J. BROWN HAS A BUSY DAY

Files Thirty-Four More Petitions for Injunctions Against Liquor Dealers.

TWELVE OF THE VICTIMS ESCAPE

Served with Notice of Suit, but When Time Comes the Kansas Crusader Neglects to File the Petitions Against Them.

"That will be all," remarked J. Brown yesterday afternoon as he filed with the clerk of the district court thirty-four more petitions in injunction suits against saloonmen and others. With the twenty-seven filed Wednesday, Brown has now filed sixty-one liquor injunction suits for the month of March. The defendants named in the petitions filed yesterday are: G. W. Moore and Ellen W. Crow, Joseph McClurg, Neumayer & Mergen, John Mergen and Mrs. Mossier, H. J. Heiler, M. Kempkes, Max Olsen, L. Rosenfeldt Co., Wilson Clark and Charles Schloegel, James Mithen, Fred Pries, Matthiessen & Co., Ed Murphy, Charles Mariens, Stella Long, W. A. Wells, Fred Eapp, James Hill, Benjamin Donley, Grace Wright, Nellie Cheney, John Mergen and Sam Snyder, August Kaven, F. W. Welsh, William Pfaff, Peter Schwennohn, Steffen & Van Heel, Wilmott & Bennett, H. A. Yegge, Kennedy & Davis, Joseph Wolff, Max Meyer & Co., Mrs. Anna Karer, H. J. Krohn.

Those on whom Brown served notice of suit, but has not filed petitions, are: Gus Wendlandt, Jarvis Wine company, M. Weisteln, E. Rogers & Son, Sherman & Healy, Jessie Williams, C. Geise & Son, Lela Conolly, Frances D. Webster, E. W. Hart, receiver of Grand Hotel, Charles Moldamer, B. Marks and C. Poore.

H. W. Butterfield, who operated a saloon in connection with the "K. C." house on South Main street from April, 1899 to March, 1903, brought suit in the district court yesterday against John Linder, a wholesale liquor dealer to recover the sum of $13,028.50, which Butterfield alleges he paid Linder for liquor. He says that he made a demand on Linder on January 14 of this year for the return of the money, which he had paid him and that Linder had declined to hand it back to him. Under the Iowa prohibitory law a person can recover any and all money paid for liquor, the sale of the same being illegal under the statutes.

Two Seek Divorces.

Beatie Knight filed suit for divorce from George Knight to whom she was married July 27, 1904, in Omaha. She charges among other things that the defendant was feeble minded and idiotic when he entered into the marriage relation with her. Nellie E. Jones seeks a divorce from Bud Jones to whom she was married October 24, 1901, in Pacific Junction, Ia. She charges cruel and inhuman treatment on the part of her husband, who abandoned her and their two children, the custody of whom she asks, on March 3 of this year.

H. A. Otto, bridge foreman for the Northwestern railroad, instituted suit yesterday against Otto N. Applegate, a Broadway grocer, to recover damages for the loss of the money which he had placed against Otto and sent same out of the state for collection, which it is alleged was in violation of the Iowa law. He also garnished Otto's wages from the railway company. William Schmoeck and William Curry, carpenters, are made defendants in a suit brought by Charles Mortensen to recover $400. Mortensen claims that he purchased four hogs from the defendants, which later were found to be suffering from cholera. All of his other hogs contracted the disease and the plaintiff alleges that as a result he lost $600 worth of porkers.

Mrs. Nora Keller was granted a divorce from J. W. Keller and the custody of their two minor children. The plaintiff alleged cruel and inhuman treatment. The defendant was ordered to pay $3 a month towards the support of the children.

The city council will meet in committee of the whole this evening principally for the purpose of considering the offers of C. T. Peavey & Co. and J. P. Greenfields and George H. Mayne to purchase the 100 or more lots owned by the city on Lower Broadway. Mr. Peavey and his associates, whoever they may be, made an offer of $1 for the entire number of lots, and as a further consideration will assume all special assessments for paving and other public improvements which may be levied against the lots. Messrs. Mayne and Greenfields offered $50 for the lots and are willing to pay all assessments for public improvements against the property. It has been estimated that the assessments for paving, etc., against each lot will amount to about $25. It is expected that the Council Bluffs De-

Saunders' Indeterminate Sentence Bill is Favorably Reported. CURB PUT ON CORPORATION POLITICS. Bill Goes to Governor Prohibiting Them from Contributing to Campaign Funds—Primary Bill Introduced.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., March 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Saunders' indeterminate sentence law will be reported for passage tomorrow, the senate committee so voting this afternoon. The house committee voted to recommend it. The house this afternoon passed the senate bill prohibiting corporations from contributing to political campaigns. Grier of Potosi in the house this afternoon introduced an anti-pass bill similar to the Hughes bill in the senate, and the committee on railroads this afternoon also voted to recommend for passage a substitute for the reciprocal demurrage bill. Petitions are being circulated and signed by nearly every member from the Tenth district for Representative W. S. Haskell (Special.) of the United States district attorney for northern Iowa. No vote was reached this afternoon in the senate on the Board of Regents bill.

