BOOSTERS' CLUB BANQUET

Most Notable Event in the History of the Local Organization.

NATIONAL FIGURES ON THE PROGRAM

ingressman Gardiner Reviews Work of Congress and Congressman Littlefield Discusses the Corporations.

Brilliant oratory, sparkling wit and abundant evidence of good fellowship marked the fourth banquet of the Council Bluffer Commercial club last night at the Grand hotel. With a member of the national house of representatives presiding as toastmaster, with two noted congressmen and a former congressman on the program addresses, with two more members of the national house of representatives and other prominent men among the guests, the banquet was undoubtedly the most notable event in the four years' history of the organization familiary known as "The Boosters."

Some regret was naturally manifested at the inability of General Grenville M Dodge and Congressman Cushman of Washington, both of whom had places or the platform, to be present, but with Congressman Walter I. Smith as toastmaster and addresses by Congressmen Washington Gardiner of Michigan and C. E. Littlefield of Maine and ex-Congressman M. J. Wade of Iowa City, those fortunate enough to be present last night were royally enter-

The banquet was served in the large ball room of the hotel, the officers of the club, speakers and prominent guests being seated at one large table at the head of the room while 230 others were seated at small tables which extended into the hallway and the ordinary adjoining. The decorations were extremely striking and effective, a color scheme of green and yelbeing carried out. Lighted candles with colored shades and centerpieces of flowers graced the tables.

There are many people who can see nothing good in a doughnut except the hole. For them there is nothing in this world but calamity. Their greatest trouble is to have to eat three times a day. The stomach is in rebellion, and this is immediately shown in a man's face. A man to be successful must have sunshine inside. The world already has too many dyspepsia faces that breathe disaster and Stomach trouble is the most commo cause of discontent, sour face, recklessness, disgust and lack of ambition. A bad stomach-there is the secret of many a failure. Anyone can have a good stomach, a strong stomach, a stomach that can take care of anything and everything that is put into it, no matter whether it is a very bad stomach or not Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this very thing. One ingredient of these little tablets digests 5,000 grains of food, and no matter how bad your dyspepsia or indigestion, they will digest everything in your stomach, thoroughly and completely, and better and more quickly than a good strong healthy stomach can do it. AGREE ON ANTI-TRUST BIL

in the Senate.

ANTI-GRAFT BILL GOES THROUGH HOUSE

Senators Much Worried Because Newspapers Print News of What is Done in Executive Seaston.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, March 16 .- (Special.)-The house today concurred in the senate amendments to the Stillman bill prohibiting combinations of corporations or persons were minor matters, correcting the mine workers today. A resolution passed phraseology of the bill where there were provides that workmen will be justified some errors, but making no change in the in striking if an operator refuses to accept provisions of the bill. This completes the a colored miner because of his color. Anlast formality in the enactment of the other resolution passed raises the age limit law with the exception of the governor's of admission of boys to the mines from signature, and it is believed it will receive 14 to 16 and that provision will be dethis without delay.

May Veto Firegracker Bill. Offill's firecracker bill may yet fall by the wayside. Governor Cummins has not vetoed it, but there is an intimation floating about that he is giving it some very careful consideration and thus far has not gotten himself exactly in sympathy with the provisions of the measure. It has been in his hands some days now and has not been acted upon.

Anti-Graft Bill Passed. The house passed the Hambleton antitipping bill, which its author declared he preferred should be called an anti-graft bill. He claimed to the house that it did much more than prohibit the tips given at restaurants and sleeping cars. That it prohibits public officials accepting a rakeoff or commission on the side and prohibiting any other person not acting for himself, but as an agent or representative taking a rake-off or commission on the Hunters' License Bill. Two hours were spent by the house discussing the hunters' license bill and during the discussion about a score of amendments were offered to the bill. It was finally passed with but slight amendment. Every farmer member of the house was afraid the bill would make it lawful for any person with a license to come upon his premises and hunt without permission, Senate's Dignity Assailed. The fact that the newspapers generally committee to which the nomination of Friday in executive session caused some emmotion for a time today.
