Sounds Funny in Chiengo The Chicago Inter Ocean's editor thinks the woman's movement is a joke, as would appear from the following editorial in that

Journal:

It would be better, perhaps, if controversies like that which occurred at the Woman's National Suffrage convention on Tuesday, and in which Mrs. Mary Smith Hayward of Chadron, Neb., and Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton of Warren, O., were the principals, could be altogether avoided, especially in gatherings which are aiming to educate man up to a higher understanding of woman. But, since it seems inevitable that they shall occur, it is just as well, maybe, that the principals shall be women who have the courage as well as the ability to express themselves as clearly as Mrs. Hayward and Mrs. Upton.

themselves as clearly as Mrs. Hayward and Mrs. Upton.

For instance, Mrs. Hayward took the position that no woman who was true to the convention were enlisted would think of wearing a hat trimmed with slaughtered birds, when Mrs. Upton remarked, sweetly:

"Nobody who will eat a chicken or a cow or a fish has any right to say a word when anybody else kills a parrot or a fox or a seal. Its just as bad, one way or another. And I guess we have all enten chickens."

This, of course, was in the nature of a challenge to Mrs. Hayward, who, in a sisterly tone, replied:

This, of course, was in the nature of a challenge to Mrs. Hayward, who, in a sistery tone, replied:

"I must protest against being included in such a sweeping statement. Nothing would persuade me to eat a chicken, or to consive at the horror of trapping innocent animals for their fur. It causes a thrill of horror to pass through me when I attend a woman's suffrage convention and see women with ghastly trophies of slaughter upon their persons."

And nothing could be more natural than that Mrs. Upton should ask at this point:

"Don't you use birds to trim hats?"

Or that Mrs. Hayward should reely:

"Never! I use nothing but vegetables, and vegetarian hats are a thousend times prattler than relics of murder."

It may be inferred from Mrs. Upton's attitude in this debate that she is neither an Audubonian nor a Vegetarian, and that her main purpose was to insist upon consistency. Yet, without intending to convey the thought that we are gladdened in any way by her apparent defeat, we cannot refrain from exulting modestly over the fact that Mrs. Hayward was given the opportunity to prove to a state which affects eastern manners that the mighty west can be true to its ideals.

If Nebraska likes chicken, or turkey, or eastern manners that the mighty west can be true to its ideals.

If Nebraska likes chicken, or turkey, or mutton, or heef, or ham, and if it likes to deck its millinery with plumes and time, or whole birds, native or foreign, it makes no other pretensions. It does not preach one dostrine and bractice another. We know this from the incident referred to, and we are all glad it occurred, since it shows unmistakably where Nebraska stands.

Susan B. Authony Memorial. Contributions amounting to $23,000 were made to a Susan B. Anthony memorial at one of the sessions of the convention of American Woman Suffrage association held recently in Chicago. The subscriptions were made after the following resolution had been passed:

Whereas, The sentiment in favor of wo-man suffrage has so far progressed throughout the world that its adoption is throughout the world that its adoption is now assured; and Whereas. The rapidity with which women will be fully enfranchised in the United States of America depends upon the ability of the advocates of woman suffrage to bring it to the attention of those intelligent people whom they have not yet directly reached; and Whereas. All possess the stamp of approval and that individual style characteristic of the ready-to-wear apparel retailed at this reliable exclusive store.

Chic models in the new black and white Shepard checks and stripes, also the popular plain colors.

New Suits at $25.00, $35.00 and $45.00

We have very extensive lines at these prices. In each line a large and varied showing of new ideas, giving one a comprehensive idea of the new fabrics which will be favored this season. However, one cannot appreciate their style and beauty without seeing them.

Walking Skirts-New Effects

New Spring Skirts, in checks, fancy stripes and light weight fabrics, all the late models and beautifully tailored, some fancy braid trimmed, others severely plain tailored. Also imported voiles, lined and unlined and trimmed with taffeta and lace.

Becoming Waist Styles -Dainty new spring Waists, in all the prettiest styles.

The designs are exclusive with us, and we consider them the best we have thus far shown. Don't fail to see them before buying elsewhere.

Silk Petticoat Sale
