SCHOOL BOARD MEETS TONIGHT

Emmet Tinley Will Be Elected President to Succeed G. W. Westerdahl.

The Board of Education will meet tonight to canvass the vote cast last Monday at the school election and to reorganize. T. J. Shugart succeeds himself, while W. H. Killpack and S. S. Elliott will fill the places made vacant by the retirement of G. W. Westerdahl, president of the board, and W. S. Cooper.

It is stated that Emmet Tinley is slated for the presidency of the board to succeed Mr. Westerdahl. It has been customary in the past to give the presidency to a member whose term expires the following year. J. P. Hess and N. P. Anderson are the two members whose terms expire in 1908. Mr. Hess has twice been honored by being made president and it is understood that Mr. Anderson declined the position in favor of Mr. Tinley, whose term does not expire until 1909. As there is a large amount of building to be done during the next twelve months, it was the desire of the members that Mr. Anderson remain on the committee on buildings and grounds, of which he has been chairman the last year.

Probably following the custom in recent years, the board will elect a superintendent and principal of the high school, it being understood that Superintendent Clifford and Principal Thomas will be re-elected without the slightest opposition.

INSPECTION OF LIGHT GUARDS

Company L Expected to Make Its Usually Fine Showing Tonight.

The annual inspection of the Dodge Light guards, forming Company L, Fifty-fifth Iowa National guard, will be held this evening at the armory on Pearl street and Fifth avenue.

The inspection will be conducted by Captain Edwin Lucas of Company M of the Fifty-fourth regiment, state survey officer of the Iowa National guard; Major J. A. Olmsted of Des Moines, who has been detailed from the regular army for several years to assist in the inspection of the guard; Major M. A. Tinley of this city, major of the First battalion of the Fifty-fifth regiment, and Lieutenant P. L. Van Order of this city, adjutant of the second battalion of the Fifty-fifth regiment.

During the afternoon the inspecting officers will look over the equipment of the company, which is identical with that issued to the regular army. The drill inspection will take place in the evening. Captain S. A. Greene has been putting his men through some hard work in preparation of the inspection and the company is expected to make its usual fine showing.

Largest Mail on Record.

The Union Pacific fast mail left the transfer yesterday afternoon with the heaviest mail in the history of the road on board. The mail weighed 106½ tons and it was necessary to put on an additional car. The train is usually made up of seven cars, but yesterday eight were necessary. Engine No. 25 pulled the train out, with Engineer Hollenbeck and Conductor Powers in charge. The train is due to leave at 1:37 p. m., but it was 3 o'clock before the mail could be loaded. The westbound mail has been steadily increasing for some time. Saturday there were seventy tons and on Friday fifty-four tons.

ACTIVE CAMPAIGN FOR FUNDS

New Features and Methods to Be Injected Into Y. M. C. A. Canvass.

PLAN TO RAISE $11,000 THIS WEEK

Mass Meeting Will Be Held at the New Theater Sunday Afternoon—Pictures and Banners to Be Used.

New features and methods will be injected this week into the Young Men's Christian association building fund campaign, which is to be waged with increased vigor by the committees in charge. Those in charge of the campaign are arranging for the use of the New theater next Sunday afternoon in which to hold a mass meeting. If the arrangements do not fall through, the meeting will be held at 3 o'clock, and there will be a number of good speakers and special music. The meeting is to be advertised by signs on the street cars and an immense sign will be stretched across Broadway at the intersection of Pearl street.

The committee is also planning to show a number of stereopticon views of the exterior and interior of the Young Men's Christian association building on the street some night during the week. The views will probably be shown at Broadway and Fourth street. By this means, it is expected to arouse the interest of the citizens generally in the project.

The soliciting committees will not renew the canvass for funds until this afternoon, when two committees will start out. The canvass will be kept up during the entire week. Returns are expected during the week from the circular letters with subscription blanks attached, which were distributed at nearly every home in the city Saturday by the boys of the high school and other volunteers.

The following will comprise the soliciting committees this week: F. J. Day, J. F. Wilcox, R. B. Wallace, Joe W. Smith, F. C. Riker, H. G. McGee, T. N. Peterson, Prof. E. R. Jackson, E. H. Doolittle, E. L. Empkie, C. A. Beno, V. E. Bender, H. A. Quinn, Prof. O. J. McManus, W. H. Killpack, Dell G. Morgan, F. R. Davis, S. F. Henry, Ed Canning, W. J. Leverett, Dr. H. B. Jennings and Rev. James O'May.

With the fund now past the $19,000 mark, the committee has strong hopes of increasing it to $20,000 by the end of the week. President Day and other officers of the association are now confident that a Young Men's Christian association building for Council Bluffs is an assured fact.

