DEMAREST BEATS CONKLIN

Chicago Man New Has Four Victories and No Defeats in His Cosre.

HE PLAYS WITH GARDNER TONIGHT

Should the Champton Win the Match Will Be a Tie and an Extra Game Will Be Neces-BATT.

NEW YORK, March 12.-Calvin Demarest Chleago won his fourth game at the Liederkranz club tonight. He defeated Charles F. Conklin, his club mate from the Chicago Athletic association 300 to 127. Tomorrow night Damarest will play the final game of the series with Edward W. Gardner, the present holder of the title. Demarest looks like a winner, as he has won four straight games and lost none, but should Gardner beat him tomorrow night, Demarest and Gardner would be fled for first honors, and a playoff will be necessary. Dr. Mial and J. F. Poggenburg will play off their tie for fourth place tomorrow so that the tournament likely will be finished tomorrow night.

Denurest Wins Bank, Demarest won the bank and scored two, but fell down on a seemingly easy draw. He left the balls widely scattered, however, and Conklin was unable to score. Finally in the tenth Demarest got the ivories going to his liking and by nursing them carefully, ran up to 66, when he went wide on a long two-cushion attempt. Conklin then nursed the balls to good purpose until he was forced to drive for position in his thirty-fourth shoot. The score at favor of Conklin. Demarest reached the first hundred mark in his eleventh, but failed to score in the following inning, but Conklin drew two blanks on his next attempts. Demarest stopped after he had added 17 to his score

WHY SAM DIDN'T KNOW BID Good Story of How Crawford Chopped Up the Pace of McPhee.

Big Sam Crawford of the Detroit club was formerly a barber and worked at his trade at Wahoo until he was signed by Cincinnati. He has a breezy western way about him and is one of the most confiding ball players in the profession. When the Cincinnati management sent the famous old second baseman, Biddy McPhee, out to Sam's home in Nebraska to get his signature to a contract, Biddy found Sam hard Demarest made a beautiful run of 37 in at work stropping a razor when he entered his sixteenth inning, but missed on a masse. the shop. Without disclosing his identity Conklin did not score in his half of this McPhee climbed up in a chair and called inning. Demarest scored on his fourteenth for a shave. The mention of Bill Lange's name recently in connection with the San Francisco ball club calls to mind an incident which happened a few days after Bill had been playing in the Chicago outfield. Bill, who in those days was just fresh from the Pacific coast, was a big, bashful fellow and with no indications of ever turning out to be the brash cut-up he afterward became. to be the brash cut-up he afterward became.

Anson had him playing in center field, with Jimmy Canavan on third. It was noticed that whenever Lange got the hall he would invariably fire it to Canavan, no matter what the proper play was.

At last Anson, driven to desporation by Bill's peculiar actions, rushed out to him and excitedly shouted: "Hey, there, you big lobster! What d'ye mean by throwing that ball to Canavan all the time?"

"Why, Cap.," politiely repiled Lange, "Mr. Canavan's the only gentleman I'm acquainted with on the team!"

It seems that the California code of politeness required introductions all around and Hill didn't want to be accused of deficiency in etiquette.

Dwight Williams and George Wright re-turned Wednesday from a two days hunt-ing trip on the Platte, near Clarks. They brought back the limit and the magnificent bag included mallards, pintalls, test and platte as going down, os the hunters are able to get around with breast waders.

BOSTON, March 18.—The Harvard over-seers decided today in favor of a continu-ance of the international collegiate ath-letics, including foot ball, at the university, under certain restrictions, especially with reference to the professional coaching sys-tem and the manner of contests.