SCHOOL BOARD TICKETS ARE NAMED

Republicans on First Ballot and Democrats by Acclamation. These candidates for members of the Board of Education were placed in nomination last night: Republican—T. J. Shugart, W. H. Killpack, S. S. Elliott, Democrat—M. L. Bartel, J. Keppner, A. Bellinger.

The republicans met in the county court house, the gathering being presided over by George S. Wright, with J. J. Ferguson as secretary. The names of Frank Egan, T. J. Shugart, W. H. Killpack, G. W. Gorman, Andrew McMillen and S. S. Elliott were placed in nomination. On the first ballot Shugart received 23 votes; Killpack, 20; Elliott, 15; McMillen, 12; Gorman, 18; and Egan, 13. Shugart, Killpack and Elliott were declared nominees. T. J. Shugart is one of the retiring three members of the board. Recently he announced that he would not accept a renomination, but it is understood that his friends have persuaded him otherwise. W. H. Killpack is former county attorney and S. S. Elliott is secretary of the Harle-Haus Drug company. The ticket is conceded to be an exceptionally strong one.

The democrats gathered at the city hall with Councilman Oscar Younkerman in the chair and Lee Evans acting as secretary. The three candidates were nominated by acclamation. M. L. Bartel is a member of the grocery firm of Bartel & Miller. Julius Keppner is also proprietor of a grocery store and A. Bellinger is a traveling agent and old time resident of the Sixth ward.

Insists on Punishing Wives.

In the house today Teter of Marion introduced a bill to punish wives who desert their husbands, the bill providing such punishment in case the husband is destitute and the wife has money. Teter tried to get the wife desertion bill passed yesterday, so as to provide punishment for wives, but failing introduced his "husband desertion" bill today. Meredith of Cass introduced a bill compelling street railways to allow all interurbans to enter over their tracks, and have in failure to agree on the compensation for such privilege the railroad commission shall fix the compensation.

Bills Pass the Senate.

The bill to permit the establishment of superior courts at Shenandoah, Perry and Grinnell was passed by the senate today by a vote of 35 to 5, those opposing being Jones, Burgess, Eckles, Peterson and Whipple. An attempt was made by Warren to get it amended so as to include towns of 3,000 which would have made it apply to twelve of fourteen cities. The bill relating to the civil service law as to police and fire departments apply to cities of 20,000 or more was passed by the senate today. It was called up by Senator Saunders of Council Bluffs, which city is interested in the bill. The bill also puts the fire chief under the civil service as well as the rest of the department.

Primary Special Order.

In the senate today when the primary election bill was reported out for passage by the elections committee it was made special order for next Tuesday morning and 300 extra copies of the bill ordered printed. It is the opinion of many of the members that it will go to the governor for his signature within ten days. The bill as perfected and presented to the state by the senate committee, in brief for a state-wide primary, all state officers, all judicial officers, all county officers; preference for United States senator; electors for president and vice president; delegates to party political conventions, also party committees, all to be chosen at the primary. The primaries are to be held on first Tuesday after first Monday in June; all parties at same time and same voting places.

Hearing on Rates.

George H. Crosby was one of the first witnesses before the railroad commission which opened its hearing on the freight rate investigation today. The commission met yesterday at 10 o'clock in the question, that being the date previously announced. Mr. Crosby spoke chiefly on the live stock rate and he made the claim that the difference in the present rate and the reduction asked by the Corn Belt Meat Producers' association was so little as to be insignificant as applied only to Iowa hogs, and that the railroad was interested only as it affected the interstate rates. Clifford Thorne of Washington, Ia., appears for the cattle men. The hearings will continue probably a month or more, during which time it is the intention of the Iowa Lumber Dealers Advocate Calm and Careful Consideration. SIOUX CITY, Ia., March 7.—(Special Telegram.)—In a somewhat startling outburst of sympathy for the much abused railroads, the Northwestern Iowa Retail Lumber Dealers' association, in annual session today, adopted by a unanimous vote unusual resolutions, taking the side of the railroads and refusing to endorse the reciprocal demurrage scheme to hasten shipments of lumber from the west, although it had been confidently expected the association would take a hard rap at the railroads. Charles Pinkine of Des Moines was chairman of the committee on resolutions, whose report was adopted in spite of the fact that three-fourths of the members declared their business to be crippled because shipments of lumber from Washington and Oregon are delayed en route on account of the failure of the coast lines to furnish cars. The resolutions advocate "calm and careful consideration before endorsement of anti-railroad legislation as popular during the prevalent veritable whiffing of vituperation and invective against the transportation companies." The resolutions call for the "laying aside of all prejudices and malice," and pledge the members to assist the railroads to solve the shipping problem "by refraining from endorsing or encouraging any ill considered legislation." Two hundred dealers were here from all parts of the state.