Arrested for Reckless Riding.

Carl Grace, a young lad, was arrested yesterday afternoon on the double charge of reckless riding on a public thoroughfare and using obscene language. Grace, with two lads, were racing their ponies on the newly paved portion of Lower Broadway, when called to halt by Officer Smith. As the boys were mounted and the officer was on foot, they decided to give him, in the parlance of the street, "the horse laugh," as they put spurs to their steeds and galloped away. When thus bidding adieu to the officer they indulged in language which under the city ordinances is classed as obscene. The boys rode west. Officer Smith boarded a motor bound for Omaha and overhauled the lads at Thirty-fourth street. They were not looking for him and he managed to grab the bridle of young Grace's mount before he could get away. The other two boys, however, fled as soon as they spied the officer.

Funeral of Robert McPherson.

The funeral of Robert McPherson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McPherson, held yesterday afternoon from the family residence on East Pierce street, was attended by a large gathering of friends of the deceased and the bereaved family. The services were conducted by Rev. H. W. Starr, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, assisted in the music by Mrs. L. R. Hypes, Mrs. W. W. Sherman and Mrs. N. O. Ward. The casket was almost covered with the many beautiful floral offerings. Interment was in Walnut Hill cemetery, the pallbearers being Lawrence Williams, Allen Dudley, Thomas Stringer and James Deshler. The honorary pallbearers were Roy Wilcox, Lewis Cotton, Will Knapp and Charles Reynolds, members of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, of which the deceased was a member at Ames university.

Explosion Sets Fire to House.

The explosion of a lamp in the dining room gave the fire department a run last night to the brick residence at 126 East Broadway occupied by James W. Overton and family and owned by Charles Huber. The family was absent at church and the flames had eaten their way to the attic before an alarm was turned in by the patrolman on the beat, who noticed smoke issuing from the windows. The blaze was quickly extinguished after the arrival of the firemen. The furniture in the dining room was more or less damaged and the woodwork was badly scorched. The damage is said to be covered by insurance.

Pretends to Be an Officer.

L. B. Anderson and Henry Myers, two young bloods from a neighboring town, ran foul of the police at an early hour Sunday morning and each was glad to deposit $25 as appearance money for his appearance in police court this morning. It is expected that the city treasurer will be benefited to the extent of $50, as they are not expected to show up. The young men created a disturbance in a resort at the corner of Broadway and Bryant street, where Anderson is said to have essayed the role of an officer. He flourished a revolver and the additional charge of carrying concealed weapons was placed against his name. When Officer Arnold was called to the place Anderson was inclined to be a bit troublesome, but when a second officer appeared on the scene he capitulated.

SOUTH DAKOTA CAR SHORTAGE

Railroad Commission Will Consider Complaints of Grain Men at Meeting Next Week.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., March 17.—(Special.)—Considerable business of importance will come up for consideration at the regular monthly meeting of the State Board of Railroad Commissioners, which will be held at the headquarters of the commission in this city on the 28th inst. One of the principal matters to receive attention will be the car shortage which yet exists in the state, grain men and other shippers being greatly inconvenienced at many points in the state by the slowness with which they are able to secure empty cars for loading. At numerous points elevators are filled to the bursting point and the purchasing of grain has ceased because there is no more room to store it. The railroad companies appear to be doing everything possible to relieve the situation, which at some points has reached the acute stage. Regular routine matters also will be disposed of by the board during the meeting.

After having consumed a day in listening to the arguments, the State Board of Railroad Commissioners has taken under advisement a case involving some unusually fine points of law.

The case involves the construction of a sidetrack on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad at a point midway between the towns of Salem and Canova. The construction of the proposed sidetrack is being stoutly opposed by the railroad company, not alone upon the ground of the expense attached to it, but on other grounds which involve the extent of the jurisdiction of the State Board of Railroad Commissioners.

A clause in the state law prevents the ordering in of sidetracks between stations which are less than twelve miles apart. In deciding this case the railroad commissioners will be required to define the meaning of the word "station." The station buildings at Salem and Canova are a trifle over twelve miles apart, but the boundaries of the station grounds at the two points are considerably less than twelve miles apart, and the railroad company therefor contends that the railroad commissioners have not the power to order that the sidetrack be constructed.

RAILROAD BILLS IN IOWA

House Committees Have Acted Favorably on Thirteen Important Measures.

