams, and one of them will introduce the bill in the house. We want nothing but what is right to make good roads. We believe we know the need and importance of good roads and we hope the legislature will aid us in getting them."

Aside from President Howland, those present at the meeting in Lincoln: F. H. Talbot, Table Rock, vice president; C. H. Barber, Stromsburg, treasurer, and P. V. Helmick, Waco, secretary.

REYNOLDS GETS TEN YEARS

Young Man is Severely Lectured by Judge Troup, Who Imposes Sentence.

Carl Reynolds, 20 years of age, convicted of holding up the saloon of August Wolf just outside the city limits and accused of several other similar crimes, was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary Saturday morning by Judge Troup. "The prisoner was forced to stand up before the judge's bench while Judge Troup lectured him in scathing terms.

"It was not your fault," he said, "that you did not kill two men. You might be standing here with a charge of murder against you. If you continue in this course eventually you must come to the gallows. You can't hope to escape it. It is a mercy to you that you have been caught and are to be sent to the penitentiary, where you may think about your deeds."

William Jackson, charged with breaking into the apartments of Mrs. Jordan December 21 and stealing a watch and chain, was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. Jackson also entered the home of Judge Ben Baker about the same time and is charged with other burglaries.

William Henly, who was charged with felonious assault for his part in a drunken carousal, was permitted to plead guilty to assault and battery and was sentenced to ninety days in the county jail.

FUNERAL OF ELI GARRETT

Services Will Be Held at First Christian Church, Burial at Forest Lawn.

The funeral of Eli Garrett, who died early Friday morning at his home, 144 North Thirty-third street, will be held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the First Christian church, Nineteenth and Farnam streets, and will be under the auspices of Covert lodge of Masons, of which organization Mr. Garrett was a member. The services at the church will be in charge of the pastor, Rev. S. D. Dutcher, while the burial ceremony will be in charge of the lodge.

Mr. Garrett was 67 years of age and had lived in Omaha for eighteen years, during which time he had been employed at the Lee-Glass-Andresen company, but of late years has been in the tax commissioner's office. He is survived by a wife and daughter, Grace A. Garrett, both in Omaha, and a son, Frank H. Garrett, in Council Bluffs.

The pallbearers will be chosen from among Mr. Garrett's associates in the Covert lodge of Masons, but will not be definitely selected until the members of the lodge meet at the hall Sunday at 1 p. m.

ANXIETY OVER RAILWAY TAX

County Treasurers Are Perturbed Over Status of Cases Before Supreme Court.

County treasurers in the state are becoming anxious over the status of the railroad tax cases which are now before the supreme court. Several have written to County Treasurer Pink asking him to join issues with them to further fight the cases. They report the railroads wish to pay back taxes on the basis of settlement the railroads proposed at the time, that is about 90 per cent of the taxes levied without any attached penalties, and then to pay future taxes as they are now levied.

Railroad officials at headquarters in Omaha say they have made no such offer, but are standing on their rights in the case before the supreme court. The railroads say they tendered to all county treasurers the exact amount of the taxes which they had paid previous to the first injunction, and that most of the county treasurers accepted under protest, subject to the final determination of the case, acting on advice of the attorney general of Nebraska.
