B. B. TEETERS HANGS HIMSELF

Goes Into Basement Ostensibly to Start Furnace and Ends His Life.

Suffering from an attack of despondency. B. B. Teeters, aged 49 years, hung himself to a beam in the basement of his home, 614 South Twenty-ninth street, early Friday morning, and was found later by his wife and another occupant of the building, dead. Teeters had risen at 5 o'clock and at that time betrayed no signs of a despondent feeling. He went into the basement to start the fire and in a short time Mrs. Teeters heard the steam rise, when she began to prepare breakfast.

When all was ready she sought to call him, but received no response. She lives on the second floor and the occupants on the first floor told her they had heard a peculiar noise in the basement. Descending the stairway they discovered the body.

Teeters had been obliged to draw up his legs in order tighten the rope attached Coroner Brailey took harge of the body.

SCALY SORES AS BIG AS PENNIES

Covered Whole Head and Neck After an Attack of Measles-Hair All Came Out - Doctor's Treatment Had No Effect-Suffered 6 Months

CURED IN 3 WEEKS BY CUTICURA COSTING $1.50

"After having the measies my whole head and neck were covered with scaly sores about as large as a penny. They were just as thick as they could be. My hair all came out. I let the trouble run along, taking the doctor's blood remedies and rubbing on salve, but it did not seem to get any better. It stayed that way for about aix months; then I got a set of the Cutioura Remedies, and in about a week I noticed a big difference, and in three weeks it was well entirely and I have not had the trouble any more, and as this was seven years ago, I consider myself cured. I used one bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, one box of Cuticura Cintment, and two cakes of Cuticura Soap. I think it a splendid medicine, and I recommend it whenever I can. To Prove He Was a Sport. A Denver hotel man tells the following story, and he says it's true: A few days ago a bride and bridegroom from the country registered at the hotel.

"What are your rates for room and board for two?" asked the bridegroom. "Six dollars," was the reply. That was satisfactory, and the two got a room. When they decided to leave the bridegroom asked for his bill. It was $24.

He was staggered. "What!" he ejaculated. "Twenty-four dollars! That's an outrage. You said $6." "Bix dollars a day," came from the clerk, "Six dollars a day!" the bridegroom aimost shouted. "I thought you meant $6 a week." The clerk simply smiled. Finally the bridegroom paid over the money. "Now," he said, calming down somewhat, "wait a minute. I want to go upstairs. Keep that money in your hand." The clerk didn't understand, but he decided to humor the man. The latter soon returned with a camera. Aiming it at the cierk, he took a picture.

"This is the highest priced place I ever stopped at," he explained. "I just wanted a picture to show my friends that I was a rea! sport here in Denver." Then he and his bride gathered up their
