

MANY NEW BUILDINGS ON TAB

Excavation for Pavilion at Riverbank Park is New Under Way.

MRS. J. T. STEWART ADDS TO HER HOME

Plans and Specifications for Lake Street Engine House Are Completed—Residence Construction to Go Up.

Excavating was begun Monday morning for the new addition to the public pavilion at Riverbank park, and the work will be pushed as fast as weather conditions will permit.

The contract calls for the completion of the new addition by June 1, but in case it is not finished before the opening of the season the old pavilion will be temporarily utilized.

Plans and specifications for the new engine house at Twenty-first and Lake streets have been completed by Architect Guth and will be submitted Tuesday to the building committee.

A. L. Patrick, a retired lumberman, will build a two-story frame residence at Forty-first and Dodge streets this spring.

A six-room house on a lot 75x136 feet at 423 North Thirty-fourth street has been sold for $1,500 to George Weigel.

Mrs. Clara W. Belden was buried Monday afternoon at Prospect Hill cemetery.

Instructions and limitations of such detachable forms in periodicals will, as soon as possible be issued.

BATCH OF NEW ORDINANCES

More Laws for Omaha Are Being Ground Out by the City Mills.

Assistant City Attorney Rine was busy all day Monday on a batch of ordinances which are to be introduced soon.

At the suggestion of Councilman Brucker, Mr. Rine is drawing an ordinance to abolish the old market place on Capitol avenue and to sell the market house, which is to be refiged if this ordinance passes.

The health commissioner is having an ordinance drawn to cover the cutting of weeds. Attorney Rine has provided a clause in this ordinance whereby an advertisement in a newspaper will be sufficient notice to the property owner.

Mr. Sheldon's ordinance to muzzle dogs has been drawn. This ordinance provides that dogs shall be kept muzzled until June 1, at which time it is believed the present epidemic of rabies will have passed.

If aloofness and reserve are supposed to be attributes to genius, Olga Nethersole is certainly an agreeable exception. A more cordial or approachable hostess could scarcely be imagined than the great actress as she received the reporter of The Bee Monday morning on her car, which stands on a sidewalk in the Burlington yards.

For introduction by Councilman Sheldon an ordinance is being prepared providing for inspections of bakeries once every two months, instead of once a year as at present. Certain sanitary regulations will be embodied in this ordinance.

The health commissioner is having an ordinance drawn to cover the cutting of weeds. Attorney Rine has provided a clause in this ordinance whereby an advertisement in a newspaper will be sufficient notice to the property owner.

BARGAIN DAY FOR MARITAL MIX-UPS Judge Crawford Thinks Man on Crutches Cannot Be Punished on Charge of Abandoning His Wife.

"Your honor, I don't want to say anything against that woman. She is my wife, your honor, and I can't say anything against her."

Other marital troubles to come to the attention of Judge Crawford were those of Carrie and W. S. Van Dusen. This pair has been divorced, but it appeared, this did not hinder the continuance of the warfare between them.

George Lawson, a young man who looked as though he would know better, strenuously denied to Judge Crawford that he was drunk on a Walnut Hill street car Sunday night and raised a row, asserted by Street Car Conductor J. H. Van Wagman.

RICH AND HOLDS DOWN JOB

Postman Makes Fortune in Real Estate, but Still Delivers Letters.

How to amass a fortune of $200,000 on a salary of ten years' wages may not be impossible, and yet there are several letter carriers in New York who tramp the streets, rain or shine, delivering letters for Uncle Sam who have that much money.

The men are Martin L. Henry of 148 Bathgate avenue, the Bronx; William W. Munroe of 301 East Seventy-second street and Louis Gates of 1229 Third avenue.

Postman Gates has long been a partner in real estate deals with Henry, and it is said that he has made a fortune of $200,000.

After the legless and armless veterans had all been supplied, Mr. Pritch joined the letter carriers. At that time the men wore uniforms and received a penny apiece for the letters they collected at the boxes.
