Foreign Financial. Foreign Financial. LONDON, March 12.—In the marked today the supplies of money were ample to meet the increased Stock exchange demand. Discounts were firm, owing to the weak New York exchange. The tone on the Stock exchange generally was cheerful. The plentiful supplies of money crabled the carry-over to be arranged on Americans being 6% per cent. Americans were the firmest section of the Stock ex-change today. Operators were cheered by the better news from New York and more active than for days past. Quota-tions during the forenoon reached nearly a point over parity in many cases. United States Steel and Union Pacific re-verk beught well and prices further im-proved and closed firm. The fortheom-ing loans checked trading in British se-curities, while dear money fears and tho talk of an advance in the Bank of Lag-anses imperial 6s of 1904 closing at 1024. Dry Goods Market

Dry Goods Market. NEW YORK, March 11.-DRY GOODS-The dry goods market continues strong, with further advances made in bleached goods and prints. The carpet trade is strong and the proposed union of ingrain. Interests is about accomplished. Cotton yarns have been showing weakness in some markets, but prices here are unchanged. Miscellaneous export trade is better, but Chins markets are still quiet. A very large volume of sliks has been placed under-order and sold this year to date in this market.
