C. E. BENJAMIN, Gen, Agt., 232 S. Clark Street, Chicago, Ill. ENGINEER INSPECTS No Danger at Vermilion Unless High Water Comes, as Channel is Open.

VERMILION, S. D., March 5 .- (Special Telegram.)-Accompanied by competent guides Engineer W. B. DeWitt crossed the ice gorge today. He finds the gorge still solid as rock top, but the water, is eating its way through below, and he says no further damage, will follow unless high water comes, as the present opening takes care of the water now running. He will give no information regarding his view of relief, through blasting powder or dynamite, as his report must go to Government Engineer Quinn at Sloux City. Mr. DeWitt will look into river conditions

The warm weather is affecting the gorge. but it will take several weeks of the present temperature to loosen it. RAILROAD EXTENSION AT HERRICK at the head of the gorge this afternoon.

Contractors, Surveyors and Chief Engineer Leave Gregory County. HERRICK, S. D., March &-(Special.)-The original contractors on the Bonesteel extension, through Herrick to Gregory, passed through Herrick tonight with force of men to collect their horses and grading outfit, and will ship them from Herrick to Norfolk and thence to Wyoming where an extension is being built. Peterson & Peterson, who were two of the heaviest contractors, are shipping their outst today. The exodus of the outfits here, including 400 horses, which have been wintered here, indicates that the Chicago Northwestern will not be extended farther than Gregory nor across Tripp county, and that Gregory will be the terminus for the opening instead of Dallas, and that Gregory, Herrick and Bonesteel will be made registration points, -

Burke may be made the scat of the new land office. Before the removal of the contractors it was expected that the line would be extended at least to Dullas. It is now expected that the proclamation of the presdent will be made soon, opening for setflement the finest section of land opened since the opening of Oklahoma. Immigrants are daily arriving at Herrick, which is the terminus of the railroad, and take a drive of fifteen miles over Tripp county to make more sure their chance in the lottery. Every house in Herrick and Gregory is under lease and the rush has begun. It is estimated that 250,000 persons will register. and 800,000 acres will be disposed of at $6 per acre.

TOPEKA CHANGES LEAGUES

President O'Neill States Agreement Was Reached at Buffalo Meeting.

FARRELL ACTED FOR SHIVELY LEAGUE

Western Association Leader Denies Agreement is Reached and That No Decision Had Been Arrived At.

KANSAS CITY, March 5.-Dr. D. M. Shively, president of the Western association, returned to Kansas City last night from Buffalo, where he had been attending a meeting of the board of arbitration of the minor leagues. Shively said that a decision had not been reached regarding the disposition of the Topeka club and that the interviews given out by Norris O'Neil, the president of the Western league, saying that Topeka had been turned over to that league, were untrue.

CHICAGO, March 5 .- President O'Neill of the Western league today said that the admission of Topeka into the Western league was predicated upon the terms o the agreement enacted into by him and J. H. Farrell, secretary of the National association, who also acted as a representa tive of the national board at Buffalo March 2. The provisions of this agreement, said President O'Neill, have carried out by him and by virtue of them President O'Neill has assumed the territory of Topeks for the Western league.

"I have had no official advice on th natter," said President Rourke of Omaha. but I think there is no question the transaction, if not completed, will be, and that Topeka will be in the Western league. It will be better for Topeka and all concerned. It will give Dick Cooley a chance to branch out, which he can never expect Mr. Rourke has no misgivings about St Joseph making good,

"I firmly believe that a practical base ball man can go into that town and make a go of it. I am sure that with a good team and management base ball in St. Joe will There is a strong sentiment locally that

Dr. Shively's hand has been forced and that is why he, who will be out of the job, is so refuctant to make admissions. Manager Chance and his men will start

Manager Chance and his men will start cut the 1907 season serenely confident of another National league pennant and they will have plenty of company in their faith. With his old stars and additional imber of good fiber still with him. Chance, some of the best critics believe, could not possibly slump enough to miss the flag this season. The Cubs present staff is:

Pitchers, Mordecal Brown, Charles W. Harper, Carl L. Lungrenn, Orval Overall, John Pfeister; catchers, John Kling, Pat Moran, Mike Kahee, J. W. Beabough; infielders, Frank L. Chance, John J. Evers, Joseph B. Tinker, Harry Steinfeldt, William Sweeny; outfielder, James T. Sheckard, James F. Slagle, Frank Schulte, Arthur F. Hofman, H. H. Gessler, Newton J. Randall, Wilfred Osborne.

There is one knotty little point that Chance will have to puzzle over, and that is the Slagle-Hofman centroversy for center field, says the Record-Herald. Hofman was the best bet among the cubs during the world's series when he held down center field on account of Slagle's injury, but whether Chance will keep him permanently in that position remains to be seen.

Hofman is a handy, all-round player, who can jump in st any infield or outfield position and fill all the requirements of the job, it isn't quite true that he can play second as well as Evers or short like Tinker, but he is not far behind the regulars, and never fails to plug a hole on the infield in satisfactory style. For that reason Chance may not want to give Hofman a regular job, where he would be out of reach as a utility infielder.

The Record-Herald, after reviewing the The Record-Herald, after reviewing the general situation and showing that, on the face of returns, the rival teams have no chance in the winning, concludes:

"In one respect the Cubs were mighty lucky last season. That was in keeping their best men in the game. The games won were not scratches by any means. Luck didn't any more than break even in that respect, but Chance was lucky to have his stars in the game with him practically all of the time.