MIXING CASE HEARING IS SET

Application for Appointment of a Receiver Will Be Heard This Month. SIOUX CITY, March 6.—(Special Telegram.)—Judge Oliver has set March 19 as the date for a hearing to determine whether his appointment of A. B. Beall of Sioux City as receiver for the Sioux City and Rock Springs Mining company should stand. In the meantime the company's books will be in charge of I. Struble of Le Mars, attorney for the mining company. E. E. Thomas of Omaha assisted Mr. Struble in court today.

Widow is Awarded Eleven Hundred and Fifty Dollars Damages.

WATERLOO, Ia., March 7.—(Special Telegram.)—After deliberating eight hours the jury in the case of Mrs. Margaret Long of this city against the Waterloo & Cedar Falls Gas and Electric Light company, returned a verdict granting the plaintiff $1,150. Mr. Long was electrocuted while cleaning snow from the roof of one of the state normal buildings on the morning of January 15, 1906. The suit was for $10,000.

FIVE OVERCOME BY COAL GAS

Family Near Death as Result of Leak in Hard Coal Burner. CEDAR FALLS, Ia., March 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Mrs. Dora Eling, her three sons and one daughter, all adults, were found early this morning overcome by coal gas. It is probable that all will die. Tonight all are still unconscious. The women, who slept below, are nearer death than the men, who occupied the second floor. The gas leaked from a hard coal burner.

Debate at Ames.

AMES, Ia., March 7.—(Special.)—The annual triennial debate with the Iowa State college, Drake university and Iowa college of Grinnell will occur this year on Friday night, March 15. The affirmative team of the Iowa State college will debate against a Grinnell team at home. The members are: A. E. Berggren of Marshalltown, L. C. Schmitt of Wayland and J. S. Haskell of Des Moines. The negative team is composed of C. V. Gregory of Burchinal, A. C. Stelle of Pasadena, Cal., and G. T. Guthrie of Coin, Ia. The team is hard at work preparing and will be in excellent form when the debate occurs. The question is: "Resolved, that the American Cities Should Own Their Street Railways."

Agricultural Society Elects.

MISSOURI VALLEY, Ia., March 7.—(Special.)—The Harrison County Agricultural society held its forty-ninth annual election of officers in this city yesterday. After devoting a few minutes to reports the election of officers for the ensuing year was taken up, with the following results: C. H. Deur, president; F. Zahner, vice president; W. H. Withrow, secretary; J. S. McAvary, treasurer. A resolution was then adopted expressing the deep regret caused by the retiring of the former president, E. F. James, and stating that "we fully realize that it is due almost entirely to his untiring efforts and unselfish zeal that the society has been held together and made a success."

Prof. Bissel Resigns.

AMES, Ia., March 7.—(Special.)—Prof. G. W. Bissel, who has held the chair of mechanical engineering at the Iowa State college for the last sixteen years, has handed in notice of his resignation, to take effect at the close of the school year. He has accepted a position with the Michigan Agricultural school, where he will be professor of mechanical engineering and dean of the engineering college. The advantages of Lansing, where the college is situated, in furnishing consultation work was a factor in his determination to leave Ames. He is one of the best men on the engineering faculty and will be sadly missed at Iowa State college.

Good Roads for Pennsylvania.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 7.—A joint resolution, proposing an amendment to the state constitution so as to authorize a $25,000,000 bond issue for good roads, was reported favorably in the house today.

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER

CONSTIPATION

I can tell a person who is constipated on sight. Their complexion is pasty or yellow. Their eyes are dull, and their look and feel sleep. No wonder they do. The bowels are a sewer. They carry away the poisonous refuse. If they don't act the poisonous matter is absorbed by the body, and headaches, dullness, bad complexion and eventually serious troubles result.

There is no better rule for good health than that the bowels should move every day at the same hour if possible. Regularity can be acquired by making a habit of this. Foolish people neglect this and when chronic constipation affects them they take pills every few days to force the bowels to perform their natural functions. As years go on they require more and more pills. This should be stopped. Cooper's New Discovery will build up the stomach and cause the bowels to act naturally. While taking the medicine get the habit of regularity, then gradually stop taking the medicine.

SAMUEL BOOREN

Here is a sample of letters from those who have tried it: "For sixteen years I have suffered from stomach and liver trouble, and chronic constipation. I had frequent headaches and I always felt tired and worn out. I heard of Cooper's New Discovery and began its use. After I had finished one bottle I was wonderfully improved. Constipation gave way to a pleasing regularity of the bowels and I ate better, slept better and felt better than I had for months. It is the greatest medicine I have ever known." Samuel Booren, 115 Muncy Ave., Scranton, Pa. Our customers who have used them say the Cooper medicines do the work. We sell them. BEATOR DRUG COMPANY, Corner 10th and Farnam Sts., Omaha, Neb.