FOUR PASS HOUSE AND ONE THE SENATE

Primary Election Law Introduced by Cummins Men is Special Order in Senate Today and House Tomorrow.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, March 17.—(Special.)—Committee work will end in both houses with the coming week and the bulk of it was over with by last night. Whether there are to be three or four more weeks of the session remains to be seen, but it is now apparently agreed that adjournment cannot be reached before April 6 at least, and probably not till April 13, which would make the session one of thirteen weeks, just as it usually is. At any rate, after this week the business on hand will consist largely of passing bills. In both houses most of the big measures have already been put out of the hands of the committees and are on the calendar in one form or another.

Railroad measures, for which this legislature is likely to be known in the future, will be concluded so far as the house committees are concerned on Monday next, according to Chairman Meredith. The biggest of the measures have already been acted upon. Here is a list of the bills which the house railroads committee has acted upon at this session recommending passage:

Two-cent fare bill.
Anti-pass bill.
Reciprocal demurrage bill on live stock.
Bill fixing rates for sleeping car companies.
Bill providing that terminal facilities shall be open to all roads.
Bill requiring street car terminals be open to all interurbans.
Conn bill putting express companies under the railroad commission.
White bill, permitting the commission to prosecute interstate discriminations before the Interstate Commerce commission.
Bill providing that railroads must report all accidents at once to the railroad commission and the governor.
Bill requiring that weeds be killed along right-of-way.
Limiting hours of employment of trainmen.
Teter bill, relating to lost baggage.
A bill requiring shelters opposite depots where there are double tracks.

The 2-cent fare bill, reciprocal demurrage bill, anti-pass bill, and bill requiring that reports be made at once of accidents to the commission and the governor, all have passed the house, and the 2-cent fare bill has passed the senate. The senate has passed but one or two minor measures, among them the bill requiring shelters opposite depots where there are double tracks. This has been acted upon by the house committee. All the other measures are on the house calendar and it is anticipated will be made special order and acted upon early next week.

Primary Law Next.

The primary election law is special order in the senate for tomorrow and in the house for Tuesday. The measure, as it stands on the calendar at this time, is a progressive measure pure and simple, and the question is what will become of it in the discussion that will ensue. The measure will meet its fate this week. Though written by the Cummins men they do not have enough votes to pass it in either house without the aid either of the democrats or the standpatters. It is probable in its present form the bill could get the votes of a number of the democrats, but there is probably not one standpatter in the senate, aside from Crossley, who would vote for it as it is now, and in the house there is not more than three or four. The Cummins men have about twenty votes for it in the senate and it must have twenty-six to pass and become a law. In the house the Cummins men have forty-six or forty-seven votes, and they must have fifty-five in order to pass the measure there. It therefore becomes a question whether the democrats or the standpatters will assist in the passage of the bill. The Cummins men, it is believed, now must compromise with either one or the other to get their bill through. In view of the fact that the primary is asked for in the platform of the republican party it is not believed that the standpatters will allow the Cummins men to pass their measure with the democratic vote in opposition to the standpatters. The democratic platform also declares for a primary and therefore as soon as the Cummins men have made terms with one, it is believed that the other will come in and vote for the measure.

The question being discussed is just what the compromise will be. The Cummins men want a plurality measure. The standpatters and democrats want a majority measure. The compromise will likely be a plurality measure with a minimum of one-third or one-fourth. It is thought that the standpatters will consent to a plurality law with a minimum requirement of one-fourth, and the Cummins men will treat with the forces that will make it the lowest.

To Test Matter Soon.

A test of the question of whether or not there is to be created a department of insurance or whether the insurance business will be left with the state auditor is to come soon in the senate. The bills removing the banking department to the state treasurer's office and the municipal accounts department to the secretary of state's office, which bills contemplate leaving the insurance business with the state auditor, are in direct conflict with the bill by the insurance commission, backed by the petitions of scores of insurance men to create a separate department of insurance with a commissioner in charge appointed by the governor. They are on the calendar and the opposing forces are to fight it out soon. The bill creating a department of insurance must yet be passed upon by the appropriations committee and it is not at all unlikely that it may be handicapped in the fight by an adverse report from that committee, which can find many other ways for using its funds.

Agricultural Schools Likely.

It seems now more than likely that Iowa is about to enter on the innovation of providing for four agricultural high schools in the four quarters of the state to be feeders to the State Agricultural college at Ames. At first the proposal met with opposition, for it meant money. This has been gotten past by providing for a millage tax of one-tenth of a mill, which is expected to erect one high school every year for four years. The first will likely be built at Red Oak, the home of Judge Deemer of the supreme court, who originated the idea. The argument is that the present schools educate the boy away from the farms and that scientific farm education would keep the boys on the farms and would result in the farmers dividing their large farms into smaller ones for their boys. With the direct appropriation feature cut out the members of the legislature are taking up with the idea.

Claim Seventy Votes in House.

Friends of the bill to consolidate the management of the state educational institutions under one board of regents are claiming that they have seventy votes for the measure in the house and that it will pass there. Seventy votes would give it a clear majority of sixteen votes. Those who are opposing the measure declare that it is going to fail and is growing weaker every day. The bill has passed the senate. It passed the senate last year and was killed in the house. It was at first claimed that it would pass the house last year, but the longer it was delayed the weaker grew the sentiment for the measure, and it failed. Koontz, the democratic member from Johnson, where the state university is located, is fighting the measure, though it is claimed that the state university authorities are for the bill. Stillman, a republican from Greene county, is against the bill, and both are predicting that it will be killed.

Harlan Bill Monday.

The bill to provide for placing a statue of Senator Harlan in statuary hall at Washington has been made a special order on the house calendar for Monday at 10 o'clock.

Strike at Charles City.

CHARLES CITY, Ia., March 17.—(Special.)—Forty employes of the foundry department of the Hart-Parr gasoline engine factory went out on a strike this morning. The issue is some rules that were posted relative to their conduct, which they deemed objectionable.

BISHOP O'GORMAN SEES POPE

His Holiness Approves Archbishop Ireland's Utterances on Franco-Vatican Conflict.

ROME, March 17.—Pope Pius today received in private audience the Right Rev. Thomas O'Gorman, bishop of Sioux Falls, S. D., which is in the archdiocese of St. Paul.

During the conversation Pope Pius said that Archbishop Ireland's discourse last December on "Church and State in France" was a strong presentation of the Franco-Vatican conflict.

"Although I know it caused some displeasure," the pope said, "Archbishop Ireland was correct as to the remote causes of the conflict when he said that the French clergy and leading Catholics failed by not following the advice of my illustrious predecessor."

Pope Pius generally praised the American episcopate for its stand on the questions between France and the church. He spoke in the strongest way concerning the expulsion from France of Mgr. Montagnini, secretary of the papal nunciature, adding: "While under great grief my first consolation was a cablegram from America, guess from whom?"

After a pause, the pope himself answered the question, saying: "From Archbishop Ireland."

The pope also spoke of the church in the Philippine Islands and compared the attitude of the United States there with that of France, saying that the action of the United States was the way governments should settle mixed political and religious questions.

The pope asked Mgr. O'Gorman about President Roosevelt and expressed pleasure to hear that he was satisfied with the solution of the Philippine question. He also requested Mgr. O'Gorman to present his regards to President Roosevelt.

The bishop announced that Mrs. Douglas Robinson of New York, sister of President Roosevelt, would arrive in Rome during holy week and requested the pope to receive her.

The pontiff answered: "Naturally, I shall be delighted. All doors shall be open to her. You must accompany her."

Congressmen Leave Colon.

COLON, March 17.—The members of the United States congress who came here on board the steamer Panama to inspect the work on the canal sailed at noon today. They will stop at Kingston, Jamaica, and Port Au Prince before returning to the United States. The steamer Bleucher, with Speaker Cannon and his party, is expected to arrive here March 25.

Irish to Learn of Boers.

WOLVERHAMPTON, England, March 17.—Speaking at an Irish demonstration here today, John Dillon asked the young men to sit at the feet of Generals Botha and Delarey. He said the South African people had conquered their conquerors. Botha was now a minister of the crown, being premier and minister of native affairs of the Transvaal, and that Irishmen might see the time when John Redmond would be the premier of Ireland. He said that he believed that in the victory of the Boers the Irish policy had been vindicated.

Oliver Typewriter Sues Trust.

NEW YORK, March 17.—(Special Telegram.)—Suit was begun yesterday in the United States court here by the Oliver Typewriter company of Chicago against the American Writing Machine company, one of the underlying companies of the so-called Typewriter trust, for injunction to restrain the Typewriter exchange, another of the so-called trust companies, from circulating advertisements about the Oliver typewriter, which the complainants declare to be misrepresentations. Illegitimate methods of competing with the Oliver Typewriter company are alleged in the bill of complaint.

One Ticket in Bonesteel.

BONESTEEL, S. D., March 17.—(Special.)—For the first time in the history of Bonesteel there will be but one ticket in the field at the spring election, which will be held next Tuesday. At a mass meeting held at the town hall last Monday evening the old board was renominated. The Pilot, one of the leading newspapers of the town, has made a hard fight on the present board and it came as a surprise to a great many that the members of the old board were renominated. The old board has been criticized severely by the anti-saloon people for not enforcing the laws regarding Sunday closing, etc. All conceded, however, that from a business standpoint the town has been well managed under the present administration.