"Not once in the last six seasons have Chance and Steinfeldt been in so many games as they were last year. Chance has always been an unlucky player in the matter of injuries, but he escaped all serious accidents last season, and so did Steinfeldt, for years leading member of the hospital list of the Cincinnati team.

"Then, again, Johnny Evers never missed a game on the schedule. He never did that before, and may never again. Schulte and Sheckard were fit all the time, and when Slagle hurt himself Hofman jumped in and played phenomenal hall. Of course, the catchers got a split finger, every so often, but one of them was ready all the time.

"When one looks at the actual figures of hast year's National league race it is next to impossible to see how the Cubs could slump enough in one year to lose the 1907 pennant. When it is remembered that Chicago fed in batting, in fielding, in sacrifice hitting, and lost the stolen base honors by only six stolen sacks, led in errorless gefines and in shutouts, it would seem that the team couldn't help but repeat its performance of last year."

While many hunters journeyed to the Platte as it touches the Union Pacific railroad, they overlooked a good thing right at home. One man from one blind at Cut-Off lake Monday killed thirty-seven ducks and sixteen of these were canvasbacks. A large number of people went from Omaha to different towns along the Platte Sunday, but without great waders were unable to do much, because the water of the Platte is over three feet deep. The water is going down and the hunters have high hopes of having some fine shooting in a few days. Reports are there were never more ducks than there are this spring, as they fly in such flocks as to almost obscure the sun.

ST. LOUIS TEAMS OFF FOR TEXAS Americans Will Train at San Antonic

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 5.—The local American base ball team departed for San Antonio, Tex. tonight, and the National leaguers departed for Houston within a half hour of each other, for the conditioning preparatory to the opening of the championahip, season.

The only man of importance as yet unsigned by either team is George Stone, champion bataman of the American league. A difference in the salary offered and asked keeps Stone at his home in Nebraska.

Before departing the teams arranged for pre-weason inter-league series for the championship of St. Louis to consist of seven games, beginning in the American league park March 30. and Nationals at Houston.

FARMER BURNS THE WINNER

Secures Two Out of Three Falls from Part, English Champion.

LATTER THE AGGRESSOR AT THE START

Parr Shows More Speed and Greater Strength but the Foxy Farmer Tires Him Out and Lauds Last Two Falls.

Farmer Burns of Big Rock, Ia., champion in catch-as-catch-can wrestling at the Auditorium Tuesday night, Burns winning expected the Farmer to win there were few at the Auditorium last night who thought he could throw the Englishman after the the more active of the two and also to have the most strength, but those more familiar with the game could see the Farmer was playing on the defensive and letting the Englishman do most of the work that he might tire out and thus give the Farmer the advantage as the bout

Parr won the first fall in twenty-one minutes and from the speed he displayed and the great strength of neck he showed there were few of the 2,500 present who thought for a minute the Farmer would have any chance to throw him. But those who had seen the Farmer wrestle before knew that he was simply laying off and letting the Englishman wear himself out while he took the defensive. The fall made by Parr came as a surprise to Burns, who was put down so quick few knew how it was done. Parr was back of the Farmer on the mat when, with a quick move he jumped up and caught the Farmer around the neck with a leg hold and by the use of his legs alone pulled Burns to a position where he could force his shoulders to the mat.

.They sparred at the beginning for an adquick as a flash and the crowd soon saw that Burns had a game on his hands. Parr soon had the crowd against him by his rough tactics, which many did not seem to realize were permitted by the rules of the game. They roasted him on the head holds he insisted upon getting on the Farmer, who is always a great favorite with an Omaha crowd. Parr was so strong at the start he was able to break full Neisons which the Farmer would fasten upon him and seemed more active and stronger than Burns. Burns got away from a hard half Nelson in the first fall as did also Parr, but Burns finally succumbed to the scissors hold which Parc fastened upon him with his legs. The first full took Burns took the aggressive as soon as time was called for the second fall and soon had Parr at a disadvantage from a crotch hold, but Parr got away. Parr soon after squirmed away from a half Nelson. tinually for a crotch hold but finally got a toe hold which he combined with a half Nelson and twisted the Englishman to the mat in thirteen minutes.

Englishman Visibly Tired. The applause which resounded through the vast auditorium when Burns won the second fall was deafening and continued for several minutes. Burns won the third fall in twenty-four minutes. Parr had visibly tired and was not as aggressive as he was at the start and had lost some of his steam. He also got the crowd down on him by his roughpass. Burns immediately took the aggressive and came within an ace of getting the same hold he had won the second fall with, but Parr broke away. Burns also got a straddle hold, but Parr twisted away. Again he had the Englishman all-but down with a half-Nelson, but twice he got away from that hold. Burns finally got a half-Nelson, which bent Parr's head way forward and twisted him to the mat in twenty-four minutes from the start of the last fall.

The winner was challenged by Frank Gotch, who is the champion of America. Pete Loch refereed in his usually satisfac tory form.

The preliminaries consisted of a fifteen minute exhibition between Gray and Johanson of Omaha, which resulted in no fall; a fifteen minute exhibition between Miller of Des Moines and Billings of Omaha, which the latter won in the last half minute of the time, and an exhibition by Raymond and Charles Burns, the 11 and 13-year-old sons of the farmer, The Pete Loch quartet furnished the music by singing selections during the intermissions.
