A magnificent audience that nearly filled the Auditorium gathered last evening in honor of the nemory of Omaha's greatest philanthropist, the late Count John A Creighton. It was a representative gather ing of the people of Omaha, all walks of life being represented. The meeting was marked by intense feeling throughout. The first steps were taken toward the erection of a monument to Count Creighton with oney to be sised by popular subscription. The narrow limits of creed did not bound the audience that gathered to honor the memory of the man whose great hear knew no such limits. Men of all creeds and of no creed were there. Each of McDonald's ninety-one claims were sworn to and subscribed to by him, himself, as being true and correct statements of his just claims for reimbursement by the state. How It Was Worked.

The graft which the auditor and the claims committees have cut out of the Douglas county sheriff's bills, amount to nearly a third of the total. The reason for the reduction of the padding is explained

"We have cut out of the bills presented the law allowing cities to sell water works, voted aye, When he found he would but he was not allowed to detail the con- by Douglas county sheriff's 25 cents a day which was asked by Sloux Falls. versations. Adams stated that when he on each prisoner charged to the state and was affected under the habeas corpus pro- ah of the railroad fare of the sheriff and a resolution memorializing the South Daceedings and returned to the Wallace jall his deputies. The law reads that the sheriff kota representatives in congress to opposit he was not allowed to see his attorneys, shall deliver prisoners at the penitentiary any ship subsidy legislation, and Gurney Harriman mana ment of the Chicago & but was compelled against his will to talk within thirty days after sentence and that presented a bill to allow county commissioners, instead of the county treasurer, to the railroads to give 30 days' notice be during the time they are in his custody he sioners, instead of the county treasurer, to the railroads to give 30 days' notice be may receive for feeding them 75 cents a select the paper for publication of delinupholding this contention of the law and I began at once reducing the bills filed by sheriffs to the 50 cent basis. "Sheriff McDonald had a few bills cut down and then held out all the rest of them, presumably preferring to get the legislature to allow them. The remarkable thing about this is that in Douglas county, alone of all the counties, it is the regular practice of the sheriff to hold on to every sentenced prisoner for almost the entire thirty days, apparently in order to get the maximum allowance for feeding. In other countles prisoners are brought to the penitentiary, with few exceptions, within three or four days after sentence and are seldom kept longer than ten days, but it is the rare exception when any prisoner from Douglas county is so delivered short of at least twenty-five days. "Another very peculiar thing about these sheriff's claims from Douglas county is that they represent, with few exceptions, special trips made to bring prisoners to Lincoln or to Geneva or to Kearney, one at a time. By making special trips the sheriff has been able to put in expense accounts for all at one time, and put in only one bill." Details of the Claims. The itemized claims presented by exand the amount allowed and the amount cut out, is as follows:
