BRIEF CITY NEWS.

Visiting Nurses at Paxton—The Visiting Nurses' association will hold a meeting at the Paxton hotel at 10:30 Thursday morning.

One-Twentieth of Claim—A verdict was returned by a jury Tuesday morning giving John English judgment for $100 against Jacob Small for assault and imprisonment. English sued for $2,000.

Carless With His Money—E. J. Troyer, a visitor in the city, left his bill book lying in the harness shop at 1530 Douglas street Tuesday and when he returned later to recover his property learned that it had disappeared. He said it contained $50.

Smith Found Guilty—George Smith, colored, was found guilty of breaking and entering in Judge Truip's court Wednesday afternoon for getting into the shoe store of George Wright in South Omaha. He was recommended to the mercy of the court.

Furniture Dealers in June—The Nebraska Furniture Dealers' association will hold its annual meeting in Omaha in June. The definite date has not yet been fixed, the matter being in the hands of the executive committee and will be announced in a few days.

Copper Wire Stolen—When Samuel Kristlemann, 1300 North Twenty-fourth street, returned to his wagon, which he had left at Eleventh and Farnam streets, Tuesday afternoon, he found some one had taken thirty-five pounds of copper wire and gotten away.

Roommate is Missing—Roy Burnett, 229 North Thirteenth street, reported to the police Wednesday morning that his roommate had stolen two suits of clothes from him. Detectives Drummy and Maloney recovered the suits in a pawnshop, but the roommate was not to be found.

Cruelty Says the Wife—Margaret J. Fry applied to the district court Wednesday for a divorce from Charles L. Fry on the ground of cruelty. They were married at Charinda, Ia., September 13, 1883. She says he threw a cup at her, cutting her on the forehead, and that he has often beaten her. The defendant is a switchman on the Burlington road. She asks alimony also.

Bids for City Bonds—County and City Treasurer Fink at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon will open sealed bids for the purchase of $50,000 intervention and $150,000 sewer bonds, which were voted for last November. These bonds will be twenty-year bonds, bearing 4 1/2 per cent interest, payable semi-annually. Bidders offering the best premiums will be awarded the bonds.

First Case for North Platte—George W. King, as administrator of the estate of John P. Kennedy, has brought suit for $5,000 damages against the Burlington for the death of John P. Kennedy, which, it is alleged, was caused by a collision on that road while Kennedy was a passenger on September 18, 1906, at Scott's Bluff. This is the first federal case filed for the North Platte subdivision of the new federal district. The case was necessarily filed at Omaha because no deputy district clerk has yet been appointed for the North Platte subdivision. The case will, however, be tried at North Platte.

Bogus Dice and Dice—With a complete outfit and a set of tools for loading dice Jesse Clemens and Harrison Talbot, colored, were found in a room at 23 North Twelfth street by Detectives Hatfield, Donohoe and McDonald Tuesday night. The pair were smoking "hop" when the officers arrived. Their tools and outfit were confiscated and themselves locked up. Judge Crawford sentenced them to ten days in jail each.

Scott Gets Gold Badge—At the meeting of the Omaha Hotel Clerks' association Monday evening K. C. Scott of the Merchants hotel was presented with a handsome gold badge, the symbol of the association, for his faithful services as the chief officer of the association. President Scott is proud of the badge. It is of solid gold and represents an open hotel register and is adorned with a diamond setting.

Owen McCaffrey Will Build—Owen McCaffrey, a retail liquor dealer at 111 South Sixteenth street, is having plans drawn by Architect F. A. Heminger for a two-story frame residence to be erected near his present home at 1021 Park avenue. The cost of the new home will be about $3,000, including plumbing and interior fixtures, and will be modern in every respect. Mr. McCaffrey is now at Hot Springs, Ark., and the contract for the erection of the residence will be let immediately upon the completion of the plans by Architect Heminger, when it is expected that Mr. McCaffrey will have returned from his southern trip.

THAW MONEY HELPS SEMINARY Old Cosmos Hotel Owned by Widow Given to Omaha Institution Years Ago.

With all the interest which is being evinced in the Thaw trial, it is of local interest to know that Omaha has profited by the benefactions from the Thaw millions. Mrs. William Thaw, mother of Harry K. Thaw and Mr. McDonough, a lawyer of Cincinnati, owned the old Cosmos hotel which stood where the new Carpenter Paper company building is now being erected. They gave this building and land to the Presbyterian Theological seminary, which sold the corner for $35,000, and used the money in the erection of the new seminary in Omaha. William Thaw was a staunch Presbyterian and gave liberally to any cause which had for its object the teaching of young men to be ministers in the Presbyterian faith. His wife carried out his custom in giving that corner to the Omaha seminary.

LEITER MAY COME TO OMAHA

Ziegler Coal Company Said to Have Bought Local Site.

FOURTEEN LOTS SOLD TO GREAT WESTERN

White Stickney Railroad is the Outstanding Purchaser, the Deal is Ascribed to the Chicago Magnate.

An important deal in real estate was consummated Tuesday in the sale of fourteen lots on the east side of Nineteenth street between Mason and Pierce to the Chicago Great Western. The purchaser, the American Trust Co., did not make public. The sale has been delayed for some time on account of great antagonism to the acquisition of the property by the railroad company.

It is reported the site was bought for the use of the Ziegler Coal company of Ziegler, Ill., of which Joseph Leiter, formerly of Chicago, is the president and manager. It is deemed probable that immense coal yards will be established by the Illinois coal concern, as the site is admirably situated for such a purpose, but it will be necessary first to secure the co-operation of the city council in closing Nineteenth street.

The fourteen lots secured by the deal are occupied by as many small residences and one small store and it will be some time before the title to the whole tract is secured. It is reported an owner of one of the lots is still holding out for more money than has been offered by the railroad company, but negotiations for the property will probably be closed within a few days.

The lots in question occupy the whole block between Mason and Pierce streets with a frontage of 200 feet and is bounded by the present tracks of the railroad company, Nineteenth street and from Pierce to Leavenworth street, has been bought by the company and the recent sale completes the large "pocket" of land in that section of the city.

Property Grows in Demand.

That the real estate west of Sixteenth street between Harney and Leavenworth streets is rapidly increasing in popularity for investment purposes is evinced by the recent sale of the old home of Dr. Hans P. Jensen at 725 South Eighteenth street for $20,000. The lot is 80 feet wide and is occupied by an old two-story frame house and was owned by the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company. The sale was negotiated by Alfred C. Kennedy on the part of the insurance company. The property was bought by M. T. Jensen, as being the home of his father, Dr. Hans P. Jensen. Mr. Kennedy also has sold another lot for the insurance company in the same vicinity, that at the southeast corner of Twentieth street and St. Mary's avenue, which was bought by Samuel Ravitz for $3,500.

There are two small frame houses on the lot, which will be held by the buyer for investment. The real estate holdings of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company have been rapidly closed out in Omaha by Mr. Kennedy and but little of their property remains to be disposed of.

JUDGE TAKES STORY OF MAN

Wife and Husband Relate Shocking Statements About Their Domestic Life.

"He refused to give me proper clothing and food and wanted me to support him by leading a life of shame, your honor. I sometimes had to go to friends or relatives to get something to eat, or starve, and yesterday I had nothing at all," said Mrs. George Casey, 412 North Eighteenth street, to Judge Crawford in police court Wednesday morning, in explaining why she had sworn out a charge of vagrancy against her husband.

"I always had enough money for us to live comfortably and never refused to give her whatever she needed. I never lay idle, but she runs away sometimes and stays several days. Once she said so long that we thought a body found in the river must be her. Later we located her in a house of shame." That was Casey's side of the matter.

The habits of each stood out on the faces of the witnesses and, the evidence leaving little room for a decision, his honor sided with the man.

A LIGHT CONTEST.

Novel Ideas Introduced on Second Floor to Give the Public Light.

Omaha will play the host for both western and eastern guests next week on the occasion of the formal opening of the second floor of Brandels' new store.

The Brandels firm has received a great many letters within the past few weeks from store proprietors, architects and large owners of business property who express the intention of being here during the opening week to inspect a number of features which are absolutely new in store and building construction. Experts declare this building approaches more nearly the ideal than any mercantile structure west of New York.

The new second floor in the Brandels building is made into one salesroom, as much as this room is a full block long and a half block wide, its size alone makes it a most imposing sight. This floor is to be devoted exclusively to millinery and women's ready-to-wear apparel.

One of the foremost features of interest in the extraordinary success that has been attained in lighting the second floor. Electricity vies with daylight for supremacy. In the daytime a flood of light comes from the immense light well, 201 1/2 feet in size, that is located above the third floor and serves to bring daylight right into the center of every floor in the building. On all four sides of this second floor salesroom, daylight is admitted through prismatized glass and plate glass windows. The sidewalk outside the store could scarcely be better supplied with daylight than this second floor.

The artificial light will reach a point of great brilliance. There are 4,000 electric lights in this new salesroom. These lights are so arranged as to harmonize perfectly with the scheme of decoration. The columns, the fixtures, the ceiling and the display cases are studded with these electric lamps. It is said to be the most brilliant and artistic grouping of electric lights ever used in a permanent mercantile display.

The inner appointments of this salesroom are done on a magnificent scale. The entire floor is furnished in Cuban mahogany. All costume rooms and dressing rooms are white enameled within. There are more than 80 mirrors on this one floor. The sides each of the massive pillars are mirrored and the wall cases are mirror lined. The passenger elevators are the latest improved direct hydraulic plunger type and the elevator service will enable even the largest crowds to be accommodated with perfect comfort and no waste of time. The great Porte Cochere on Douglas street will be in perfect readiness as an entrance where women coming in their automobiles and conveyances may be enabled to reach the second floor easily.

A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by weakness and falling, or other displacement, of the pelvic organs. Other symptoms of female weakness are frequent headache, distress, imaginary specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, annoying sensation in stomach, dragging, or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness. If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that will give quicker relief or a more permanent cure than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cures. It is the most potent purgative and blood-purifying medicine known to medical science. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and contains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottles wrapper and attested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in number to attest the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy of known composition, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a cheap substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put up by Dr. Pierce, and have been improved and sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

DEFENSE OF SIDNEY SLAVIN

Business Man Says He is Industrious Youth and Not Guilty of Misconduct.

Refuting and resenting the charge of drunkenness and misconduct on the street toward women, friends of Sidney Slavin, whom the police arrested a few days ago near Tenth and Hickory streets, are pronounced in their defense of the young man. He was accused by the arresting officer, Patrolman W. R. Wilson, as being the leader of a mob of disorderly youths, when his friends insist he is a steady working boy of sober habits. "One of them, a business man, made this statement in the boy's behalf:

"Sidney is about 19 or 20 years of age, is steadily employed, has no vicious habits and is not a means guilty of any such conduct as that charged by the police. The fact is in this case he was standing on the street when the officer came along looking for the boys who had made remarks to women. The boys ran and Sidney stood still. That of itself ought to indicate whether he was guilty or not. The officer asked him the names of the boys and he refused to tell. That constituted his offense. When the officer upbraided him, he perhaps gave vent to his feelings with similar words as those used by the officer. Mr. Kennedy's mother is a henpecker over the charges made by the police and so is the boy, who says he wants to leave Omaha, for he is so ashamed of this disgrace for which he is not responsible. I know, personally, he is a sober, industrious young man and certainly has been unjustly attacked."

SMALLPOX IN CITY HALL

Dread Disease Strikes Building Amidships in Form of Victim.

A smallpox scare struck the city hall amidships Wednesday morning. "Frank Fuchs is my name," declared an unapproachated stranger, who entered the health department office and addressed Major Barker, the clerk.

"Good morning," replied Mr. Barker. "I believe I have smallpox," answered the stranger.

The news that there was a case of smallpox in the city hall spread rapidly. The afflicted man was stationed on the sidewalk on the west side of the city hall, to await the arrival of a conveyance to bear him to the pest house.

Fuchs was staying at the Aetna house, which place has been fumigated by the health department.

JOHNSON WANTS CITY PAID

President of Council Opposes Donation of Streets to Railroad.

CASTS ONLY VOTE AGAINST FREE GRANT

Mayor Will Be Urged to Veto Ordinance as to Enable Council to Reconsider Its Action.

President Johnson of the city council was alone Tuesday evening in voting against granting the Union Pacific Railroad company the right to lay three sidetracks along the west forty feet of Eighth street from California to Seward streets. The ordinance, which was passed Tuesday evening, was discussed in the council committee of the whole Monday afternoon, when Manager W. T. Isaac of the American Smelting & Refining company's local plant appeared and declared that the tracks were for the use of the smelting works.

Speaking of his position in this matter, Councilman Johnson says: "I believe in treating the railroad companies with the same consideration that individuals are treated. The railroads should pay the city some reasonable amount for the use of the streets. This closing up of the city streets without receiving any return should be stopped. Our industries, of course, have to be cared for, but that is another matter. In this particular instance I went down and looked over the ground. The railroad wants the west forty feet of Eighth street, which will close part of the street for some time to come, as there are now a number of squatters and an ice house on part of the street.

"Let the railroad companies put their sidetracks on private property or pay the city for the privilege of using the streets." Mayor Dahlman is in Lincoln. It is understood the mayor will be urged to veto this ordinance to enable the council to reconsider Tuesday evening's action.

PALMER RECEIVES THE HOME

Formally Takes Over Ten New Buildings of Butte Mountain Sanitarium.

Captain H. E. Palmer of the board of managers of the National Homes for Disabled Volunteers has returned from Hot Springs, E. D., where he formally received the completed group of ten buildings comprising the Battle Mountain sanitarium. This establishment has been building for about five years at a cost to the government of about $50,000 and is one of the most magnificent public sanitariums in the world. It will be formally opened May 1 for the reception of patients, disabled volunteers suffering from tuberculosis and kindred troubles from both the civil and Spanish-American wars. The ceremonies incident to the formal inauguration of the establishment will take place about May 30 and will be attended by the entire board of managers, members of congress and other notables interested in the great enterprise. The buildings are constructed of brick and stone and are of the mission style of architecture. Thomas M. Kimball of Omaha is the architect of the buildings.

The sanitarium grounds comprise some 5,000 acres and the grounds about the sanitarium buildings are being beautifully laid out and parked, making the establishment one of the most beautiful and unique in the country. The general plan of the buildings radiates from a common center, the inner circle being a grand arcade surrounding a small park from the center of which springs a fountain.

There yet remains to be completed the officers' cottages, which will be completed early this spring. Colonel Elwell, inspector general of the National Soldiers' homes, accompanied Captain Palmer on his visit.

WOMAN BONE OF CONTENTION

One Colored Man Gets Jealous of His Wife and Fights Their Boarder.

For some time Steve Palmer, colored, of South Omaha, has been laying for George Frazier, 315 Jackson street, of the same hood. Frazier at one time boarded in Palmer's family and the monster, jealousy, entered the bosom of the landlord when he began to notice signs of trifling on the part of his wife with the handsome boarder.

Frazier learned of the bitter attitude which Palmer held toward him and was told Tuesday evening there would be trouble when they met. Therefore when Frazier went out that night he placed a large revolver in his pocket ready for instant use.

Shortly after 9 o'clock Wednesday morning the men met at Eleventh and Harney streets. Events of the next few seconds proved there had been no mistake nor exaggeration about the prediction of trouble. There was a perplexing mixture of Palmer and Frazier all over the street corner, but the latter had no opportunity to draw his gun. He was anxiously watching for a chance when he spied Officer Henry Leach approaching at a swift pace, and then removed all thought of a pistol duel from his mind.

At the police station both were charged with fighting and Frazier with carrying concealed weapons in addition. Judge Crawford fined each one $5 and costs, ordering Frazier's gun confiscated. Palmer was surprised to be punished by the court also when he was suffering under the fear of losing his wife, but nevertheless handed over the amount.
